MAIL BANDIT ROBS GUARDS OF GUNS, COIN

ROY GARDNER, mail train bandit, who escaped early this morning for the second time from United States deputy marshals while being taken to prison. A posse is trailing Gardner and another convict, who also escaped.

Makes Good Threat to Escape After Inducing Officers to Remove 'Oregon Boot;' Is Believed Hiding in the Hills

Pyron, Other Convict, Who Is At Large, Also Fled When Being Taken to Prison Once Before; Battle Is Expected

TACOMA, Wash., June 11.—A battle is momentarily expected between the posse that is on the trail of Gardner and Pyron, according to a despatch from Castle Rock this morning. The escaped prisoners are well armed with guns taken from the deputy marshals from whom they escaped. The posse is on the trail of the convicts in the hills surrounding Castle Rock.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—The air service at Washington, D. C., has authorized the use of airplanes from Camp Lewis, Washington, to aid in the search for Roy Gardner, train bandit, according to a telephone message to United States Marshal James B. Holohan from Captain H. A. Arnold at Camp Lewis today.

CASTLE ROCK, Wash., June 11—Roy Gardner, under sentence to McNeil's island for robbing the United States mail, made his second escape between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning as the Shasta Limited train pulled into the station here. He took with him $200 in cash, which he stole from Deputy United States Marshals Mulhall and Webb, after taking their weapons, and left the officers wearing their own handcuffs as he leaped out the window of the lavatory.

Gardner was aided by Frank Pyron, who was being taken from Dunsmuir Cal., to McNeil's island by the same officers who were in charge of the mail robber. Pyron also escaped. The break for liberty was made following Gardner's request that he be permitted to go to the lavatory.

GOT TWO OFFICERS TO REMOVE OREGON BOOT.

Previously Gardner had induced the officers to remove an Oregon boot he was wearing.

"For humanity's sake, men, take off this Oregon boot," Gardner pleaded with his guards as the train was near Castle Rock, Wash., at 1:20 a. m. today.

"The thing hurts me terribly."

CATCHES MEN OFF GUARD, DRAWS GUN.

Catching the officers off guard, he whipped out a revolver that evidently had been sewed into his shirt and ordered them to elevate their hands. He gave the gun to Pyron, who held the officers up while Gardner went through their pockets, taking the money and guns and later placing the handcuffs on them.

Sheriff Hoggart of Kalama, Wash., was notified and organized a posse here early this morning. The woods are being scoured.

Gardner's escape was a climax to his sensational career and made good his boasts made at Sacramento when he was arrested for robbing the Southern Pacific Limited, that he would never be taken to the penitentiary.

It was his second escape in the same territory, he having broken away from his guards near Portland on June 7, 1920, while being taken to McNeil's island to serve 25 years for robbing the mail at San Diego, Cal., of $87,000.

CONFESSED TO ROBBERY OF S. P. MAIL TRAIN.

After his escape in 1920 Gardner dropped from sight until a short time ago, when he appeared near Napa, Cal., and for two days was thought to have been surrounded by a posse. He eluded the posse, however.

A few days later the Southern Pacific Limited was robbed near Roseville, Cal. Authorities immediately adopted the theory that Gardner was responsible. He was found near Sacramento and was arrested.

After hours of grilling he confessed the crime and was brought to San Francisco, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to another term of 25 years in the federal penitentiary.

MAN WHO CAPTURED BANDIT AIDS SEARCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—Daniel O'Connell, chief special agent of the Southern Pacific railroad, who was responsible for the capture of Roy Gardner, "gentleman bandit," following his robbery of two mail trains near Sacramento, announced today that every agency of law in the northwest is today co-operating in the search for Gardner, who made his second spectacular escape from officers early today while en route to McNeill's Island federal penitentiary.

"I have advised all railroad operatives in the northwest to be on the lookout for Gardner," O'Connell stated today. "The officers already are on his trail, a posse having been organized immediately after his escape. I have told them that Gardner will seek to escape very likely by stealing either an automobile or motor boat. He operates any make of automobile and is an expert in

Carpenters Quit Department of Building Trades

Delegates Leave Denver Rally Because of Defiance of Board Decision.

DENVER, June 11.—Delegates of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, representing more than 325,000 workers, today withdrew from the convention of the Building Trades Department of the American Federation of Labor, when a resolution was adopted suspending any international union that failed to comply with the awards of the National Board of Jurisdictional awards.

The resolution, which was adopted after a stormy debate, was directed at the Carpenters' Union because of its refusal to comply with the award rendered against it by the board in its jurisdictional dispute with the Sheet Metal Workers' Union.

Previous to the adoption of the resolution the convention endorsed the work of the national board, which was organized for the purpose of preventing through arbitration the tieing up of the building industry through jurisdictional and inter-union disputes. The carpenters' delegation cast the only votes against the approval of the continuation of the board's work.

The motion of the suspension of unions defying the decisions of the board was presented by William Bowen of New York, president of the International Union of Bricklayers, Mason and Plasterers. It was adopted by a vote of 35 to 25.

"Does that mean that the carpenters are suspended?" asked President William L. Hutcheson of the carpenters, who had led a bitter fight on the floor against the board.

"Yes, if they do not comply with the board's decision," replied John Donlin, president of the department, who had recommended that drastic action be taken upholding the board.

"All right, we are out," retorted Hutcheson, as he left the Auditorium meeting with the other members of his delegation.

DENVER, June 11.—Demand for the revocation of the charter of the building trades council of New York city and the formation of a new organization to replace it, unless it immediately complies strictly with the laws of the building trades department of the American Federation of Labor, was before the annual convention of the department today for consideration.

The demand was presented in a resolution jointly by the delegates of the Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paperhangers of America; the Bricklayers, Masons' and Plasterers' International Union and the International Hod Carriers, Building and Common Laborers' Union.

They charged that the council—one of the largest in the United States—enforced laws that were "in opposition to the principles of the organized labor movement of America, and deprives certain unions of representation in said council, because of their refusal to comply with the laws." They objected to the council barring delegates that were not business agents and declared that the council had no right to dictate to the unions as to what salary should be paid such representative. The resolution said the executive council of the American Federation of Labor had notified the building trades department that it had sustained protest of these organizations.

The New York council, which was recently investigated by the New York state joint legislative committee, inquiring into the "building trust," also received the attention of the executive council of the federation's building trades department. This council's report said that every effort had been made to reconcile conflicting interests in order that "complete harmony might be established between the council, the unions and their employers."

The settlement of jurisdictional and inter-union disputes in the building industry by arbitration and without stoppage of work was another issue before the convention.

Irish sympathizers had a resolution calling for a boycott of all English manufactured goods until Great Britain stopped its "war of reprisals, killing of people and destruction of property in Ireland."

OLD STATION MADE CENTER OF TAX FIGHT

Southern Pacific Property At Fourteenth and Franklin Is Declared by Oakland Officials to Be Non-Operative

City Presents to Equalizers Reasons for Demand to Collect Taxes; Decision On June 23 May Go to Court

The little old Southern Pacific station at Fourteenth and Franklin and the grounds around it have been made the center of a fight which may upset a part of the State's taxation system. The fight, which was taken to the State Board of Equalization at Sacramento by the City of Oakland yesterday, and which may go to the Supreme court for review is one to have declared non-operative the square block of property in the heart of Oakland's business district that the city might assess and collect taxes upon the same. A number of somewhat similar cases were taken to the board at the same time and a decision is expected at the second hearing to be held on June 23.

Painted with an impressive legal terminology and burnished with an expansive eloquence, it was the old station and unused grounds that was the main exhibit during the hearing. In contrasting lights the place was pictured by city and railroad, and upon the decision depends a matter of $60,000 a year in taxes, or, what is more important, the probability that the property will be improved.

PICTURES STATION AS UNTAXED HOLDING.

Assistant City Attorney Leon Gray, speaking for the city, pictured the station and lawn as an untaxed holding in the center of Oakland's business district, and declared that under the tax classification as operative that the railroad was being permitted to hold for speculative purposes property worth $1,500,000 and for which not one cent was being paid for taxes to anyone. As the road pays its State taxes on gross revenue, and as it has said there was no revenue from this property, Gray urged that neither State nor city derived a cent from the situation.

The lawns opposite the station, even though fenced off, are actively engaged in railroad business, argued Southern Pacific attorneys.

"Has the city of Oakland never noticed," Attorney Foulds of the railroad asked, "that the lawn opposite the station is used to anchor a guy wire for the trolley system?"

"Moreover," continued Foulds, "has the city never noticed that there is a sign on the lawn?"

J. W. Dyer, chief deputy assessor, to whom these questions were put, drew a laugh when he replied that it had never occurred to him to "look for signs and guy-wires to indicate whether or not the lot was engaged in the railroad business."

SUPREME COURT REVIEW EXPECTED.

Both sides had arguments and briefs introduced and made stipulations as to fact. It is anticipated that, following a decision, a petition for a Supreme court review will be made and that from the hearing of yesterday will develop one of the most far-reaching tax cases of a decade.

The company argument was that the railroad is taxed upon its gross receipts and that in no year has it been taxed as heavily as this one. Because Oakland can get no city taxes for the land in question, it does not mean the railroad is not being taxed, and because the railroad has denied the necessity of a station at Fourteenth and Franklin it does not follow that the lawn and grounds are not needed so long as there is such a station.

Gray surprised the railroad officials and started a controversy over the admissability of his evidence when he produced the record of the railroad commission hearing concerning the new station at Fourteenth and Franklin. Excerpts from the testimony of railroad men to the effect that the property was not bringing in any revenue, that a station was not needed, and tending to show that the property was of a non-operative character, were included. Gray was successful in getting this evidence in, and, in addition at a hearing on June 23, at which time the question will be settled, will have the chance to question the officials.

CASE REGARDED OF STATE-WIDE IMPORTANCE.

The board members intimated that the case was one that would apply to scores of cities, that it was one of State-wide importance and that a favorable decision for Oakland would mean the establishment of a precedent contrary to all of their previous holdings, while Gray argued that the Oakland case differed from others in that it allowed a railroad to hold up the development of the community.

"If the State system of taxation is designed to allow railroads to hold property for speculative purposes and to escape payment of any taxes on it, the system should be changed," said Gray.

Of secondary importance is the effort of the city to tax as non-operative property the lands of the Southern Pacific to the south of the Oakland mole, the question here hinging upon one as to whether the railroad is operating upon a franchise or a lease. In the latter case a city tax could be assessed. The board announced that a decision in this matter would be rendered on June 23.

Settlement of two other matters will be made at the same time when the board agrees as to how the steam and heating plants of the Great Western Power and P. G. & S companies should be taxed. Statements of fact have been presented and upon the decision of the board may be based a test case in the Supreme court.

In another matter Oakland is con-

Lemon Extract Missing: Rural Carrier Slain

(By International News Service)

SAN ANGELO, Texas, June 11.—Because he failed to produce a supply of lemon extract is believed to have been the motive for the murder of J. Bryant of Eden, rural mail delivery carrier, Sheriff Miller, Bryant's father-in-law, declared today.

Bryant was shot and killed while on his route, it is alleged, by Tom Benge, a ranchman of Miller's View, who, it is said, became incensed when the mail carrier arrived at his ranch without the extract. Benge is being held in jail at Ballinger, charged with murder and will face a preliminary hearing Monday.

Nab Bootlegger After Alleged Daring Robbery

Man Captured With Still and Booze Charged With Holding Up Miner.

LIVERMORE, June 11.—A wild chase by Livermore officers at 2 o'clock this morning landed J. F. Leland as he was loading a steaming still into his motor car. It is charged that he abducted Charles Madison, a miner, at the point of a pistol, robbed him and threw him from his auto at the brickyards at the edge of town.

Leland is in jail and refuses to talk other than to admit that the name he gave is fictitious.

Madison, it is said by the officers, was standing on the main street of the city when Leland drove up in an auto, stuck a pistol under his nose and told him to get in. Madison complied, and still menaced by the pistol, gave up what money he had according to the officers, who charge that Leland then drove him through town, slugged him and threw him from the rushing car.

Madison telephoned in to Constable Henry Seeband who called in Deputy Sheriff Wright and Night Marshal McDonald. They took up the chase in Wright's speedster and finally found Leland in front of a house owned by Mrs. Julius Paul Smith and by her rented to Homer O'Neal, 2162 Thirty-fifth avenue, Oakland.

Leland was engaged in loading a still several demijohns and kegs of illicit booze and other bootleggers' paraphernalia into his car.

He gave up without a struggle and was identified by Madison as the man who had abducted, robbed and slugged him.

WINE ON TRUCK SEIZED, TWO MEN ARRESTED.

Two men are under arrest and a third is being sought by the police following an early morning interruption of an illicit delivery of 200 gallons of wine at 4 a. m. today.

The men arrested are Philip Arapothanasi, 2231 Telegraph avenue, and John Theall 2037 Virginia street, Berkeley. Police are searching for Peter Alevijos, whose address is unknown.

The arrests were made by Stanley Hitchcock and James Nichols, employees of a private patrol and detective service. They were standing at Forty-ninth street and Broadway at 4 a. m. when the three men drove by in an automobile truck.

A suspicious odor greeted their nostrils and they followed the truck in their automobile.

Alevijos who police say was riding in the rear of the truck, saw that they were being followed and, jumping from it, ran away and escaped.

Then the two special policemen stopped the truck and discovered that it was loaded with 200 gallons of wine. They arrested the two drivers and took them with their truck to the Northern Police station.

The men claim that they were hired by Alevijos to truck the wine from Bay Point to an address in East Oakland which he did not tell them. Both men have been charged with violation of the Volstead Act.

TWO BERKELEY HOMES RAIDED, STILLS SEIZED.

BERKELEY, June 11.—Oakland is today minus one source of bootleg whisky, while one Berkeleyan is under arrest charged with violating prohibition laws, as a result of a raid made yesterday by federal and local officers.

F. D. Farber, 2220 Curtis street, is under arrest. The raiding officers say they found in his home one of the best stills in the bay district. It had a capacity of thirty-five gallons.

According to Inspector Kyle of Oakland the still has been turning out liquor practically for Oakland consumption. Mysterious calls of automobiles to the house aroused Policeman Kohler's suspicions. Thursday night Kohler with Patrolman Swain discovered that the still was operated during the early morning hours to avoid the suspicions of neighbors. The raid followed.

The home of John Nass, 2229 San Pablo avenue, also was raided and a still seized.

"I Never Thought," Sighs Girl Graduate Held in Law's Mesh

MISS PAULINE AYRES, Thursday night graduate from Oakland Technical High School, who confessed to passing bad checks, "I didn't think," is her plea. (Nelle W. Stone Foto)

Bad Checks Blamed for Plight.

It was the eternal cry of Youth which came from the lonely brilliant figure of "Helen Walker" sitting apart this morning in the court room of Police Judge Tyrrell awaiting her turn before the bar. Seventeen years looked forth from a face made for laughter but washed clean of every emotion except shame and remorse. When men came and went confessed to sordid living and unwholesome practices the flushed cheeks were shaded under a big, flopping hat and eyes swollen from tears of the night were veiled.

In her gingham gown with its pink and white daintiness drawing all eyes to the girlish figure and the broad black hat topped with a wreath of field flowers, Miss Pauline Ayres, this summer's graduate of Oakland Technical High School, sallied forth from her parents' home 3427 Lawton avenue, yesterday with a mother's proud smile following her.

Mrs. J. J. Rhea, wife of a San Francisco importer, had every confidence in her beautiful young daughter. On Thursday night she had stood with her school mates and received in her sweet girl graduate's gown the diploma which was so hardly won. When it came her turn to take the sheepskin great applause greeted her coming, for it was she who so many times had borne dramatic honors when the student body had met.

But Pauline Ayres did not return home last night. Detectives arrested her in a department store on a charge of passing checks under names not her own, piling up an alleged debt she could not meet. So the law took its course and this morning brought her into the police court. Her case will come to trial on Friday, July 24. In the meantime she has been released to the custody of her mother and stepfather, who are sponsors for her return. The district attorney's office made this request of Judge Tyrrell.

"I never knew what it would mean," Miss Ayres cried before court today. "I am so terribly ashamed." And then she smiled a wan, swollen smile. "Everybody has been so awfully kind. I never knew how kind the world could be."

When she went before Judge Tyrrell, there stood by her side her mother and stepfather, shielding her, and even strong men looked away. They were glad when she was sent home for the little time remaining until the law should take its course.

WANTED TO TREAT HER YOUNG FRIENDS.

Not having everything that other girls seemed to have, wishing to be lovely of person and open of hand, seeing in herself a beautifully appointed belle and learning how easy a thing it was to accomplish, was the undoing of pretty Pauline Ayres, say the police. It was in February she is alleged to have accomplished the passing of the first check. It was four months later to a day that she was arrested. The few [illegible] dollars which it [illegible] permitted her to stand "treats" to her fellows and provided her the luxuries which might otherwise have been denied her, are dust and ashes in her mouth today.

Police have named Miss Ayres one of the most elusive persons to come to their attention. Yet it was not forgery in which she indulged. She signed her checks, it is alleged, with fictitious names under which she wrote a man's name, thus lending the impression of a parent's backing, say the police. Five such checks are alleged to have been passed on one department store, in amounts as follows: $15, $28, $16, $17, $20. It is upon this last that the charge was [illegible] department stores claim to have paper presented by her under her series of aliases. Miss Ayres passed two bad checks yesterday, say the police, before she was arrested. After confessing to Captain of Inspectors Richard McSorley, eight checks were identified by her, it is said.

It was so easy it did not seem criminal, she explained. Other girls seemed to have more money than I. When it came my turn to pay for tickets I had to get the money somehow."

Private detectives from various department stores have been trying since early in March to discover the

Police Fired on By Citizens in Belfast Streets

Sinn Feiners Flee District; Martial Law in Dublin Expected.

BELFAST, June 11.—One person was shot and perhaps fatally wounded and several citizens were so roughly handled that they had to be taken to hospitals during a melee last night. A police lorry was passing the scene of the affray when it was fired upon. The police returned the fire and a general fight followed.

While the fight was in progress crowds of unionists gathered and cheered excitedly. Many Sinn Feiners living in the district where the trouble occurred changed their quarters during the night.

DUBLIN, June 11.—Early enforcement of martial law in this city is generally expected by leading businessmen. Already the British military authorities have issued a warning that the use of cycles in County Dublin, Wicklow and Meath will be forbidden if the attacks on government troops continue.

One of the latest official British orders states that owners or occupants of premises in the streets overlooking Dublin castle will be "shot on sight" if they venture on roofs without having first obtained official permission.

LONDON, June 11.—The government has instructed the authorities in Ireland to cease reprisals, says the Daily Mail. The newspaper adds that when the military forces in Ireland are increased, as it has been announced they will be, they will exercise full authority in quelling outrages and riots.

DUBLIN, June 11.—Crown forces yesterday raided the headquarters of the Irish Nationalist Foresters and arrested forty-six young men alleged to have been attending a class where signalling was being taught.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the navy, whose difficulties with Rear-Admiral Sims made naval history during the Wilson administration, was asked by the International News Service to express an opinion on the latest escapade of the admiral in London.

Today this message was received from Secretary Daniels at his home in Raleigh, North Carolina:

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Rear-Admiral Sims' leave of absence in England was revoked today by Secretary Denby and he was ordered to report at once to the Secretary of the Navy.

Denby's action was taken without waiting for a reply from the officer to the secretary's cablegram asking whether he had been correctly quoted as attacking Sinn Fein sympathizers in the United States in a speech delivered in London this week. Admiral Sims had announced that he would sail for home from England on July 15. He was granted leave of absence to go abroad to receive a degree from an English university. The naval secretary's cablegram sent today to the officer said:

"Remainder your leave revoked. You will return to the United States immediately and report in person to the Secretary of the Navy. Acknowledge."

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The explanation which the secretary of the navy has demanded of Rear-Admiral William S. Sims for his "jackass" speech before the English Speaking Union in London, had not reached Washington up to 10 o'clock this morning it was said at the navy department.

The reply from the admiral to Secretary Denby's peremptory cable of Thursday had been expected to reach Washington before this, but none has been forthcoming. It may arrive during the day or tonight, in which event Secretary Denby said it would be made available for the press.

In the absence of any answer from Sims, navy officials continued their attitude of silence today regarding the case. Secretary of the Navy Denby said he had nothing to say.

Body of Legion Commander Laid To Final Rest

Palm Bound in Tri-Color Is Tribute of Chateau Thierry.

CINCINNATI, June 11.—Since the funeral of Gen. Joseph J. Hooker of Civil War fame, which took place in the '70's, there has not been such a military funeral cortege in this city as that which followed the services this afternoon over the body of Col. F. J. Galbraith, national commander of the American Legion, who was killed in an automobile accident in Indianapolis Thursday morning.

Marshal Litterau, French high commissioner to the United States, who was a close friend of the deceased soldier, and Captain de Lavergne, air attache of the French embassy at Washington, officially represented Ambassador Jules Jusserand. They arrived today accompanied by two French veterans who carried the tri-color in the funeral procession.

One of the most impressive of the hundreds of floral tributes was a palm bound with the tri-color which was placed on the coffin. It was a tribute of the city of Chateau Thierry, France. With the palm was a card bearing the inscription, "To one of our bravest liberators, from the city of Chateau Thierry."

Other arrivals early today were Assistant Secretary of the Navy Theodore Roosevelt and J. T. Taylor of the legion's executive committee.

Governor Harry L. Davis, of Ohio, Adjutant Gen. George W. Florence and the members of the Ohio state supreme court also arrived.

Franklin D. Oliver, Philadelphia a past national commander of the American Legion, and hundreds of other legionnaires arrived this morning.

DUNSMUIR, June 11. — Norris Pyron, Roy Gardner's accomplice in escaping from officers on the train in Washington, had been at large in Shasta and Siskiyou counties for three years since his escape by leaping through the window of a train at Kennett, Cal., while being taken to prison in October, 1918, according to City Marshal Sam Fiske, who assisted federal agents in the re-arrest of Pyron here several days ago.

Pyron was convicted as a counterfeiter. He was said to be expert in the making of spurious $5 gold pieces. After his escape in 1918 he followed various occupations in Northern California and was not apprehended until an attempt was made to cash in San Francisco a bank draft which was returned for lack of funds. His description was then sent out and his identity established.

Mystery Man, Who Saw Gardner, Sought

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—The appearance of a mystery man at the county jail last Sunday to see Roy Gardner and his conversation regarding a suit of clothes which he brought for the prisoner has led the police to begin an investigation. Each of the three visitors who called upon Gardner will be interrogated, although there is nothing unusual about a prisoner having callers.

The visitor concerning whom there is an element of mystery gave his name as Mr. Christy and his address 525 Turk street. He was a man of large porportions and he brought a newly pressed suit of clothes for the prisoner. He said he was an old friend of Gardner. When Deputy Sheriff Jack Whelan was searching the clothes he came upon a cleaner's tag and asked the visitor what it meant.

"It's only a cleaner's tag," was the response. "It can't talk, but I will say that these clothes could tell a lot if they could talk, but believe me, if they could I wouldn't have brought them."

The two other persons who called upon Gardner were Robert Nelson, 419 Golden Gate avenue, and Edward Christiansen, 111 Clement street.

Mexican Chiefs Hope for Early U. S. Recognition

Conference Gives Rise to the Belief of New Note From Washington.

LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

MEXICO CITY, June 11.—Public opinion in the Mexican capital was much calmer today after almost a week of excitement. There were symptoms of universal hope that a basis may be found without much further delay upon which Mexico and the United States will build a new relationship devoid of the bones of contention that have endangered peace between the two nations in the past.

The Mexican public generally appears inclined to support the attitude of President Obregon, which is summed up in his refusal to sign the protocol of the proposed treaty with the United States prior to recognition of his government by Washington.

Prominent members of the Mexican Senate joined in the endorsement of Obregon's policy and expressed the view that the United States should abide by the treaty of Guadalupe, signed in 1848 after the Mexican war.

General Calles, minister of the interior, reflected the general new optimism today when he stated that the situation was by no means grave as regards the republic's relations with the United States.

George T. Summerlin, charge here, conferred today with Albert Pani, secretary for foreign affairs, and the conference gave rise to the belief that he may have presented a new note from Washington.

BANDITS FIRE AT OFFICER.

LOS ANGELES, June 11.—Detected in the act of breaking into a store at Lennox, a Los Angeles suburb, early today, a bandit and a woman confederate fired several shots from revolvers when Deputy Marshal Evans attempted to arrest them. One of the bullets ripped Evans' coat, but did not wound him. The man and woman escaped, but left an automobile.

Gardner School Teacher, Boxer Before Crime Career

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—Roy Gardner was born in Trenton, Mo., receiving a high school education. Later he moved to Colorado Springs, where his father was engaged in mining and at one time accumulated a fortune of $200,000. Subsequently young Gardner became an acetylene welder. He spent some time in Mexico and finally made his way to California, where he became a professional prize fighter. He engaged in a number of pugilistic bouts under the name of "Young Fitzsimmons," and subsequently was Jeffries' sparring partner when that ex-champion was preparing for his Reno combat at training quarters at Ben Lomond.

It was in 1911 that Gardner embarked on a criminal career, and from his prize fight days never used his right name. He entered a Market-street jewelry store, asked to see some diamonds and ran out with the tray in his possession. He was captured red-handed by an officer and given a five-year term in San Quentin.

RELEASED ON PAROLE.

While incarcerated there under the name of Samuel Cox there occurred serious bread riots. Gardner aided the prison authorities in suppressing them, in the course of which he received a severe stab wound in the ribs, extending a distance of nine inches. His conduct on this occasion caused him to attract attention in the penitentiary, and after serving two years he was released on parole.

He then went East and was next heard of teaching in a small college in Davenport, Ia. He was catalogued as a lecturer in connection with acetylene welding. While he was in the East he and two other men perpetrated a $54,000 train hold-up at Centerville, Ia. With the fruits of this job, Gardner went south and finally wound up at the Tijuana race track, where it is reported that in one day he lost $9000 on the ponies. It was then that he conceived the scheme of holding up a mail clerk and he received $87,000 by that robbery.

GETS 25-YEAR TERM.

He was sentenced to 25 years, and it was while being brought north by a marshal that he escaped. During his period of liberty he held up train No. 10 near Sacramento, and it was for this crime that Federal Judge William C. Van Fleet sentenced him last week to an additional 25 years. He pleaded with the court for mercy, arguing that although he had always been armed he had never fired a shot and never would harm anyone.

The court refused to be lenient. Gardner was facing a total of at least 30 years in prison. With all credits he could not have been released on his 25-year term short of 15 years, and the law would then require him to serve the term for the San Diego job after his liberation. It is the theory of the San Francisco authorities, as well as Special Agent Daniel O'Connell of the Southern Pacific police forces, that one or two of the pals who have been with Gardner in his recent crimes, planned his delivery from the train en route to McNeil Island. They say he was very popular with ex-convicts and had a likeable personality.

He was known in the Iowa college as C. E. Patterson.

How About Loganberries and Lemons? Tribune Gives Reply

Horticultural queries are in the ascendant today, everything from lemons to loganberries coming in for attention at the hands of those who ask The TRIBUNE for information. Among the questions received by the Information Bureau was the following:

"How many species of loganberry are there?"

There is only one species of true loganberry. There are other berries very similar to the loganberry, however. The phenomenal blackberry is a cross between the raspberry and the blackberry and the mammoth blackberry, also known as the black loganberry, is a cross between the wild blackberry and the domestic blackberry.

Another reader inquires:

"What are the principal varieties of lemons grown in California?"

Eureka, Lisbon and Villa Franca.

Here is another query:

"How many lemon trees can be planted to the acre?"

If planted 24 feet apart, they will run 75 trees to the acre.

The TRIBUNE'S Information Bureau will answer all questions of a general nature except school or legal problems, debates, trade and firm names and queries as to the time of day.

If answers are desired by mail stamps must be enclosed. Quickest results can be obtained by telephoning to the bureau. If you have any problems of a general nature to solve "Ask The TRIBUNE" Information Bureau, Lakeside 6000.

OLD S. P. STATION MADE CENTER OF CITY TAX FIGHT

tending that the steam-heating plant of the California Electric Generating company should be assessed by the city, as the property was owned by a company not engaged in the delivery of heat or electricity. The Great Western Power company appeared to answer, holding that the other company had leased all its property to the Great Western; that the stockholders and directors were largely the same and that the separate names were used for financing purposes.

By showing that the Southern Pacific lands to the south of the mole have not been occupied or improved, and that the lawn at Fourteenth and Franklin is non-operative property the city is not only seeking an increase of perhaps $100,000 a year in taxes, but would force action toward improvement. If the city may tax the land, it is argued, revenue-producing structures would be erected, or the property sold to parties who would build.

Certain members of the board, R. E. Collins, for one, intimated that their minds were made up and that they would hold that Oakland has no right to the taxes. Gray had Collins' admission read into the record, and intimated that he might use it if he asks the Supreme court to review the hearing.

Despite the fact that the board appears to have made up its mind the fight will be carried on, according to a statement today by Harry Williams, city auditor and assessor, who was represented at the meeting and who is interested in bringing to light any property that may escape assessment through legal technicality.

The matter will be brought up again on June 23 in the offices of the board at Sacramento.

Mayor John L. Davie, Assistant City Attorney Leon Gray, Frank Colbourn and Al Carter, commissioners-elect; I. H. Clay, county auditor, and a number of city and county officials were present at the hearing.

Submarine Chaser With 17 Men Missing

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—The U. S. submarine chaser No. 508, which left San Pedro for Mare Island six days ago, had not been heard from at noon today since her departure from San Pedro.

"We are not yet alarmed," was the statement at the headquarters of the Twelfth Naval District here. "She very probably has put in at some small port along the coast and not reported to us. We will do nothing about it for another day at least. The weather has been calm and there is no occasion for worry."

The vessel carries seventeen men.

person who was successfully using a ruse entirely new to them.

J. J. Rhea, stepfather of the girl, was far more agitated even than Miss Ayres or her mother this morning. The trio played hide and seek through the City Hall corridors endeavoring to escape newspaper men and the curious bystanders.

"Pauline has always had a generous allowance," Rhea declared. "There was never any evidence at home of the things which she bought with the money. I think she now understands the seriousness of what she has done. Girlish vanity and a false idea of keeping up with other girls in going to shows, and having her hair dressed and hands manicured prompted her crime. I do not know where she learned the methods.

"Pauline has not given us any trouble. She is always at home at night and has her friends come there. She loves a good time. When we heard of her difficulties, of course her mother and I immediately sent word to the police that we would make good the amounts of the checks.

"Every girl sometimes thinks she wants to go on the stage," Rhea confessed. "We have never taken Pauline's idea seriously."

Ship Firm Must Pay for False Arrrest

The Appellate Court has just affirmed the judgment for $1500 rendered against the Hanlon Shipbuilding company in favor of E. F. Korkman as damages for false imprisonment.

During the war, a dispute across between the different crafts in the shipbuilding plant of the Hanlon Shipbuilding company, as to the distribution of the work. Korkman was an official of the ship carpenters' union, and objected to the machinists boring holes for the davits on the ships. He reported to his union this practice at the plant. Hanlon, the president of the shipbuilding company, was alleged to have sent for Korkman and ordered his arrest, and Korkman was held in the city prison for twenty-five hours without charge being made against him. Hanlon had a deputy sheriff's badge and contended that the arrest was made by him as a deputy sheriff and not as an officer of the shipbuilding company. However, although he had been a deputy sheriff since 1913, this was the first arrest he had ever made.

The Appellate Court held that the arrest was unwarranted, and that the company was responsible for the acts of its agent, Hanlon.

Not Guilty, Plea of Mrs. Kaber, Daughter

CLEVELAND, O., June 11.—Pleas of not guilty were entered by Mrs. Eva Catherine Kaber and her daughter, Marian McArdle, when arraigned before Judge Maurice Bernon in common pleas court here this morning for the murder of Mrs. Kaber's husband, Daniel F. Kaber, wealthy Lakewood publisher. Judge Bernon set the cases for trial on June 28.

The examination lasted less than three minutes. Judge Bernon turned to the older woman, alleged chief participant in one of the strangest murder plots in history, and said:

"You are the defendant?"

"Yes," was the scarcely audible reply.

"How do you wish to plead?"

"Not guilty," was the answer.

Both were held without bail and taken back to their cells in the county jail.

GARDNER'S WIFE SAYS SHE HOPES HE WILL ESCAPE

Admits Belief It Would Have Been Better for Him to Go to Prison.

NAPA, Calif., June 11.—"He's my husband and I'm going to be true to him—I think it would have been better had he gone to McNeill's Island, but now that he hasn't, I'm for him and hope he makes the best of it," declared Mrs. Roy Gardner to the United Press today.

She was commenting on the sensational escape of her husband from United States marshals at Castle Rock, Wash., early today.

"I don't want the world to think Roy is entirely bad," Mrs. Gardner went on. Her voice was trembling with emotion.

"I lived with him four years and I know him. He was straight and honest for four years. I know."

ADMITS HE IS CLEVER.

Mrs. Gardner is working here at the home of Mrs. E. Ferguson.

"I intend to stay right here and work," Mrs. Gardner said.

"Are you glad your husband got away?" she was asked.

"I can't say that I am," was the reply. "I sort of feel he would have been better off in the long run if he had gone to McNeill's Island and served his term. Still, I don't know. I hardly know what to think."

"He seems to be pretty clever," it was suggested.

Mrs. Gardner laugheda quiet little laugh.

"I guess he is," she said.

"I would like to have seen him serve his term and make a new start and prove himself a man.

"I would have waited for him and been a true and faithful wife.

"But if he gets away, I'll still be his true and faithful wife and I'm for him.

WISHES HIM LUCK.

"I don't have the slightest idea where he is going or what he will do, but I hope to hear from him some day.

"He isn't all bad. He isn't a crook. And I don't want the world to think he is. I was his wife and lived with him for four years. He was a good husband. And I know him all the way through. I don't know why he went wrong. Bad company, maybe. But for four years he was absolutely straight."

Mrs. Gardner seemed eager for an idea of what the outside world thinks of her husband.

"Do they?" she asked eagerly, and her voice trembled again.

"Well, I am his wife, and you bet I wish him luck."

MITCHELL CHOSEN 'DRY' DIRECTOR FOR CALIFORNIA

Deputy Insurance Commissioner to Relieve Ritter of State Work.

E. Forrest Mitchell will succeed Sam Rutter as federal prohibition enforcement director for California, according to an appointment announced in Washington today. It is believed that Mitchell's appointment will take effect July 1.

Mitchell has been looked upon by Republican leaders here as the probable appointee for some time. Last year he was campaign director of the Republican State Central Committee, and during Hiram Johnson's fight for the Republican nomination for President he toured throughout the Middle West organizing Johnson's campaign.

He was executive secretary to Governor James N. Gillett, starting when the latter took office in 1906. After serving through the term with Gillett he joined the ranks of Johnson's supporters. For many years he served as a member of the State Board of Agriculture, and at present is a deputy state insurance commissioner.

Sam Rutter, whom Mitchell succeeds, has been field supervisor for the states of California, Washington, Oregon and Nevada since the Volstead Act became effective. He organized the directors' offices in those states. In addition to this work he has served as acting director for California for three months.

Several times he has asked to be relieved of the added burden of the director's post. He will retain the position of field supervisor under the new appointment. He is a Republican and has been in Government service for 15 years.

30,000 Seals Expected in Pribiloff Drive

SEATTLE, Wash., June 11. — Sealskin coats—as many as can be made from about 30,000 skins—will be the objective this summer in the government's drive on its seal preserves on the Pribilof Islands, which lie in the Bering sea, off Alaska.

Slaughter of the Pribilof seal will begin this year early in June and continue through the summer months, it was announced here recently. Last year 28,000 seals were taken and this year it is hoped to get 30,000.

Recently the U. S. S. Saturn of the Navy Department's transport service arrived here to load supplies for the annual summer campaign on the islands. The Saturn is taking to the Pribilofs eight expert furriers from a St. Louis firm which acts as the selling agent for the government.

Except for the months of the seal harvest, the Pribilofs are inhabited by natives only. The government for several years has been trying to improve living conditions for these inhabitants and this year is shipping north a complete modern water system.

FRIENDS NOTICE A BIG CHANGE IN HER

"Tanlac put me on my feet two years ago and built me up fifteen pounds in weight besides," declared Mrs. L. Krischker, 3223 East 3rd St., Los Angeles.

"I was just about as badly run-down," said she, "as anybody could be and still keep up. My appetite was gone completely and what little I did eat caused me to suffer agonies from indigestion. I was so nervous that at times I could hardly keep from screaming, and it was almost out of the question for me to get a good night's sleep. I just had to give up trying to look after my house and baby. I tried all kinds of medicines and treatment but nothing helped me and my condition became most deplorable.

"But Tanlac acted differently from any other medicine I ever found, for it gave me a wonderful appetite, enabled me to sleep like a child and removed every trace of indigestion and nervousness. I became well and strong, my housework was easy for me, and my friends all spoke of how much better I was looking. Here lately I got to feeling a little bad and got some more Tanlac, and it helped me just like it did before. Tanlac is just grand."

A Slave to the Drug

Barney McCabe sat comfortably smoking and peering out at the slowly receding lights of the little town, as the Los Angeles local, hauling his special car steamed from the station.

Suddenly across the tracks shot a white form, and a creature, half resembling an animal and half a mermaid, sprang to the railing of the observation platform, poised a moment and then somersaulted gracefully and professionally over and fell prone on the floor face down.

Startled by the apparition, McCabe bent down over the creature and then drew back with an oath.

There sprawled at his feet, her half nude body palpitating with emotion, was a little golden haired girl. The convulsions of her form bespoke intense emotion. Her sun red hair lay in a disheveled mass over her neck and shoulders. Her body was uncovered, except for a crude goatskin robe that concealed the torso and was fastened over one shoulder by a thong.

In all his vicarious career this was the most unusual apparition that had ever appeared to the president of the McCabe wholesale clothing house. Some strange things had happened to the fat little merchant in his mystery-shrouded career, but he had never seen a woman come out of the air and make a forced landing on the rear of a moving train before.

GIVEN SECOND SHOCK.

With characteristic decision he reached down and picked the girl up by the shoulders without a word. She wriggled and struggled in his grasp, but the powerful hands dragged her to her feet.

Then McCabe got his second shock. The girl was not weeping at all. She was laughing. Her breast heaved with emotion.

"Oh, oh!" she exclaimed. "What a sight!"

She grasped the coat lapels of the merchant in both hands, and burying her face on his ample vest, went into a convulsion of laughter again.

"You should have seen his face when I wrapped those snakes around his neck!"

"Snakes!" ejaculated McCabe. "Neck!" He reached in his pocket decisively and drew forth a flask of whiskey. "Here, take a shot of skee," he commanded, putting the bottle to her lips.

The look of disgust and her quick repulsion of the suggestion caused him to regard her more closely. Then he, too, chuckled without humor. Hopheads do not like whiskey. And this girl had all the earmarks of a "dope."

"Well, my little hoppy," he asked. "Where did you come from. What kind of 'coke' have you been against to make you see snakes."

"You're a wise guy!" exclaimed Babe Lamont. She eyed him carefully, but there were none of the marks of the dope fiend about the fat, well fed, ruddy clothing salesman.

"A bull had me and I beat it," she continued. "I was the wild girl in the den of snakes. When he tried to grab me I wrapped one of my pets about his neck. You should have seen his face. "Oh, Oh, Oh!" Again the girl rocked with laughter.

It required only a few minutes for Barney to find a gown and slippers for her. Then, when she was leaning back in a comfortable chair on the observation platform of his car, he began his clever inquisition.

BECOMES WILD GIRL.

"Hell is a cool place compared to a hoppy's yen," exclaimed Babe. "Gee, but I was sick when I hit that circus dump. I would have committed murder for a shot in the arm. Then this bird slips me the coke and I'm Omaza the wild girl. 'She eat 'em alive!'" mimicked Babe.

"How did you ever fall for the stuff?" asked Barney nonchalantly, inhaling a deep draught from his 25 cent cigar.

"It was my own fault," returned the girl, frankly, her demure little face lifting to his and her big blue baby eyes reflecting that "never tell a lie" falsehood.

"Married life got too slow for me. I went back to my old job entertaining in an Oakland roadhouse. It was a hard life, but there was excitement and occupation to it and that was what I craved. The first shot I ever took was heroin. One of the girls told me it was great stuff for tired nerves.

TAKES FIRST SHOT.

"'It's got booze beat a thousand miles,' she told me. 'You won't have a trouble in the world. Come on up and I'll give you just one 'hypo.' I found out afterward that her husband was a peddler. That's why she wanted me to get 'on it.' But I didn't know that then. So I took it.

"After that, when I felt nervous, tired or high strung, I went to her place and she fixed me up. It made the world seem rosy. When I was full of heroin, I was in a universe of my own. Great fortunes seemed to be right at my door. It's better than anything you can drink.

"But finally I got on 'coke'. That's the stuff that sets you wild. I used to have all kinds of wild hallucinations. I thought cops were after me. I thought everyone was my enemy."

If Babe had been watching McCabe's face she would have seen a sardonic expression slowly creeping over it, as she told her story. Barney's mind was far away. He had heard all this stuff many times before. It amused him to think that she sized him up as an 'outsider.'

"You see, before I was married I used to be a circus acrobat," continued the girl. "And I got tired of the road-house and left it. One day my husband, who was chief engineer for a big Oakland concern, found out that I was using dope. I got an overdose of morphine and he had to give me whiskey to counteract it. I left him, but he finally became a dope fiend too.

SHOOTS 30 TABLETS DAY.

About this time I was shooting thirty tablets a day. I had been buying them at two for $1. When I got away from the roadhouse bunch, I found that peddler's price was ten for $1 and that they had been gyping me to the tune of 500 per cent.

"Where are some of these peddlers located?" asked McCabe, screwing up his eyes shrewdly.

The baby blue eyes flashed guilelessly to the fat sleek countenance, and then stared down at tiny slippered feet that peeped from the hem of the big bathrobe.

"Oh, they're everywhere," she answered, a trifle tremulously. Her eyes had begun to water. Tiny beads of perspiration appeared on her face. Some three hours had elapsed and the effects of the last shot had almost worn off. She was beginning to suffer.

"But tell me some particular place," Barney insisted.

"I don't know any now," she lied. He said will start at 8 o'clock.

NO ONE PLAN FOR BAY BRIDGE BEING BACKED, HE SAYS

Earle C. Anthony States Car Dealers Are Waiting Definite Surveys.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—The Motor Car Dealers' Association of San Francisco is firmly behind the general plan to bridge San Francisco bay, but, until more definite surveys of the situation are made, will not favor one plan over another, according to the declaration of Earle C. Anthony, president of the association, in addressing the members of the One Hundred Per Cent Club.

Anthony announced that J. Vipond Davies, bridge and construction engineer of New York, will come to San Francisco within two weeks to make a complete study of the bay region and prepare a plan for a bridge to be submitted to the Motor Car Dealers' Association.

Gustav Lindenthal, New York bridge engineer, now at work on the new Hudson river bridge in New York, may also come to San Francisco soon in connection with plans which he has already prepared to bridge the bay, Anthony said.

"We cannot afford not to bridge the bay," Anthony told the club men. "Three fundamentals form the basis of communal prosperity: Fertile soil, busy work shops and quick movement of goods from one place to another. The first we have. The second we can have in proportion to our possession of the third.

"San Francisco cannot afford a refuge behind a 'Chinese wall' and we must by some means or other eliminate the economic waste inherent in our present mode of bay transportation."

MEXICO DROUGHT ENDS.

MEXICO CITY, June 11.—Heavy rain fell here yesterday afternoon, ending a protracted drought which occasioned much distress and prompted the holding of many religious services.

MARITIME MEN ARE TO BE PAID STRIKE BENEFITS

Unions Post Notices of Intended Action; Injunction Hearing Near.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—Disregarding word from W. S. Brown, international president, that the maritime strike would in all probability be ended soon, the Marine Engineers' Union and Benevolent Association of San Francisco has begun preparations to pay strike benefits, starting today. Bulletins have been posted on the bulletin board at the union's headquarters requesting that all members entitled to benefits apply for them.

With the exception of the Masters' and Pilots' Association other maritime unions involved in the strike have posted a like notice.

Before Federal Judge Maurice T. Dooling a hearing will be started Monday morning on the application of the shipowners for a permanent injunction against the five unions on strike. Later in the week union officials will face another hearing when Judge W. C. Van Fleet will render his decision on the application of the United States Shipping Board for a permanent injunction.

The steamer Senator of the Admiral line sailed yesterday for the north, making four vessels the company has in active operation.

M. E. Bishop Denies Influencing Igorrotes

MANILA, P. I., June 11.—(By The Associated Press.)—Bishop Locke of the Methodist Episcopal church issued a reply to recent statements from the Philippine mission in Washington to the effect that American missionaries had influenced statements made by representatives of the Igorrote tribes before President Harding's mission of inquiry here. The Igorrotes told Major General Leonard Wood and W. Cameron Forbes that they were not desirous for Philippine independence.

SOLDIER MUST REFILL TRENCH WITH A SPOON

DALLAS, Texas, June 11. — A Texas soldier, arrested yesterday for accosting a girl on the street, today began digging a deep trench, where his troop is awaiting orders to move to the annual encampment of the Texas National Guard. When the trench is finished the soldier will begin putting the dirt back into the hole with a table spoon. The punishment was designated by the commander of the troop.

MINERS' BODIES FOUND.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 11. — The disappearance of Herber Waterworth and Frank Tyler, miner in White Pine canyon, near here last October, has been solved with the melting of the snows disclosing the bodies. Relatives believe the men were caught in a snow slide when they were attempting to get out of the canyon.

HYDRO-ELECTRIC SESSIONS CLOSE

DEL MONTE, Cal., June 11.—Resolutions favoring advancement of every effort to increase hydro-electric development through the existing agencies were adopted by the Pacific Coast Division of the National Electric Light Association, which closed its annual five-day convention here yesterday. The states of California, Arizona and Nevada were represented at the convention by delegates. The feature of today's sessions was industrial survey of the Pacific Coast, covered in a report read by Robert Sibley of San Francisco.

At a banquet last night which all delegates attended Sylvester Weaver, president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and F. L. Foster, representing the United States Chamber of Commerce, were the principal speakers. Weaver emphasized the importance of increasing the supply of electric power.

The following officers for the ensuing year were elected yesterday: President, A. B. West, Riverside, Cal.; first vice-president, J. B. Black, San Francisco; junior vice-president, L. M. Klauber, San Diego, Cal.; treasurer, Henry Bostwick, San Francisco; executive committee, George A. Campbell, Reno, Nev.; William Baurhyte, Los Angeles; William Shepard, San Francisco; S. M. Kennedy, Los Angeles; G. E. Arbogast, Los Angeles; Robert Sibley, San Francisco; R. M. Holterman, San Francisco; P. H. Booth, Ontario, Cal., and R. S. Masson, Phoenix, Ariz.

No decision was made as to next year's convention city. Los Angeles, Riverside and San Diego are contenders.

Minority Zionists to Act Separately

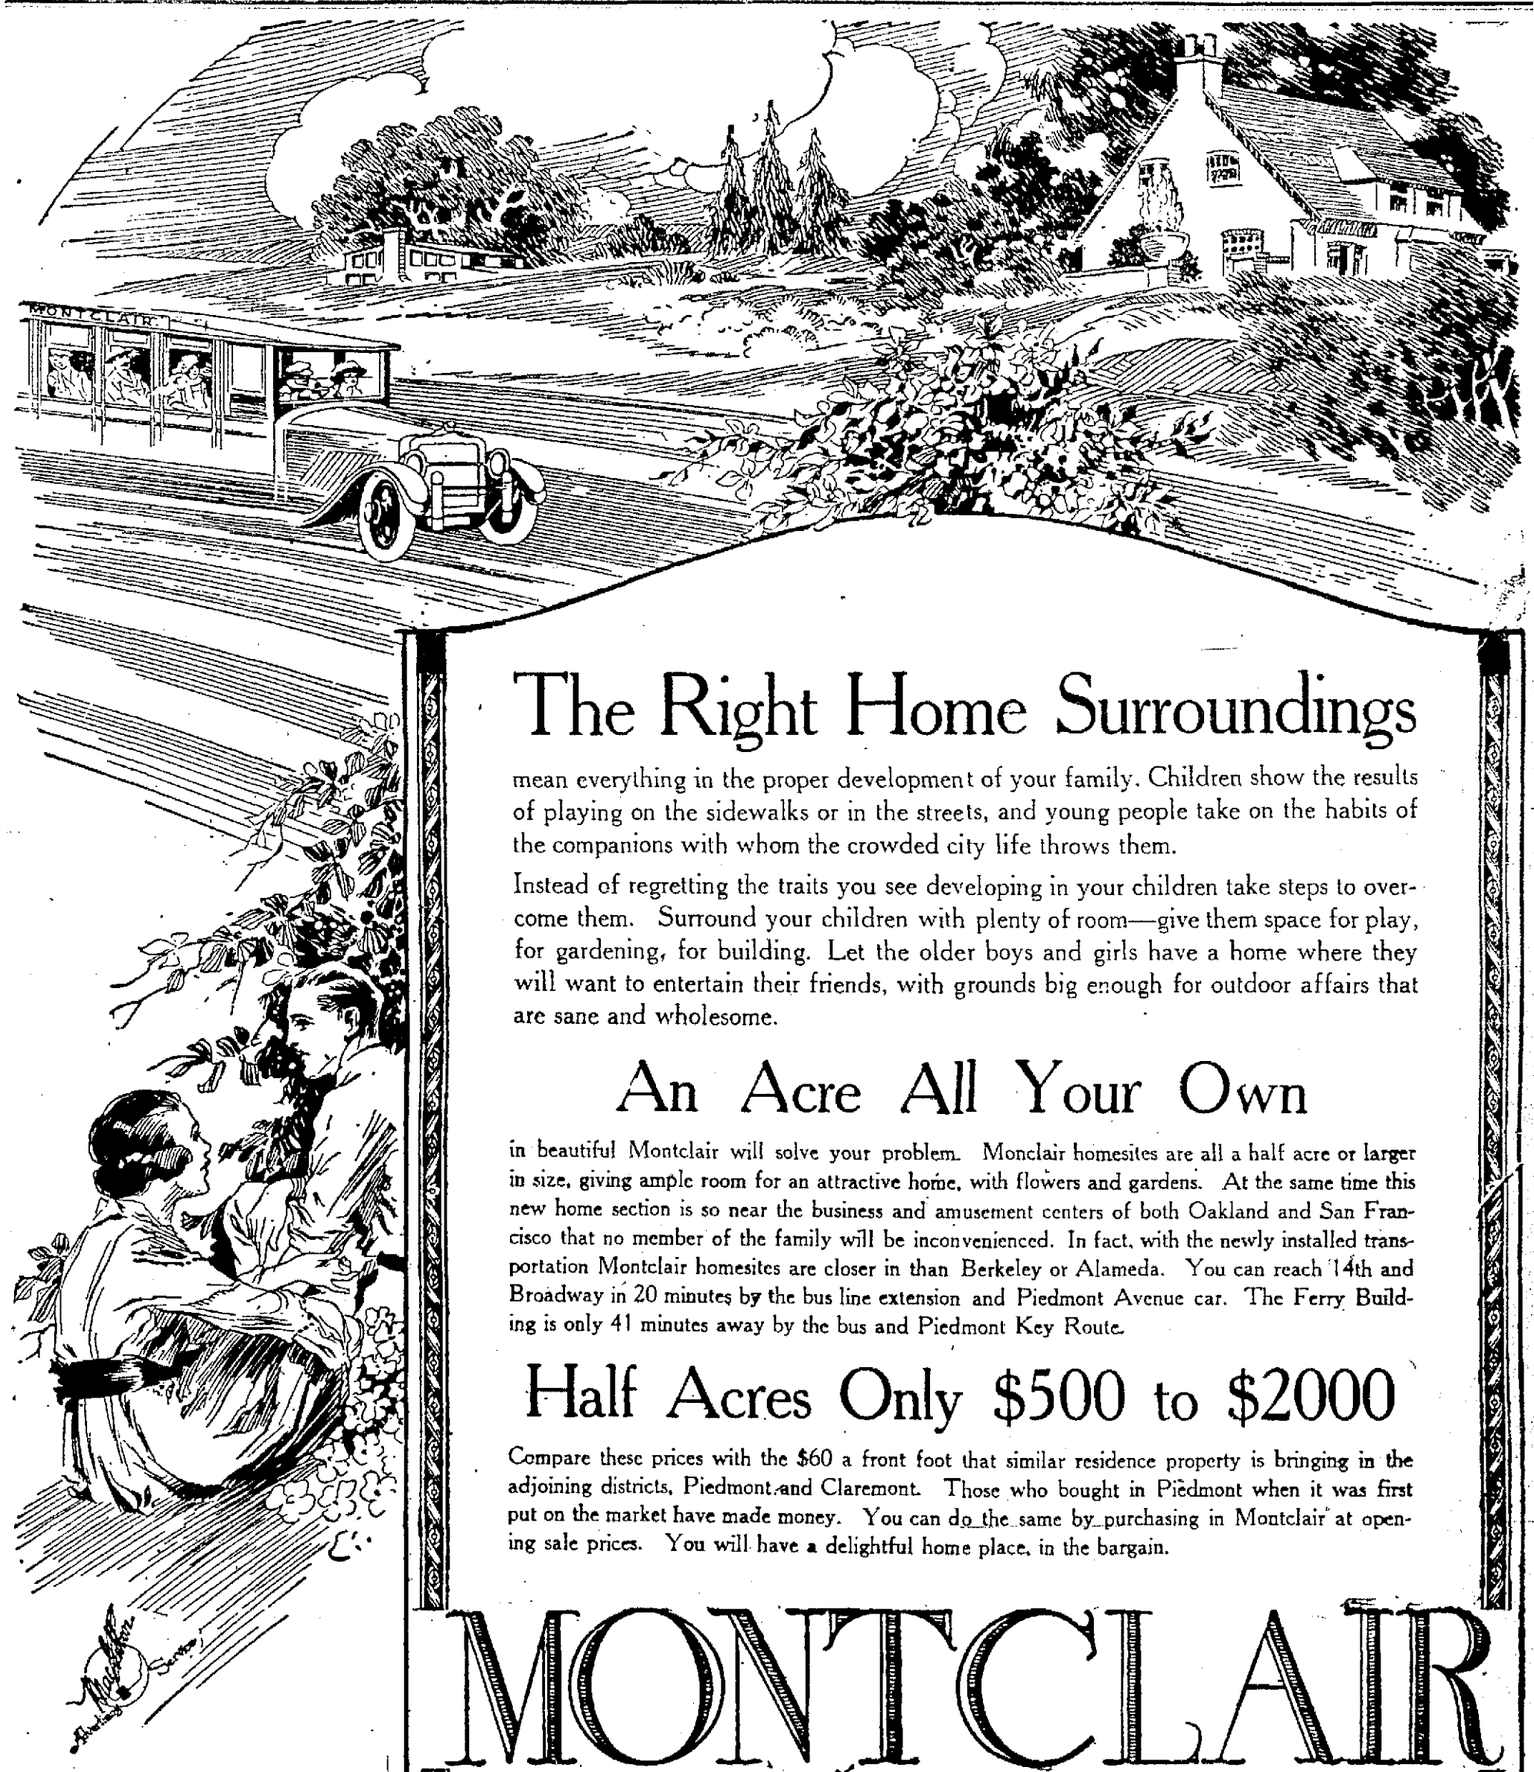

NEW YORK, June 11.—A mass conference of the minority group of the Zionist Organization of America will be held July 3 or 4, either in Pittsburgh or Buffalo. This was decided at a meeting of a committee of the minority group appointed to confer with Supreme Court Justice Brandeis, former honorary president of the Zionist Organization.

After hearing the views expressed by Justice Brandeis, Judge Julian W. Mack, and others, it was agreed that as far as the attitude of the minority group toward the new Zionist administration was concerned there shall be no active antagonism, but it was decided that no member of that minority group shall accept an election as delegate to the forthcoming Zionist convention at Carlsbad, next September.

It is probable that the minority group will resolve itself into an independent organization to be called the Palestine Development Association.

CHILD AUTHOR TO LECTURE.

ALAMEDA, June 11. — Horace Wade, eleven-year-old author, is to occupy the platform of the Christ Church in an address, Tuesday evening. An illustrated lecture upon "Rome, the Eternal City," is to be delivered also, by Fotd Samuels. The two lectures will be open to the public.

The Right Home Surroundings

mean everything in the proper development of your family. Children show the results of playing on the sidewalks or in the streets, and young people take on the habits of the companions with whom the crowded city life throws them.

Instead of regretting the traits you see developing in your children take steps to overcome them. Surround your children with plenty of room—give them space for play, for gardening, for building. Let the older boys and girls have a home where they will want to entertain their friends, with grounds big enough for outdoor affairs that are sane and wholesome.

An Acre All Your Own

in beautiful Montclair will solve your problem. Monclair homesites are all a half acre or larger in size, giving ample room for an attractive home, with flowers and gardens. At the same time this new home section is so near the business and amusement centers of both Oakland and San Francisco that no member of the family will be inconvenienced. In fact, with the newly installed transportation Montclair homesites are closer in than Berkeley or Alameda. You can reach 14th and Broadway in 20 minutes by the bus line extension and Piedmont Avenue car. The Ferry Building is only 41 minutes away by the bus and Piedmont Key Route.

Half Acres Only $500 to $2000

Compare these prices with the $60 a front foot that similar residence property is bringing in the adjoining districts, Piedmont and Claremont. Those who bought in Piedmont when it was first put on the market have made money. You can do the same by purchasing in Montclair at opening sale prices. You will have a delightful home place, in the bargain.

MONTCLAIR

is without doubt the next high grade residence district to be built up. Oakland has grown to the point where its next natural development is in this hill section just east of Piedmont. In fact there are six or eight homes already built in Montclair and as many more under way. The appeal of a country estate with all its advantages, actually within the city limits of Oakland, has been great. And look at the terms!

When you go to Montclair tomorrow, take---

From Oakland the Piedmont Avenue car "A" on Broadway, to 40th and Piedmont, then transfer to bus. From San Francisco take Key Route Ferry, then Piedmont train to 40th and Piedmont. When driving out take Moraga Road direct to Montclair.

$50 Down Buys Any Homesite

Then Small Monthly Payments

Water, electricity, transportation and oil macadam roads included in the purchase price. No interest or taxes until July 1, 1922. Each homesite is individual, with trees on 40% of the property.

Be sure to visit Montclair today or tomorrow. You'll be charmed with its natural beauty and its real value.

New Smoking Peak Worries Mexicans

MEXICO CITY, June 11.—Mexico has another smoking mountain to worry its native inhabitants. The long-extinct volcano of Colima in the state of Jalisco is said to be showing signs of life, emitting much smoke and steam similar to its larger relative, Popocatepetl, which, for several months, has caused alarm in the state of Puebla because of its activity.

Geologists who have examined both mountains declare there is small likelihood of either erupting.

Smartness may be won by the sharp contrast of black and white. Very chic is a new coat of black Canton crepe combined and piped with white Canton crepe.

Tells Girls How She Found Relief From Pain

West Palm Beach, Fla.—"When I was 19 years old I was irregular and I had such terrible cramps it felt like a knife going through me. I took Lydia E Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I was cured. After I was married I had the same trouble caused by the added work of farming and heavy washings so I told my husband to get six bottles of the Vegetable Compound and by taking it regularly my troubles ceased and now I never have a pain or ache, and am regular. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and think every young girl should take it. You can publish this letter and it may be the means of helping some other girl or woman." —Mrs. MARY M. WAGNER, Box 759, West Palm Beach, Florida.

While no woman is entirely free from periodic suffering it does not seem to be the plan of nature that woman should suffer so severely and when pain exists something is wrong which should be set right. Every girl who suffers from monthly cramps should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

AGED FATHER IS TRAGIC FIGURE IN MAGILL TRAGEDY

Man Who Married Son On Deathbed Called On to Read Burial Service.

The Rev. Thomas James Magill was the tragic figure which stood out today during preparations for the funeral of his son, John Rollin Magill, who died yesterday in St. Anthony's hospital following a second stroke of apoplexy. The aged minister who officiated at the death bed wedding which made Mrs. Sara Callundon the bride of the Oakland mining engineer, plans to read the funeral service which will mark the end of his son's romance. Whether his strength would carry him through the ordeal was the question which focused upon him the attention of his family. The funeral service is fixed for a late hour this afternoon.

Within the week John Rollin Magill experienced the whole gamut of emotion. While engaged in a business conference on Wednesday, Magill was stricken with apoplexy. With death hovering close, he and Mrs. Callundon were married Thursday night at the hospital, the bridegroom's father officiating. His condition was apparently improved when his bride and family took leave of him. Early yesterday came word of the second stroke, followed by death.

"We have lived the best of our lives in California. It is here we had our romance. This is my home and John must be near," Mrs. Magill pleaded when there was some hint that interment should take place in Nevada.

When Magill came to California as a graduate of the Mackay School of Mines in Nevada, he first met the woman who became his wife and widow this week. Later she married and lived in the Orient, returning a widow. The friendship was renewed and culminated in a betrothal.

Plans were being made for a wedding this month when Magill was stricken. Mrs. Magill before her first marriage was Miss Sara Wilson.

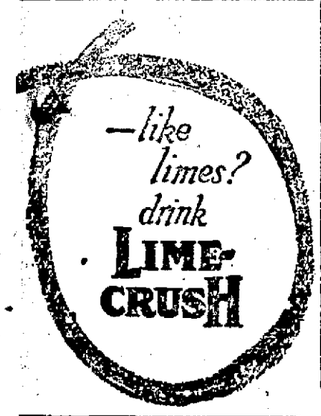

Magill is survived by his widow, his father, a brother, Charles Magill of this city, and a sister, Mrs. William L. Mace of Tacoma, Wash. He was born in Washington, 43 years ago.

NATIONAL GUARD CLUB IS FORMED

SACRAMENTO, June 11.—Organization of a National Guard Association in this State was decided upon by representatives of the California National Guard before adjourning a two-day conference here yesterday. A temporary organization was effected yesterday while plans for the permanent organization will be worked out by a committee composed of the following:

Major E. E. Kirk of Los Angeles, Major R. E. Mittelstaedt of San Francisco, Major David A. Barrows of Berkeley, Major S. E. Kline of San Diego, and Major J. B. Dickson of Petaluma.

A committee also was named to draft appropriate resolutions with respect to the tragic death at Indianapolis this week of Colonel F. W. Galbraith Jr., commander of the national organization of the American Legion.

The plan is to complete the organization of the association at the State encampment of the National Guard to be held at the Yosemite valley in July.

Tentative rules adopted provide for dividing the State into five districts—Sacramento, San Francisco, Fresno, Los Angeles and San Diego. Each district will be governed by a separate set of officers, under an executive committee or board of directors of five representing the State body.

All National Guard officers and men will be made members automatically and civilians will be taken in as associate members, it was stated after the meeting.

Two Warehouses in Newcastle Burn

NEWCASTLE, Placer Co., June 11.—Fire thought to have been started by tramps wiped out two fruit warehouses here last night, and threatened the entire community, causing damage estimated at $50,000.

The plans of the Earl Fruit Company and of the Placer County Fruit Company and ten carloads of box shooks were destroyed, and the warehouse of the Birdsell Fruit Company was menaced. Two carloads of fruit standing on track were also ruined by water and smoke.

Because the season is opening the loss of the box shooks will seriously hamper the harvesting of the crop near Newcastle, fruit men say.

The fire burned for an hour and the Auburn fire department was called to aid in fighting the flames.

MRS. SOUTHARD SAYS SHE'LL ASK SPEEDY TRIAL

LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE, BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, June 11. — Mrs. Lyda Eva Southard, alleged "Bluebeardess," who arrived here late last night, probably will be given a preliminary hearing Monday on the charge of murdering Ed Meyers, a local rancher, and her fourth husband. At that time the defense will endeavor to force the state to disclose the nature of the evidence upon which it expects to convict the woman. No indication has as yet been given of the defense plans.

Following an interview with W. P. Guthrie, her chief counsel, Mrs. Southard announced today she would demand an early trial.

"I cannot tell you much," she said to an International News Service representative, "as I cannot talk specifically about my case. But I can say that I will insist upon an immediate trial. I feel that it would be horrid for me to have to lay in jail all summer until the next term of court when court is in session now and we can meet every question without delay. I am so confident of the outcome that I want an immediate hearing.

"I want that vindication which can only come from an open hearing of all the facts. I know there can be no real harm come to me from such a trial and so I will face it with confidence. My only concern is that it may come quickly.

"I am weary, but will soon be stronger. I stood the long trip from Honolulu to San Francisco well, indeed, and the train ride to Wells, Nev., did not overly fatigue me. But the ride in an automobile in the terrible heat 120 miles across the desert was very hard. I dreaded facing the cameras and the movie men in Twin Falls, but I really believe that the desert trip was worse on me than that ordeal would have been. The sun was frightfully hot all the way to the little mining camp at Contact, Nev., where we stopped for dinner, and the trip from there into Twin Falls was so rough that I am still tired and dizzy."

The prisoner asked about her parents, and sought information as to when they might see her. There was a note of dread in her manner as she spoke of this meeting and also a display of tenderness, but there were no tears and no break in her voice, which was extremely steady during the interview.

Only in Sunday's Edition of Oakland Tribune Will These Features Appear

The liberal view of Great Britain opposes a special alliance with France and believes that all special sectional alliances are bad, including the Anglo-Japanese pact, which has caused so much friction and which is up for renewal next month. This is the statement of George N. Barnes a leading British statesman to the Sunday TRIBUNE. Barnes is opposed to a renewal of the agreement with Japan in its present form and believes that such alliances tend to divide the world into rival groups and may lead to war again.

Confusion still reigns in Europe, says Andre Tardieu, former French commissioner to the United States, in a cable from Paris. He deprecates the suggestion of an Anglo-French alliance, insisting that the proposal is inopportune. Notwithstanding the recent declarations of Chancellor Wirth at Berlin, Tardieu still doubts the good faith of Germany and regrets the concessions made to that nation by the allied council.

Will the United States recognize the League of Nations by participating in the deliberations of the allied supreme council when the Silesian dispute comes up for settlement? The question is asked by William Bird in a cable from Paris. He says that Europe is looking for an expression of American policy at the forthcoming session.

Maximilian Harden, German publicist, says that the real war criminals sit back and laugh at the trials now being held at Leipsic. He defends the judges in their infliction of light sentences, saying that German militarism, instilled for generations, is responsible for their leniency in the punishment of those guilty of atrocities during the war.

Opposition to Samuel Gompers as head of the American Federation of Labor, led by John Lewis, is failing, says Ralph Barton. He predicts that the aged leader will win easily at the convention to be held next week. Serious problems affecting organized labor in the United States will be considered at the sessions.

Harden Colfax says that congressmen investigating the wage question and after delving into records of every civilized country, express a belief that if precedent is followed wages of workmen may return to war-time levels.

Elizabeth King Stokes gives an interesting pen picture of Lodge, [illegible] Borah, three master minds of the United States Senate, but of conflicting types.

Robert T. Small says that the possibility of a possible war with Japan has taken possession of the army and navy at Washington and is responsible for the sending of all the great battleships to Pacific waters.

The recent declines in the stock market are explained by Stuart P. West, who gives the assurance that there is nothing alarming in the situation. He tells how the slump could be stopped at once if conditions became too disturbing.

Vicente Blasco Ibanez, famous author of "The Four Horsemen," will have one of his best short bits of fiction in the Sunday magazine, a story called "The Cahure Feather." It is an unusual and fascinating story.

S. F. Clothing Store Damaged by Blaze

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—Damage amounting to several thousand dollars was caused by an early morning fire in the clothing store of J. Cohen and Company, 72 The Embarcadero. In addition to the clothing store, slight damage was done to the adjoining soft drink parlor of Dennis McCarthy, 70 The Embarcadero. The building is owned by the Winehardt Brewing company of Portland.

CHINESE ADMITS KILLING.

FLIER CROSSES GRAND CANYON, ENTERS GORGE

PRESCOTT, Ariz., June 11.—Lieutenant Alexander Pearson, flying in an army plane from Williams, Ariz., yesterday, crossed the Grand Canyon several times and later flew into the gorge, according to word received here. Lieutenant Pearson flew from here to Williams. He will repeat his flights over the Grand Canyon and probably will continue to fly in that vicinity for several days.

Lieut. Pearson, who won the transcontinental army air race a year ago and who was lost in the Big Bend country of Texas for several days last February, has been detailed by the war department to study the air currents in and over the canyon and also to locate possible landing fields there. This work is said to be preliminary to the establishment of a commercial airplane service in that vicinity.

REDDING, June 11.—Strange lights in the sky, believed to be the aurora borealis, were visible at many points in Shasta county Thursday night. At Baird, a mountain camp near here, the lights were visible until after daylight.

TAMPICO PLAGUE KILLS 37.

HAVANA, June 11.—Thirty-seven deaths from bubonic plague occurred in Tampico during May, according to the bill of health issued to the American tanker Albert E. Watts.

THEATER WILL AID VETERANS' FUND

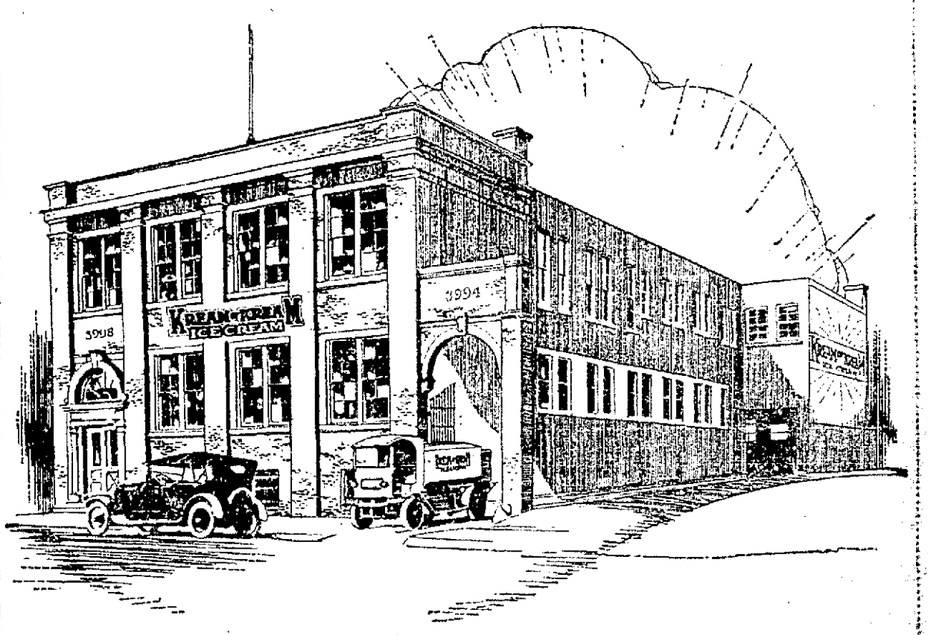

Oakland Chapter No. 7, Disabled American Veterans of the World War, will receive 50 per cent of the proceeds realized fro mthe sale of tickets to the shows Monday and Tuesday, June 20 and 21, at the Kinema theater.

The funds will be used by the disabled veterans to send delegates to represent Oakland at the first national convention in Detroit June 27 to 30.

The feature picture for the two days will be "The Love of Silent Men," starring Tom Meighan and including many excellent players in the supporting cast. It is a vivid picture of life in Sing Sing, the world's most famous prison. The scenes were actually photographed there and in California. The story is of human interest and will strike a responsive chord in every heart. It is a strong blow directed at conviction on circumstantial evidence.

The committee in charge also expects to have some actual war pictures.

Fire Does Not Stop Manufacture of Kream of Kream

The fire, which damaged the interior of our new factory, 40th and San Pablo Avenue, Thursday morning, did not cripple our production facilities in any sense. We will continue to manufacture and distribute our product from the present plant, 5702 San Pablo Avenue, until the new factory can be reconstructed.

Fortunately, the new machinery and equipment had not reached the factory before the fire. The $50,000 loss, substantially covered by insurance, was principally directed to the building and interior construction.

Before the ashes had cooled, the management began making definite plans to duplicate the plant—to make it even better. Reconstruction work has already started. The management reiterates that it will have the finest factory, when completed, on the Pacific Coast devoted exclusively to the manufacture of ice cream.

None of our plans have been discarded—only retarded a few weeks longer. In the meanwhile, rest assured that the same care and attention will be given to the manufacture and distribution of Kream of Kream, the quality product.

Lumber Ships Tied Up Through Marine Seamen's Strike

The result of the marine strike has caused ship owners to tie up two hundred coasting vessels and fully as many more offshore crafts. This has caused a shortage in the lumber market in California. The E. K. Wood Lumber Company, operating one of the largest lumber companies on the Pacific Coast, now has tied up at their docks the steamers Tamalpais, Siskiyou, San Jacinto, Shasta, and the motor-ships Lassen and Sierra. These represent over 3000 tons with a lumber-carrying capacity of over 5,000,000 feet and representing more than a million-dollar investment. The crafts enumerated have been steadily bringing shiploads of lumber for the local market and the present tieup has made it difficult to keep the market supplied with lumber. The E. K. Wood Lumber Company was well stocked before the strike started and their supply is not yet exhausted.

U. S. IS PLANNING TO GET OUT OF SHIP BUSINESS

Harding Reported in Favor of Liquidating All Assets As Quickly As Possible.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The United States Government is going to get out of the shipping business just as fast as is consistently possible.

Already having suffered financial losses that mount high into the millions in the operation of the government fleet, facing a net loss of nearly three billions in the liquidation of the Shipping Board's affairs, and with the whole shipping situation a prolific source of criticism and condemnation in Congress, administration leaders have decided that the best thing to do for the government and for the furtherance of the nation's mercantile interests generally is to get out of the business, bag and baggage, and leave to private enterprise the task of keeping the American flag on the seven seas.

POLICY OF HARDING.

This will be the policy laid down by President Harding himself next week when he meets with the new Shipping Board for the first time to take an inventory of the situation. The board will organize Monday and on Tuesday it will meet with the chief executive to hear an outline of policy.

The length of time necessary to get the government out of the shipping business with the least financial loss is problematical. Some of President Harding's advisers think it will take two years, others are of the opinion the job cannot be accomplished under three.

In any event it is not expected that the new chairman, Albert D. Lasker of Chicago, will serve out the six-year term to which he has been appointed.

LIQUIDATION IS PROBLEM.

The manner in which the liquidation of the government's venture into the shipping business is to be accomplished is the problem that is proving a knotty one for the administration.

The liquidation will be a slow process and designed to extract the last possible penny for the benefit of the government, it was said today. But the end is in sight—the government, under the administration policy, is going to get out of the shipping business and stay out.

Little Chosen To Represent Richmond Post

Legion Commander Endorsed for Place On Welfare Board.

RICHMOND, June 11.—Rev Paul Little, commander of Richmond Post of the American Legion, was last night endorsed by the post for appointment to the Veterans' Welfare Board, to represent this congressional district. A resolution endorsing the appointment of Little was introduced in the meeting by Al Browing, first vice-commander, and was unanimously adopted.

Rev. Little has been very active in Legion affairs, not only in Richmond Post, but throughout the state. He was a delegate to the last state convention, and a candidate for state chaplain at that time. The members of the local post, indorsing him for the Welfare Board position, expressed the belief that he would be a man truly representative of the membership of the Legion.

A resolution expressing the sorrow of the Legion at the death of Frederick Galbraith, national commander of the Legion, was adopted at the meeting.

After the business meeting, the Legionnaires joined the ladies' auxiliary and enjoyed a program and supper.

Women Demand More Space at Products Show

Domestic Arts, Science and Grace to Play Large Part At Hayward Exposition.

HAYWARD, June 11.—One of the first motions to come before the women's committee of the Farm Products Show, which met at the Chamber of Commerce rooms here Thursday afternoon, carried a request for an increase of space over last year, according to Mrs. W. T. Knightly, chairman of the committee, who predicts a better showing on the part of the Eden Township women this year than ever before.

From start to finish the meeting proved to be an enthusiastic one. The committee reports in brief were as follows: Home Cooking, Mrs. J. P. Daken, exhibits outlined and increase of space found necessary, many applications, great interest; Fruits and Jellies, Mrs. E. L. Maccabee, greater variety than last year assured; Needlework, Mrs. Simpson, indications that it will be one of the most attractive booths in the entire show; Domestic Arts, Mrs. L. R. Rosenberg, sub-committees appointed; interest shown by High School, possibility of an antique and curio display; Baby Show, Mrs. T. L. Kelley, rules announced, showing simply for Eden Township—outsiders barred—no announcement of judges, possibility of added features connected with this event.

There has been considerable growth in the interest of the Eden Township merchants whose exhibits will come under the supervision of the ladies' committee, according to the chairman. A number of inquiries and applications have been made for space by local manufacturers of foodstuffs. Mrs. L. R. Rosenberg was appointed to handle what bids fair to be a new department of the increase of commercial exhibitors continues.

Pending the decision of the executive committee of the Farm Products Show with regard to the allotment of space the committee heads will continue gathering in all the exhibitors and exhibits they can, states Miss Knightly. From the looks of things now "it's going to be the biggest show yet."

1000 Acres of Grain Burns in San Joaquin

MODESTO, June 11.—Fire starting on the C. D. Day estate near Crows Landing, about twenty-five miles south of here, shortly after noon yesterday burned over 1000 acres of grain, mostly barley.

Over 150 men were gathered together to fight the fire. They were directed by the Farmers' Fire Protection unit of Crows Landing and did creditable work against flames fanned by a stiff breeze.

Rancher Believed to Be Victim of Fire

WALLS CHOSEN COMMANDER OF WAR VETERANS

Modesto Man Carries Office of State Body by Big Majority.

MODESTO, June 11.—Hugh P. Walls, business manager of the Modesto Evening News, was today elected commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Department of California. He was chosen by a big vote over W. H. Taylor of Sacramento, retiring senior vice-commander.

Los Angeles was unanimously chosen as the next convention city.

The convention, by sustaining the chair on a motion to appeal from its decision, killed an attempt to swing the veterans for a resolution to recognize the "Republic of Ireland." The chair had ruled the resolution out of order on the grounds that it dealt with a political matter.

GERMAN SONG RAPPED.

Questions of both national and local moment—from blue laws to the signing of a German song in Oakland schools—were touched on at yesterday's session.

The most violent argument seethed around a resolution presented by the John Jacob Astor Post of Oakland, and condemning the Oakland school board for permitting a German song to be sung in the public schools of that city.

After the resolution had been presented Right Rev. Joseph M. Gleason branded it as "narrow," perpetuating bitterness" and of a nature too small for the veterans to concern themselves with.

After vitriolic debate the resolution was adopted over Father Gleason's plea for broad-mindedness in such matters, after the word "German" had been stricken and "foreign" substituted.

MEMBERSHIP PROTESTED.

Admission of Supervisor Charles Nelson of San Francisco to membership in the Foreign War Veterans, came under fire when George Raymond of San Francisco asked that the decision of the Western Department, allowing Nelson to enter the organization be referred to the national headquarters, which already has ruled that workers during the war, such as Nelson, are not eligible.

Nelson, it was explained, was a transport worker on transpacific army transports during the war.

The motion was referred to a committee.

Alleged ill treatment of wounded veterans and the lack of hospital facilities, were among the resolutions introduced and passed.

After long debate it was decided to "demand" instead of "request" Congress to take immediate action for the relief of wounded veterans now either suffering for lack of hospital facilities or alleged to be mistreated in hospitals. Raymond cited an instance of a World War veteran named Nelson who was wounded and sent to Agnews because of lack of facilities at the Palo Alto hospital. Nelson, according to Raymond, was found in a cell in Agnews Asylum and a writ of habeas corpus was necessary to release him. Included in the veterans' resolution, it is asked that a hospital be erected at Palo Alto.

BLUE LAWS CONDEMNED.

A resolution condemning "further restriction of personal liberties and the so-called blue laws" was adopted unanimously late today by the delegates to the convention.

W. H. Taylor of Sacramento and Hugh P. Walls of Modesto were nominated for commander and Major-General Hunter Liggett was named honorary commander of the California and Nevada commanderies.

Other candidates nominated, to be voted on tomorrow, are:

Senior Vice Commander, James M. Foley, unopposed, Los Angeles; Judge Advocate-General, Hale Day, Los Angeles; Surgeon-General, Dr. R. S. Newell, Oakland; Chaplain, Father J. M. Gleason, San Francisco; council of administration, Professor E. Whitney Martin, Stanford University; Captains, J. C. Dorley, Los Angeles; C. J. Dutreaux, San Francisco; D. B. Shurtell, Oakland; Thornwall Mullally, San Francisco, and E. G. Rai, San Francisco.

Just before adjourning a resolution condemning Japanese colonization in California was passed, urging that Japanese children born here whose parents are not naturalized, should be prohibited the right of franchise.

HAYWARD, June 11.—The wedding of Miss Christine Madison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Madison, and Herbert Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Cooper, both families of Hayward, will take place Wednesday afternoon, June 22, at the Stanford Memorial Chapel in Palo Alto, according to an announcement made public here today.

Damage Action Raises Theory Of Clean Hands

Man Who Sues Is Alleged to Have Himself Been Violating Law.

MARTINEZ, June 11.—Whether or not a person can recover damages for injuries to his goods if at the time the injury was inflicted he was violating a law, is to be decided in a damage suit pending before Justice of the Peace F. L. Glass. The action was brought by J. G. Hall of Pittsburg against Adolph Engel to recover $299 for damages to his automobile sustained in a collision with Engel's car near Pittsburg in April. Engel has filed a counter claim of damages, asking a verdict of $271.

The accident, according to testimony introduced at trial of the suit yesterday, occurred on a turn in the highway. Witnesses asserted that Hall's car was off the paved section of the highway on the right side from one to two feet and that the machine was traveling about 35 miles an hour. In making the turn traveling in the opposite direction, it is claimed, Engel's car struck the rear of Hall's car, throwing both machines into the ditch.

T. D. Johnston, attorney for Engel, claimed that although Hall was on the right side of the road he was exceeding the speed limit of 15 miles an hour on turns and cited the law adage that a plaintiff must come into court "with clean hands." Judge Glass has reserved decision until authorities are cited by Johnston. Hill is represented by Attorney R. N. Wolfe.

Lunches Bring In Money for Church Work

Ladies' Aid Society Celebrates Accomplishment of Big Improvements.

RICHMOND, June 11.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the First M. E. church in this city last night held a jubilee in celebration of four and a half years of successful work which embraced the liquidation of a $2500 church debt, purchase of church pews amounting to $900, installation of stained glass windows in the church building and a number of other works entailing an expense of at least $1000. President Mrs. H. G. Studham presided over the affair.

The money with which the women did such able work was obtained through the operation of a lunch stand at the Standard Oil plant here. Approximately $9000 was cleared during the period mentioned.

Various members who have been identified with the business which is being closed due to the installation of a cafeteria by the oil company, told their experiences. Plans are on foot to raise more funds for the church work in other ways.

Harvester Loses Hand in Accident

PITTSBURG, June 10.—E. W. Glazier of Concord lost his right hand Wednesday evening when it became caught in a harvester he was repairing on a farm near here. Four fingers and the major portion of the hand were torn away. Glazier was rushed by fellow workers to Pittsburg for treatment. Because of the nature of the wound Dr. Gregory found it necessary to amputate the hand above the wrist.

According to Glazier he suffered but little pain and was hardly aware of the fact that he had been injured. He did not realize the seriousness of the cut until he started back to his place on the harvester to work. He is now at his home at Concord.

Berkeley Joins Fight to Cut Water Rates

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—Following similar action by Oakland a few days ago, the city of Berkeley today appealed to the Railroad Commission for a reduction of water charges by the East Bay Water company. It is contended that the surcharge granted October 11, 1919, is no longer necessary to give the company a reasonable return and demand is also made that the standby charge be eliminated.

Dike Builders Race With Colorado Flood

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

EL CENTRO, Cal., June 11.—A continued rise of the waters of the Colorado river, which topped the Saiz levee in Lower California yesterday, was expected today and workmen continued the work of checking the flood by piling rock and sand on levee tops. Officials of the Imperial Irrigation company declared, however, they believed the dikes would stand the strain of 130,000 second feet, which will come down the river within ten days, according to U. S. weather service estimates.

The principal danger, the irrigation officials said, was that sodden banks of levees may slough off and allow the river to rush through the breaches. This, it was stated, would inundate certain lands in Lower California, but there was no likelihood of flood waters reaching the California side of the border.

FRUIT SITUATION TO BE DISCUSSED AT MASS MEET

Effort Will Be Made to Encourage Canning of Crops by Producers.

A step in Alameda county looking toward bringing producer and consumer together in the canned fruit and vegetable situation will be taken at a mass meeting Friday evening at the municipal auditorium. The meeting will be under the direction of the Home Canners' Association, which organization is endeavoring to solve the marketing, producing and price problems confronting the growers of California fruits and vegetables and the consuming public.

One out of every four canneries in the state is forced to close its doors to the 1921 crop and last year's unsold crop is piled in numerous warehouses and loaded on retailers' shelves, the farmer can find little market for his produce, the cannery man will not buy more than a limited amount, according to a statement by the California Home Canners' Association.

To show the producer that he may can his goods at home and be assured of a market through the cooperation of the association is one of the plans of the home canners' organization.

The meeting next week will be the first of a series over the state. The co-operative movement launched by the association has brought response from all California producers. The press of the state had made widespread comment on the necessity of such a plan of co-operation as outlined by the association.

Frank D. Merrill, former United States food inspector, C. J. Welch, president and general manager of the concern, and W. S. Killingsworth will be included among the principal speakers.

Following are the three purposes set forth by the association:

First—To step into the breach and save the fruits and vegetables of California to the producer and to the consumer alike.

Second—To have the producer, the farmer, can his own produce and not be dependent upon the canneries which this year will only buy a limited amount of the crops because of a glutted market. It will also teach the producer the proper methods of canning.

Third—To assume the marketing responsibility and open the markets of the United States to California fruits, vegetables and berries canned on the farm.

SIBERIA REPUBLIC ORDERS JAPANESE TO QUIT COUNTRY

Presence of Nippon Troops Is An Infringement On Sovereignty, Declared.

TOKYO, June 11 (By the Associated Press).—The representative at Peking of the Far East republic, according to the newspapers, has handed notes to the Chinese government and also to the Japanese, American and British ministers reiterating the Far Eastern government's protest against what is termed Japan's interference in Siberia and insisting that the anarchic conditions are due to Japan's support of the former troops of the late General Kappell, whom, it is charged, Japan has furnished with arms. The notes are declared to have been delivered under instructions from M. Yourin, the new foreign minister of the Far Eastern republic.

It is said further in the notes that Japan's occupation is an infringement of Russia's sovereignty, and the request is made that the allies urge Japan to evacuate Siberia at the earliest possible date.

MAY ASK AID OF REDS.

Harbin despatches report that the leaders at Chita, capital of the Far Eastern republic, have decided to seek the help of the Soviet to fight Japan "should this become necessary in the anti-reactionary struggle."

Detachments of the army of General Baron Ungern-Sternberg are declared to have lost eighteen men killed in a recent unsuccessful attempt to blow up a railway bridge near Orovannaya.

Determined anti-Bolshevik uprisings in the Ural mountain region and at Petropavlovsk, about 200 miles south of Tobolsk, are reported in semi-official advices received here. It is said that Petropavlovsk has been occupied by the anti-Bolsheviki and that the movement from Moscow of reinforcements for Soviet troops in Siberia is difficult, as the anti-Soviet elements control various points along the Trans-Siberian railroad.

SEMENOFF REPUDIATED.

VLADIVOSTOK, June 11 (By the Associated Press).—The difficulties being experienced by General Semenoff, the anti-Bolshevik leader, and the anti-Bolshevik element which recently took over the government of Vladivostok, are reaching an acute stage.

The new government issued a statement today repudiating Semenoff's claim to an official position and also denied Semenoff was the anti-Bolshevik commander-in-chief.

The troops of the Far Eastern republic of Siberia, whose headquarters is in Chita, are estimated at number 36,000 men, while the anti-Bolsheviki are said to have 13,000.

An unconfirmed report received here states that there has been a mutiny among the Chita forces.

HARBIN, Manchuria, June 11 (By the Associated Press).—It is reported from Blagovestchensk that a Bolshevik regiment from Trans-Baikal mutinied and, with the assistance of Cossacks, disarmed a Communist sailor battalion and took control of the city. Four hours later, however, the regular Bolshevik forces, having received reinforcements, recaptured Blagovestchensk.

Along with the car went his entire camp outfit, he told the officers. During the night while he was away, the flitting took place. Dietz, he states, followed the family from Porterville. EVER-BEARING ORANGE FOUND IN FLORIDA GROVE

Discovery of Tree That May Revolutionize Whole Whole Industry.

TAMPA, Fla., June 11.—An ever-bearing orange tree which citrus fruit growers believe is destined to revolutionize the orange industry of the state, if not of the entire country, has been discovered by horticulturists in a small grove at Avon Park, near here, and to protect the specimen its purchasers have placed around it a heavy wire fence twenty feet in height and stationed guards day and night.

The tree has been in bearing continuously eight years, but until recently its existence was known only to the owner and several neighbors who, according to citrus experts, did not realize its value but regarded it merely as a freak of nature. Several of South Florida's largest citrus growers have organized a syndicate, purchased the tree, leased the ground upon which it stands and already are taking steps to develop its possibilities by propagating it through budwood, with the expectation of having 250,000 trees ready for setting out in groves by 1923.

ORIGIN IS MYSTERY.

The ever-bearing tree is about 15 years old, but its origin is a mystery. Like the famous Temple orange tree discovered some years ago on the estate of the late W. C. Temple, one time National League baseball magnate, the new specimen stands alone as the first of an entirely new branch of the citrus family, and its owners believe it will bring forth stock true to the parent tree and, as in the case of the Temple tree, be worth millions to the men who had the foresight to grasp its possibilities.

CONTINUOUS PERFORMANCE.

Apparently authentic records show that for eight years the tree has bloomed and borne fruit continuously and that at no time during that period has it failed to have blossoms and fruit at all stages of maturity. In outward appearance the fruit is a valencia, except that it is slightly more oblong than that variety. The meat in texture and flavor is that of a perfect valencia, the variety that brings the top price in the markets.

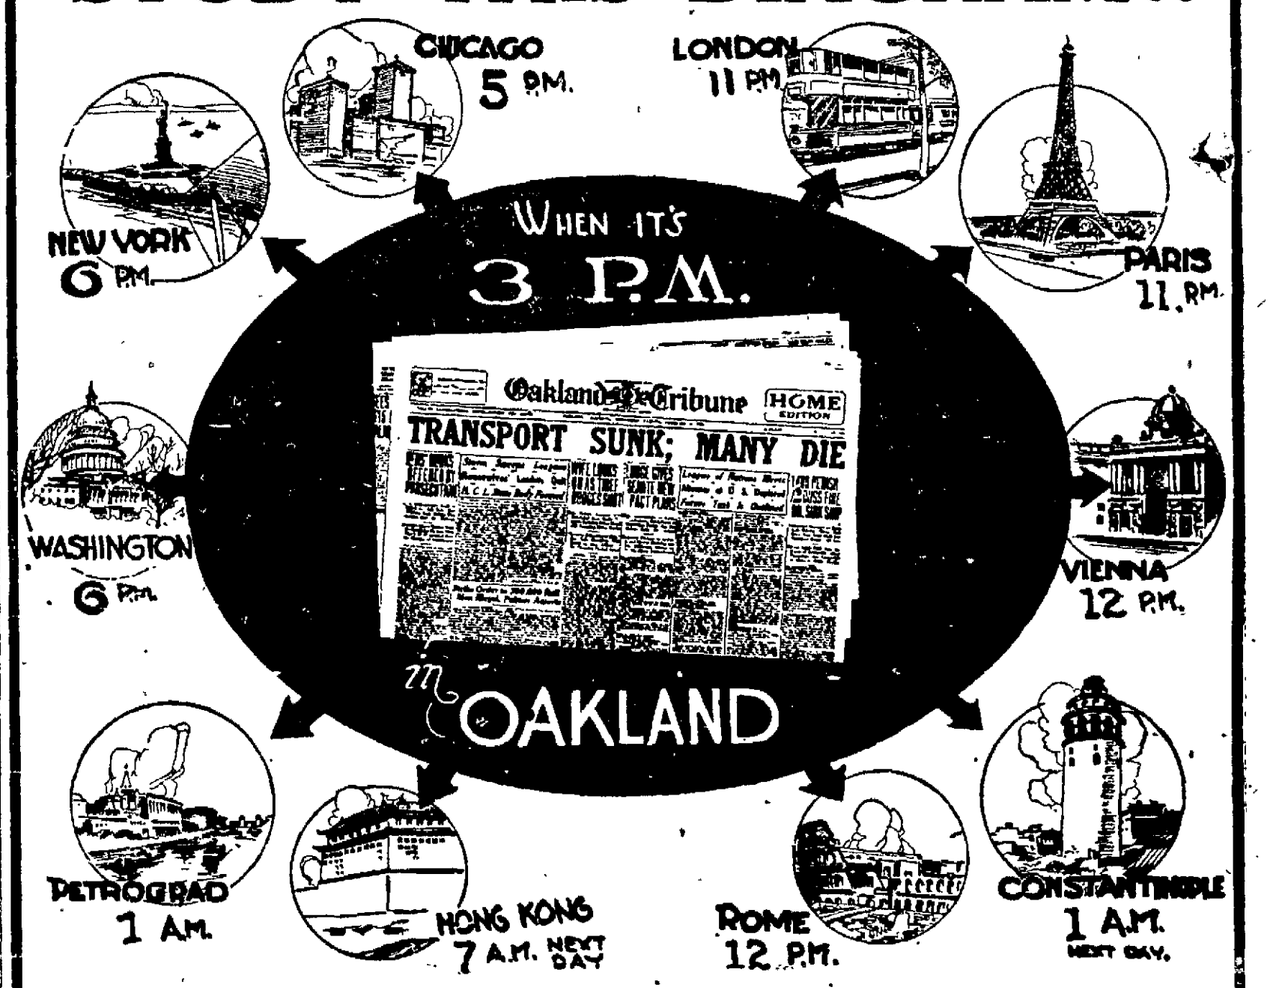

The ever-bearing Florida lemon has been common for many years, but citrus experts here declare they never before have known of an ever-bearing orangge.

Printed foulard is very much used. It is often combined with serge and thus makes charming coat dresses.

The craze for metal trimmings is much in evidence now as it was six months ago.

Did You Ever Stop to Realize what a wonderful advantage The TRIBUNE has over the morning papers in presenting the news of the world?

When it is 6 p. m. in New York, and night time in Europe, it is but 3 p. m. here

This is the reason why, day after day, year after year, the newspaper reader when he takes up a morning paper, sees the same things staring him in the face that he saw in his afternoon paper of the day before. The "news" that he reads happened the day before and was printed in the afternoon journals. It is old news, stale, flat and unprofitable. All newspaper men know this, but strange as it may seem, some readers of newspapers do not yet understand why morning newspaper headlines are repetitions, in sense, if not in words, of the lines they beheld the afternoon preceding.

The Oakland TRIBUNE, delivered every day in the year, for only 85c a month, is the biggest paper value in the United States. (This includes the big Sunday morning edition WITHOUT EXTRA COST.)

OPTIMISTS' CLUB IS ADDRESSED BY RANGOON 'Y' MAN

Caste Hold On India Will Be Broken by Christianity, Speaker's Belief.

"India's Contribution to the Civilization of the World" was discussed in an address given by Prof. Goon Sakara of the Y. M. C. A. of Rangoon at yesterday's luncheon meeting of the Optimists' Club, held in the Hotel Oakland.

The speaker touched upon India's history from the time of her commercial relations with Babylon down to the present, declaring that the caste system is the curse of India and that, in his opinion, the Christian religion is the only one that will eventually break down the caste system.

Among the important contributions to civilization made by India, the speaker made especial mention of the fact that India, by supplying Columbus with an impetus to cross the ocean in the effort to find another route to India, thereby indirectly contributed to the discovery of America.

ANCIENT CIVILIZATION.

"Six hundred years before Christ," the speaker declared, "India was well versed in the arts and sciences."

He traced the legendary origin of chess in the ancient island which later became Ceylon. In discussing England's relations with India, he expressed the belief that if the British left India the people there would decimate themselves with wars, as there are 150 nationalities within the borders of India.

A committee from the War Mothers provided a musical entertainment and sold tickets to the pageant "California," to be held for the benefit of disabled soldiers. The matter of endorsing legislative action favorable to securing the wounded soldiers' compensation was referred to the board of governors of the club.

R. J. SHOEMAKER HONORED.

Resolutions were adopted deploring the death of Robert J. Shoemaker, founder of the Oakland Optimists' Club and setting aside the first meeting day in June of the local club as "Bob's Day."

Prof. Goon Sakara, the speaker of the day, will go from here to Chicago to attend the Y. M. C. A. conference in that city. After spending some time in Bible training in the Moody Institute he will return to India.

The following committees were announced at yesterday's meeting:

Membership—Arthur E. Caldwell, chairman; Dr. Curtis Wherry, Hayward Thomas, Tarran Hall and Henry M. Hastings.

Big Brother—Bill Stinger.

Civic Affairs — D. C. Dutton, Thomas H. Lloyd, Will G. Corlett and Joseph D. Leahy.

Court Denies Writ to Martinez Forger

MARTINEZ, June 11.—The third district court of appeals at Sacramento has denied the petition of P. J. Ballos, Main street vegetable dealer, for a writ of habeas corpus filed after his conviction in superior court at Woodland on a charge of forgery, according to word received today by A. S. Ormsby, Ballos' attorney. Ballos was accused of having raised a check given him by Jessie Dunsmore from 65 cents to $65 and to have cashed it at the Bank of Martinez.

According to Ormsby the court in denying the writ of habeas corpus indicated its desire to pass on the case in an appeal with the transcript of the trial before it. An appeal in the case was filed several days after petition was made for a writ of habeas corpus. Ballos is at liberty on bail. Time of hearing the appeal has not been fixed.

Court's Mercy Asked by Drunken Driver

SAN JOSE, June 11.—Peter Giljevich, driver of an automobile which, it is alleged, ran down and very seriously injured two young women of Cupertino, one an expectant mother, several weeks ago, yesterday afternoon entered a plea of guilty to a felony charge of operating a motor vehicle while in an intoxicated condition. He then applied to Superior Judge J. R. Welch for probation. His hearing was set for next Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Giljevich originally entered a plea of not guilty, but yesterday informed the court that he had decided to rest his fate with the leniency of the court. Judge Welch warned him that the charge was a serious one.

Denver Rector Made Bishop Coadjutor

DENVER, Colo., June 11.—A distinguished throng of lay members and dignitaries of the Protestant Episcopal church packed St. Mark's church here today at the consecration of the Rev. Fred Ingley, rector of St. Mark's, as bishop coadjutor of Colorado. The day began with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 7:30 by the Rev. Frank Frederick Beckerman, B.A., followed at 9:30 by morning prayer conducted by Rev. H. R. A. O'Malley.

The Rt. Rev. Fred Ingley, now bishop coadjutor of Colorado, was born in England, November 20, 1878. He came to the United States when nine years old, going to Pittsburgh with his parents, where he entered the public schools. When he finished his schooling he went to work in the Pittsburgh offices of the Pennsylvania railroad, remaining there for ten years. In 1906 he was graduated from the Philadelphia Divinity school and was ordained deacon by Bishop Whithead the same year. In 1907 he was ordained priest by Bishop Whithead.

Jury Disagrees in Visalia Murder Case

VISALIA, June 11.—The jury deliberating the case of T. T. Condley reported itself hopelessly deadlocked at 8:45 last night, exactly twenty-four hours after it took the case, and was discharged.

Condley is charged with the murder of Joe and Mrs. Silva, March 6, near Lindsay.

"Keang Foo, the Exile," Is Rich in Beauty, Color

SAN JOSE, June 11.—Seating accommodations for nearly 5000 people are being mapped out in Los Gatos for the coming pageant production on June 24 and 25 of "Keang Foo, the Exile," and every indication at the present time points toward one of the greatest outdoor events in the history of California when the production is finally staged.

"Keang Foo, the Exile," is a masterful production of rare dramatic quality, written and produced by Wilbur Hall, whose efforts are carrying along the work of the production with such marked success. It is an allegorical pageant of rich beauty and is highly colorful.

George William Turner is assembling the scenery for the pageant and the stage properties are said to be accumulating rapidly, including red lacquer gates, city walls, pagodas, palanquins, funeral carts and other copies of Chinese pieces of the period.

The musical program will be one of the most important attractions. The work of training the great chorus is in the capable hands of Mrs. Delmer W. Call, who will herself sing one of the leading roles. Orchestration, it is stated, will be superb.

Wilbur Hall is being ably assisted by Miss Rachel Riggs and George Shaner.

Two hundred women of Los Gatos are engaged in making up the many gorgeous costumes to be used in the production. The costumes are all of the fourteenth century Chinese type and are quaint and beautiful. Every detail of the pageant is being worked out with the greatest care and the results are expected to bring to Californians the most spectacular pageant ever witnessed on this coast.

Building Owner Sued for Hurts Due to Fall

SAN JOSE, June 11.—Because a piece of a broken railing along the stairway, leading to the second story of the New Century building at Second and Santa Clara streets, upon which she stepped, caused her to slip and fall headlong down the stairs, Josephine Hartman late yesternoon filed suit in the superior court here, seeking $11,000 damages from Isabel de Saissett, Harriet Filipello and E. A. Filipello.

The plaintiff claims that the fall resulted in injuries to her spine, which have never fully recovered and which caused internal disorders. She charges that the lack of upkeep in the building by the three owners was the direct cause of her accident, which occurred January 30. She further alleges that the hallway of the building was not properly lighted, which contributed additionally to the cause of her fall.

The three defendants are among the best known residents of this city.

Cop's Blow Puts 'Kid' Sullivan in Insane Hospital

Well Known Figure in S. F. Courts Sobs With Wife As He Is Committed.

SAN JOSE, June 11.—Daniel "Kid" Sullivan, said to be a prominent figure around the hall of justice in San Francisco for years as a bail bond broker and known to the police of many cities as "king of the pickpockets," today is an inmate of the State Hospital for the insane at Agnews, seven miles north of here. He was ordered committed to that institution yesterday by Superior Judge P. F. Gosbey.

The scene coincident with Sullivan's being sent to Agnew was filled with pathos. His wife, weeping bitterly, was at his side and Sullivan wept with her. He is now broken and mentally unbalanced from a blow in the head struck several years ago by a policeman, it is said.

Sullivan did not hesitate about going to the asylum. Rather did he welcome it, still cringing with fear of phantom men who he believes are seeking him to end his life. He was arrested here last Monday when he sought refuge from his supposed pursuers.

Sneak Thief Takes Phone Co. Collections

SAN JOSE, June 11.—Chief of Police J. N. The money contained in the bags totaled $53, according to officials of the company and had been sacked preparatory to being taken to a bank.

PUEBLO BEGINS TO REBUILD ITS RUINS

PUEBLO, Colo., June 11 — Flood prevention is Pueblo's cry today as the work of emergency relief is beginning solution through the work of relief organizations under the supervision of the Red Cross.

Announcement of Mayor James M. Lovern last night that a committee would go to Washington to ask the federal government's aid in preventing a repetition of the flood was followed closely by a telegram from Secretary Fall of the Interior Department that two engineers would be sent at once to make a survey.

E. E. Withers, prominent business man, who was shot and killed last Monday night, was "accidentally killed by a bullet from a rifle in the hands of a guard," according to a verdict made public by J. Will Johnson, chairman of the civilian board, which investigated the shooting. Johnson said the guard from whose rifle the fatal bullet was fired was known. His name was not made public, however.

The death list is growing slowly, additional bodies being recovered only occasionally as debris is removed and the cleaning up process continues. Early today the known dead in the morgues stood at 49.

'DEBBIL' CHASE AT HER HOME ENDS

BERKELEY, June 11.—When Mrs. J. P. Livingstone, 1 El Camino Real, heard her cook, Chew Joe, sharpening all the knives and cleavers in her kitchen and muttering strange things to himself, she screamed for help, called the police and then fainted.

Patrolmen Henry Hoar and Frank Swain, arriving on the scene, found Mrs. Livingstone in a swoon with Mrs. H. B. Starnes and Mrs. K. V. Stinson, neighbors, attempting to resuscitate her.

Hoar proceeded to the kitchen. Joe was in battle array. He had a knife in one hand, a cleaver in another and an assortment of other weapons laid out in front of him.

"I'll gettee debbils," announced Joe to the officer. In broken English he explained that a close friend of his had just died and that he was getting prepared for any devils that might attempt to get in communication with him.

Joe denied that he belonged to any tong and was getting ready for a new tong war.

Joe was taken to police station, also his collection of knives. He was given two days' pay coming to him at the Livingstone home and asked to pursue his "debbils" around someone else's home. This morning Joe was released from the Berkeley which they died.

Lodi Plants Burn; Loss Totals $70,000

LODI, June 11.—Fire of an unknown origin destroyed the shed of the Miller Fruit company and the dehydrating plant of the San Joaquin Valley Packing company last night. Of wood construction, there was no possible chance to save the buildings, the fire first catching in the Miller shed from which the dehydrating plant on the north side caught. The packing plant was stored with a large quantity of box shooks, the burning of which made a most spectacular sight. The loss on this concern, which is in the hands of a receiver, will amount to $60,000. The loss to the Miller Fruit company is estimated at between $10,000 and $12,000, which is also covered by insurance.

Alleged Slayer Laughs as Trial For Life Starts

Stanford Farm Employee Is Accused of Plotting Death to Collect Insurance.

SAN JOSE, June 11.—Nicholas Jaramoaz charged in the Superior Court here with the brutal murder of Stephen Vuyacich, an employee of the Stanford University stock farm, yesterday afternoon laughed and beckoned at a little child at the knees of its mother in the courtroom of Judge J. R. Welch as Deputy County Clerk Frank J. Waterhouse read the information charging him with the stabbing to death of his fellow countryman, apparently unmindful of the fact that Sheriff George W. Lyle and District Attorney C. C. Coolidge have announced they will seek the death penalty in his case.

Jaramoaz is one of the most carefree prisoners now in the county jail. Yesterday, while awaiting arraignment in the Superior Court, he insisted on chatting with others in the prisoners' box and had to be quieted on two occasions by the bailiff.

Attorney W. E. Foley, representing the prisoner, asked and was granted until next Friday for time to enter plea. Jaramoaz is accused of plotting with his victim's wife to slay Vuyacich and get his $5000 worth of insurance.

Vulgar Chickens Balk at Course In Egg College

Highbrow Stuff Doesn't Go for Hayward Hens; New Tutor Installed.

HAYWARD, June 11.—An announcement was made by the Farm Advisor's office here today to the effect that George A. Wall had been appointed to fill the vacancy at the Poultry Housing and Feeding Demonstration, left by the resignation of R. T. Snyder.

Snyder has been segregating the local poultry for a little over a month. Various conjectures have arisen regarding his resignation. Some say the chickens objected to him on the ground that he showed favoritism in assigning them to the University and average houses. There is little ground for that theory, state others, as close observance shows the conditions to be practically the same. It is understood the food is exactly the same.

Whatever caused the separation is a matter of doubt but the statement from the Farm Advisor stands and Wall is today endeavoring to bring the chickens up in the "way" they should go—no matter what they, personally, think about it.

The British detachment was ambushed, but fought its way out of the trap with only "minor casualties." No estimate was made of the casualties suffered by the Poles who fled after the British had taken the initiative.

The effect the incident would have on the general situation could not be ascertained at allied headquarters.

Malapane is fifteen miles directly east of Oppeln on the river of the same name, and is slightly to the westward of the Kortanty line.

HE "GETS" JUDGE 2D TIME; SMILE TURNS TO SHRIEK

SUPERIOR, Wis., June 11.—John Kowalski, 29, smiled as Superior Judge Solon L. Perrin passed sentence of eighteen years on him for holding up a cripple at the point of a gun.

"Why do you smile?" asked Sheriff Buchanan, as he led Kowalski from the courtroom. "Isn't eighteen years long enough to suit you?"

"My God, did he say eighteen years?" shrieked Kowalski. "I thought he said eighteen days."

Kowalski collapsed and had to be assisted to his cell.

Japanese in Hawaii Fight Language Ban

HONOLULU, T. H., June 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—Japanese residents of Hawaii want their children to learn to read and write the Japanese language as well as the English language, declared Consul General of Japan C. Yada in an interview here yesterday. Yada was asked his opinion on the operation of the new foreign language school law, which permits only one hour daily schooling in foreign languages.

"A large portion of the Japanese families on plantations are preparing to move to localities where they can be certain that their children will learn the Japanese language," he said. "They are willing that their children learn English and be conversant in American history, but they do not wish that they be brought up in ignorance of their mother country, its language and literature."

MARTINEZ, June 11.—Meeting last night members of the Congregational church reached a decision to construct a building at the rear of the church to accommodate Sunday school classes. Young Specialist In Fire Alarms Confesses Guilt

James Soto Pleads Guilty to High Misdemeanor; Punishment Is Asked.

SAN JOSE, June 11.—James Soto, young San Jose man charged with having turned in two false fire alarms in this city several weeks ago, and who was recently held to answer to the superior court on the charge a high misdemeanor, yesterday afternoon faced Superior Judge J. R. Welch, waived time for arraignment etc., entered a plea of guilty and filed application for probation.

Judge Welch, setting next Friday morning at 10 o'clock for the hearing of the appeal for probation, said the case did not appear to be a very serious one. Members of the district attorney's office however, will ask the court to inflict some sort of punishment on Soto claiming that the practice of turning in false fire alarms in San Jose has become too much of a pastime.

Lives are endangered, property is endangered and expense is incurred, stated Deputy District Attorney Percy O'Connor, every time the fire bell rings regardless of whether it is a false or legitimate alarm. This thing has assumed too much the means of young men having a specialled good time."

Thieves Break Into Hayward Offices

HAYWARD, June 11.—Two offices in the Hayward Bank building were entered last night by thieves believed by Marshal J. P. Daken to have been boys. From Attorney F. J. NEW FIGHT MADE FOR PRACTITIONER JURY CONVICTED Technicalities Urged in San Jose Series of Trials of Chiropractors.

SAN JOSE, June 11.—A packed courtroom of people gathered to hear sentence passed on L. D. Treseder, president of the Santa Clara County Chiropractors' Association convicted last Wednesday on a charge of practicing as a doctor without a state license, was disappointed yesterday when the case was continued one week by Superior Judge J. R. Welch, after Attorney W. E. Foley had made application for a new trial.

The hearing of the application will be heard next Friday and if denied, sentence will be imposed at that time. Treseder has announced that if fined he will go to jail in preference to paying the fine.

Attorney Foley made his motion for a new trial on the ground that the verdict of the jury was contrary to law and contrary to the evidence as submitted and on the further ground that the court erred in its instructions to the members of the jury.

Good News!

a few lots remain in Chevrolet Park

You still have an opportunity to secure a lot in Chevrolet Park. But so few lots remain that tomorrow's selling is expected to clean up this tract.

The beauty about Chevrolet Park is that every lot is good. In this level, sightly property there are no undesirable lots. Though you were the last purchaser you would fare as well as the first. Come out tomorrow and be one of the fortunate owners in this coming home section next door to Mills College.

Residence Lots $250 to $550
Business Lots $385 to $695

Terms $20 down—$5 a month

No interest or taxes until July 1, 1922

Chevrolet Park is fully improved. Concrete streets, like state highways, are in, as are water mains and sewers. It is positively the best improved tract in the state. The improvements if put in at today's costs would amount to more than we are asking for the lots.

A bus line extension from the end of the 55th Avenue car line transfers you to the center of Chevrolet Park. S. P. transportation is but five blocks away, at Seminary station on the Melrose line. A grammar school is within two blocks, and the Fremont High School within walking distance.

As the property immediately adjoining the University has become the best residence section of Berkeley, so that around Mills College will always be the choice part of this district. Marine view, warm, fogless belt, trees in and around the property—are other reasons why you will profit by owning a lot or two in beautiful Chevrolet Park.

To Get There

Why Madge Waited For Lillian's Reply.

I hurried away on my errand, smiling at the inordinate grandmotherly pride which led my mother-in-law to take upon herself the task of removing Junior's ink-stained garments

If I had been in such urgent haste I should have stayed to help her, and to revel, mother-like, in the precocity of the baby who had covered himself with ink in an attempt to imitate his grandmother in the writing of a letter But Leila's plight, the necessity of getting into touch with Lillian, speeded my feet in the direction of the main village street, along which I had heard Mrs. Lukens remark dryly, "the vast industries of Cedar Crest are concentrated."

I smiled at her description as I turned into the wide street. Like all the others in the pine country villages, it possessed no sidewalks, only a broad strip of hard-packed sand for a roadway, and narrower ones for footpaths, separated from the roadway by rows of pine trees and low shrubs. All of the buildings, save three, were pretty cottage residences.

One whole block at one side was taken up by a rather pretentious building surrounded by pretty grounds A lettered board on one of the trees at the front proclaimed this to be "The Famous Cedar Crest Inn." Opposite, a small two-story building, with daintily-spread tables showing through the windows, proclaimed its name as "The Cedar Crest Restaurant." A larger brick building, holding the sign "Groceries," I knew from Mrs Lukens, and also from my mother-in-law's housewifely gossip, to be the only store in the village, a place where you can obtain anything from a spool of thread to a bottle of cough medicine.

A KINDLY FACE.

A tiny cottage next the restaurant had a sign "Taxi" in its window, and upon the porch in front of it a little, brown wren of a woman sat sunning herself She was old and wrinkled but her eyes, as they looked out on the passers-by, were bright and kindly. The porch was so near the sidewalk that one could easily accost her, and as I passed slowly by she looked out at me with such eager, childlike intrest that I involuntarily smiled at her. Her answering smile lit up her face amazingly. I felt at once that there was some one who would not only answer any questions I, a stranger, might wish to ask, but who would revel in the task

"It's a lovely day, isn't it?" she said, as I paused.

"I think all your days are lovely down here," I smiled.

"You should have been here three weeks ago," she retorted a little grimly, "and you'd have changed your mind Such mud I never did see in all my years down here. But then, I ought not to complain. I guess bad days are as rare here as anywhere in the world. But, you see, I can't get out unless the sun shines just right, so I'm a little prejudiced in favor of fair weather."

The bravery of her smile, the whimsicality of her speech, masked, I suddenly comprehended, a fight with illness long sustained, stubbornly combated I felt the tightness in my throat which the sight of suffering in a child or an old person always brings, and I hurried into the question I wished to ask.

"I WILL RETURN."

"Can you tell me where I can send a telegram?"

"I reckon I can." Her lips quirked to a smile as she spoke, and I guessed that she had purposely quoted the peculiarly southern use of the verb. "You can go down to the railroad station if you want to write it. That's a good half mile or more from here, or you can telephone it from the telephone office in the next block, just beyond the postoffice. See—just across from the church!"

She pointed down the street, and, thanking her, I hurried on in the direction she had indicated. I passed by a quaint little church, which told me on a lettered board that it was "St. John's of the Pines," caught my breath at the sight of hundreds —thousands, it seemed to me at first —of golden daffodils in the stately grounds of a villa on the corner opposite, then walked diagonally across the road, past the corner postoffice, to a rambling house, in the yard of which several children played, and which bore inconspicuously the sign of the telephone company.

A sweet faced woman sitting in front of a switchboard in the front room of the house turned at my knock on the screened door.

"Come in and sit down," she said, "I'll be through with this message in just aminute."

Winifred Black's Column

THE RIGHT ENVIRONMENT.

Poor boy, he wrote poetry and every one he knew laughed at him for it, and so he jumped into the bay and killed himself.

But before he died he told the doctors at the hospital, where they tried to save him, that he could not live and think that people were making fun of him.

He had beautiful thoughts, he said, and he loved to write them down, and he didn't see how people could be so cruel, and he would rather die than go on living in such a heartless, bitter world!

And no one laughed at him any more.

The poetry that he wrote was really not bad at all.

Some of it was actually good and, now that he is gone and the newspapers are printing the poetry, the people who laughed at him are staring blankly at each other and wondering what it's all about.

Poor things! They're as foolish as he was—perhaps some are more foolish than he, for he had brains to see and to understand And they are like the dumb, driven cattle who cannot know anything beyond eating and sleeping, and standing knee-deep in the lush green grass and eating and sleeping again.

But what a very foolish boy he was —the young poet—to die because a few stupid people could not understand his pleasant thoughts and laughed at him for trying to express them.

IN THE LONG AGO.

His thoughts were not wrong and they were not foolish at all. They were rather pretty and very sensible indeed. Where his folly came in was when he told them—the people who could not understand.

The only weapon the inferior has is the weapon of ridicule. Couldn't you realize that, you poor, bewildered young man, you?

These people you lived among didn't know what on earth you were trying to say and so they laughed—and you let their laughter hurt you to the heart. Why didn't you go away from such people?

Why didn't you put on your hat and your heavy shoes and your rough clothes and start out and find people like yourself?

There are plenty of them in the world—and you would have been very happy with them

Once I knew a funny little girl and she had a pet chicken that she had raised from the day it came out of the shell It was a fluffy little yellow thing, when she first saw it, and very helpless. But it grew and grew, and finally it turned into a regular, every-day, little hen, with white feathers and yellow feet And the little girl had to turn it loose in the chicken yard And there were other young hens there, with white feathers and yellow feet And the little girl was afraid she might not know her own particular pet when she came back from her vacation so she tied a beautiful scarlet ribbon around the chicken's neck, and put it out in the yard and went away.

And in less than a day the pet chicken was dead. The other white hens with yellow feet had picked it to death.

Why not? What business did it have with a ribbon around its neck? They didn't have any ribbons, did they? How could they let anything live that was so different from them?

FIND YOUR ENVIRONMENT

So the little girl learned a great lesson, and she carried it all through life with her. When she went into the back yard of the world with other little hens, she tried her very best to look and act as much as possible like them. For she knew what would happen to her if she didn't. But, fortunately for this funny little girl, she had sense enough to hunt up people who were something like her on the inside as well as on the outside.

And so she never had heart break because she was lonely and misunderstood.

When people laugh at you for your thoughts, little sister, keep them to yourself, until you get among people who know enough not to laugh at them.

I'm sorry the young poet thought he had to die.

I believe he would have done something in the world if he had only had the courage and the common sense to find his own environment.

PEACE OF MIND

Life has no richer joy than peace of mind.
This is the common goal of great and low,
The perfect bliss which every man must know
If happiness on earth he is to find:
To live his days and never leave behind
Shame or regret or hatred's drifted snow.
Taking the pleasures as they come and go,
Nor asking others of a greater kind.

Who wears this lovely jewel on his breast
Has none to envy, for no man can be Happier with all his treasures than is he;
For this is victory shining at its best—
To come to nightfall or gray, wrinkled age,
Content with what is written on the page.

Cry on Geraldine's Shoulder

There are certain arguments which wage merrily on in this column without any aid whatever from Jerry. One of 'em is this skirt problem—and whether they should be worn bunion or car length Here's a voice which appeals for temperance in all things—particularly calves

Dear Jerry—

Just finished reading Betty's letter of Saturday May 7, and I must say that she is all wrong and that we men are not lizards

If the girls would only wear their skirts a little longer (I mean a little down to their ankles), and when they put on powder and paint if they would only put a little on instead of trying to see how much they can put on they would find out that the men would respect them more than they do and that we are not as bad as they think we are and that we are not Lizards either

Jerry, I'm not a Mama's boy as I am as ruff as the next one and I step to dances three times a week. A fellow has more respect for a plain girl than for one that is painted up

Hoping this will open up some of those painted dolls' eyes with their short skirts,

Smoking On Cars

Dear Jerry—

I'm a "constant reader" and a very great admirer of yours, although I do think at times you lay it on rather thick on our sex, but nevertheless, here's a question I'd like to ask: Why do our street cars permit smoking by our noble superiors? Many cities in the East also Portland, Oregon do not permit it and the men seem to survive. Many of the cars, especially the East Fourteenth street lines, are foul with the cigars and cigarettes, stubs, etc., and many of the brands smoked and blown all through the cars are such, that I think, the women of Oakland would be justified in carrying individual garbage burners and thus disposing of the necessity of an ash man

Sincerely yours, G A H

Come on you Brave Laddies answer the lady's question Why do the street car owners permit you to smoke? I refuse to enter the melee. Whatever I say I'm in wrong—Me for the fence and popularity

From a Booster

Welcome to Crockett! Does Jerry know it's on the map? She'll say she do!! And Jerry has done her little best to help it stay there once or twice also Nope—won't answer any questions whatsoever, but I'M ALL FOR CROCKETT!

Geraldine, Old Pal—

I read your column every night and I surely enjoy it—and of course it's all true, every single answer you write. I take stock by everything you say.

I don't live in your city, Oakland, but in a sugar town. Some day we hope it will be a second Oakland. We're twenty-five miles up the Straits from you and it's here, Gerry, you should wander some day and enjoy our country air I think it would be great if you'd honor us by getting a permit to go through our sugar refining plant (C. & H.) They are very good to visitors and they are always welcome It's a great corporation and they treat their employees royally. Ask a few Oaklanders that work in our town and plant.

Then, too, we should have a Gerry for our town paper, as we need some new news. Never have to read the town paper, as we usually know what is in it first

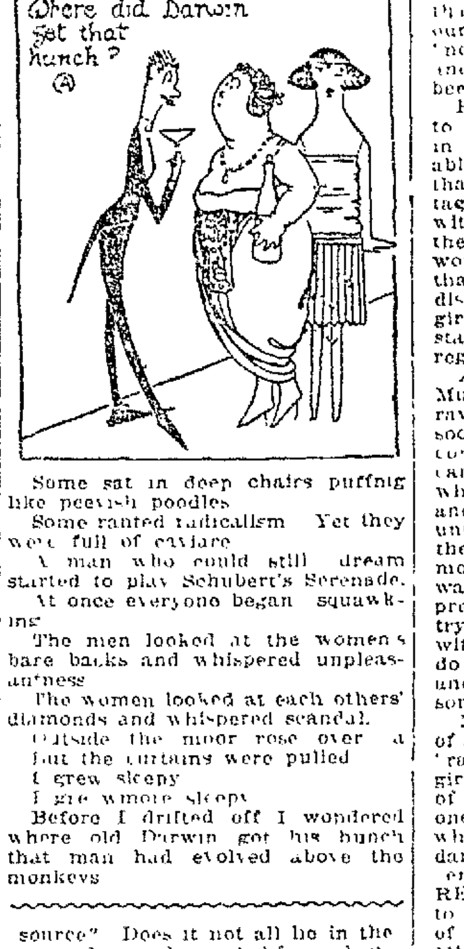

Anyway, it's a small town outside your Oakland, and I bet you did not know there existed such a place. Look it up on the map and someday travel up this way.

Hurrah for Gerry!

MISS CROCKETT.

Listen, World!

I went to a dinner
In the most Exclusive Set
They came in bulging with bottles
They drank all that was in the bottles
And grew red and talked about their achievements
And grew sentimental and droned
And grew excited and snorted politics
And grew silly and confided in the butler
Then they danced
They bounced up and down like scared Jack Rabbits
They stuck like hungry cats
They sprawled like clumsy toads

Some sat in deep chairs puffing like peevish poodles
Some ranted radicalism Yet they were full of caviare
A man who could still dream started to play Schubert's Serenade.
At once everyone began squawking
The men looked at the women's bare backs and whispered unpleasantness
The women looked at each others' diamonds and whispered scandal.
Outside the moon rose over a hill but the curtains were pulled
I grew sleepy
I got where it sleeps

Probing Deep

To Geraldine—

Ouch! I read this entire interesting page of yours, and could not resist the itch to answer you a few lines on the subject.

Even in spite of my unfamiliarity of the English language, and not being accustomed to put down my thoughts in good form—thus be indulgent.

All this exposure of life as it is, with its naked plague, interested me very much, as I am an old knock-about, and sometimes a bit of a thinker

I went all through these columns hoping to find some real or at least some cure for the unmasked evil, but could find none. Now, where does this young generation get these new ideas? Don't you think it would be a good idea to remount the stream to its source? Does it not all lie in the misunderstanding of life and its true purposes? As we go back must we not commence at the origin and end of all things? Creation—purpose of creation—God If we dig in deep enough into that soil I don't doubt we would have a better understanding of life—love and consequently happiness. We know there can be no happiness without love But the important question is: What kind of love will procure true and lasting happiness? How pitiful for us to have been so badly misled as to confuse real love with those vulgar yet most imperious demands of our nature The latter is merely the consequence of love but can never be the object Love is of course a natural desire of possession, but of possession for an eternal purpose. We search the domain of religion Much could be said about its misunderstanding, and as a shield to cover our conscience. IF WE ARE UNTRUE TO OURSELVES, HOW CAN WE BE TRUE TO OTHERS?

We think we're wise when we set out vamping, and in reality we are the losers. Pity the results of our modern methods of education, and accuse those unworthy fathers and mothers as unpardonable criminals and the greatest enemies of their own innocent children.

A YOUNG MAN.

Here's a diet of wisdom for you which it might be well for us all to digest:

Dear Geraldine—

A word I want to give to the co-ed who signed her name "Francis N" I lived through her experience, that's why I feel able to advise In this life we receive what we send. In the exact proportion that we give out fine, splendid, unselfish thoughts and motives, in that same proportion do we attract material conditions that harmonize with our thoughts

A word to the wise is sufficient, dear, and as long as you are critical fault-finding and selfish and small-minded you will continue to attract "sad-birds." There is no older law in the universe than "like attracts like"

GLORIA HOPE.

Here's a Comment

Oh Measles—Oh Mumps—Oh Misery! Are the men about to get it right in the back of their Arrow Brands. We'll inform the universe they are! Listen to this sizzle:

Dear Geraldine—

May I infringe on your generosity and request you to print the following War Cry in detail? Here comes a cyclone so put on your armor, you men, and hail your over- or excess amount of pride to the winds while I distribute the shells. Before the bombs descend, I wish to thank my silent opponent Someone in Oakland for refuting my remarks concerning the young men of today However, he has a mistaken idea if he thinks I place "college boys" on a pedestal I meant what I said, namely, BOYS IN GENERAL. (No reservations) comprende?

I'll tell the world that we women are disgusted with men for they surely are the Grand Banko My experience in the world is far from limited even though I am "just" that youthful age, 18, and which our elders often distinguish us as "not possessing an ounce of sense and having a social or frivolous bee in our bonnets."

Having traveled from the Pacific to the Atlantic coast and mingled in society quite extensively, I was able to observe people more closely than had I not had these advantages I am intimately acquainted with other girls in various parts of the United States who are all good women and they deplore the fact that—well to put it mildly, are disgusted with the men These girls have the moral courage to stand up and do what is virtuous regardless of flattery's cruel deceit.

All ye Truth Seekers and Mouldy Mutterers are either blind or else rave about an Evangeline but associate with a Cleopatra (How consistent you are not) How can people believe these "insects" when they say one thing and act another? It indicates hypocrisy or untruth If all women listened to the dictates of men there would be more girls trodding the downward path Good girls aren't appreciated and men ridicule them or try to make them "wild" I agree with you, Jerry, that we should do our best for the sake of virtue and not because we might please some future Launcelot

Now don't you think it the nerve of a burglar for some of the young "rascals" to say, "Does the modern girl deserve the respect and esteem of a man?" It surely does "jar" one's mental set and I wonder whether the perfectly innocent (?) darlings ever tax their craniums enough to consider what the REAL woman expects her ideal to be Evidently none have died of brain fever in an over-zealous attempt

As a final "knock out" let me utter—Men are great moralists when criticising women, but great sinners when they and other people are concerned.

MISS BERKELEY.

How To Get a Man

TO MARTHA BELL—I am quite sure that your letter has already been answered—but I am repeating the advice There simply ISN'T any ready-made recipe for acquiring the "beaux, companionship and a home" which you say you long for—and for which every true woman does long. You must build up your drawing power within yourself, and the best way to do that, and to acquire charm which will win love for you is to FORGET YOURSELF, take up some interesting work which will force you to keep busy, study other people and make others happy in every way you can. Only by doing this will you win any permanent charm over others. Your information that Jerry would "answer letters on the next day" was erroneous Letters are answered as rapidly as possible—but as copy is prepared many days in advance, it is not possible to "answer next day."

To "NOBODY"—Dear little girl, there simply isn't a thing for you poor friend, to do but to put it all out of her life as fast a possible I think myself that the ultimate result will be much happier than if they had married Religious differences make for terrible bitterness. But I also doubt the wisdom of their attitude in choosing their respective religions simply because of the wishes of loved relatives. It seems to be that religion should be absolutely a matter of personal decision in which NO OUTSIDER has the slightest right to interfere.

Drink and Disease

TO R S T—Dear girl, I've certainly studied a long time over that letter, wondering how I best might help you I'm not sure I know now, but here is my best advice: As you probably know, drunkenness is really a disease. The craving for drink becomes as firmly rooted in the physical and emotional make-up as the loathesomeness of a cancer. The idea that a drunkard can "reform" by a supreme act of will is somewhat erroneous. He CAN reform and thousands do, but it isn't because he decided not to drink It is because he puts a DESIRE OF SOMETHING HEALTHIER AND BETTER INTO THE PLACE OF THE DRINK DESIRE In other words, a good appetite drives out the bad appetite.—Now, isn't there something that can be put into the husband's life to offset that unhealthy desire? I don't think it can come without suffering. But suppose you did steel yourself to leave him and take the baby. Suppose you let loneliness start a love hunger in his heart Don't you think it would work? He still thinks he can get you back by a little whining I would advise you to show him that he can't. Walk out on him, and stay out until he comes to his senses. If he doesn't come—you'll be so much further on the road to freedom. I want to tell you how much I admired the control, dignity and big womanliness of that letter Jerry is sending you her deep respect as well as her love.

A FRIEND IN NEED—No, I don't have to publish all the letters I receive. A great part of my work is done through a private reply, if that is what you wish If I can help you, write to me.

Geraldine

Letters of Tessie & Joe.

DEAR TESSIE—

If I don't sell my quota of Daisy Canned Soup at least it's not for any lack of good ideas. For instance, this afternoon I saw some ignorant bird standing on a corner trying to sell a crowd of even more ignorant birds some green stuff in bottles guaranteed to cure anything from dandruff to a broken heart.

Well, I got my idea in a flash, and I took him aside and put the proposition to him to let him have D. C. Soups by the case wholesale, the idea being for him to call any two men out of the crowd and feed them each a can of D. C. Soup and then give one of them a dose of green medicine and let the crowd see how much quicker he recovered than the one that didn't get any green medicine. Well, as I say, this bird was ignorant and didn't see the merit of the idea, but was that my fault? And still the boss keeps on writing me insulting letters.

In fact, it's got so that I can't even give the stuff away. I was walking along and I saw a poor old blind man sitting with his back against a wall and his hat out for money, and my sample case felt pretty heavy, so I thought I'd leave him a few cans of soup and thus perform an act of charity and an act of self-preservation at the same time. So I noiselessly put three cans in front of him and tiptoed away trying to feel as if I'd done a noble action instead of a dirty trick, and the first thing I knew something hard caught me in the middle of the back and something else whizzed past my ear. The so-called "blind" man was throwing my offerings at me! He was about as blind as I am, or else how could he tell what kind of soup it was? When you think of the amount of trickery going on in the world!

Ever, thine. JOE.

Once we knew a man who knew not one step or stutter in the art of dancing and yet he was called upon to perform a solo number before an audience of the high-browed and Dutch-cut The man succeeded beyond his wildest expectation and won an acclaim that rocked the very home brew in the cellars When we asked him how he did it he replied that he had held the thought that he was crossing a busy street at noon hour and that what we had taken for dance steps were his efforts to dodge imaginary automobiles. Without a dissenting voice we have elected him an honorary member of the U. L. of Diminishing Order of Pedestrians.

Uncle Wiggily Stories
By HOWARD R. GARIS

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE SLAPPIE APPIE.

"How much is one and one!"

"Curly! Curly! Where are you?" called Mrs. Twistytail, the pig lady, one morning when it was almost time for Curly and his brother Floppy to go to the hollow stump schol

"Here I am mother! What is it?" grunted Curly, making his queer, little rubbery nose bounce up and down like a circus balloon

"Oh, I thought you had gone." Mrs Twistytail said. "On your way to school, Curly, please stop and invite Uncle Wiggily to come to our house for supper. We are going to have corncob shortcake and sour milk ice cream and he likes both very much.

"I'll stop and invite him," promised Curly, and then he and his brother Floppy ran along to the hollow, stump school, where the lady mouse teacher was to hear their lessons

Uncle Wiggily, was just hopping out of his hollow stump bungalow as Curly and Floppy reached it. The bunny gentleman was leaning heavily on his red, white and blue striped crutch, for his rheumatism hurt him very much that day.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily!" cried Curly, running up and taking hold of the bunny gentleman's paw. "Mother invites you to our house for tea! We're going to have corncob cakes and sour milk ice cream!"

"Thank you I'll be sure to come, if my rheumatism doesn't get any worse," promised the bunny uncle.

Curly and Floppy felt happy as they ran on to school, for they liked to have Uncle Wiggily visit them, as he told them many Bedtime Stories. In fact, the little piggie boys were thinking so much about Mr Longears coming to see them that when in school, the lady mouse teacher asked.

"How much is one and one?"

Floppy answered.

"Sour milk ice cream and corncob shortcakes!"

All the animal children laughed, thinking there was going to be a party at the piggie house

At last school was out and Curly and Floppy ran home ahead of everybody else

"Is Uncle Wiggily here yet?" the piggie boys called to their mother, almost before they reached the front gate.

"No, he isn't here," Mrs Twistytail answered. "And I'm afraid something may have happened him in the woods on his way to our house. Suppose you boys go back along the path, and perhaps you may meet Uncle Wiggily and be able to help him The corncob shortcake isn't quite frozen and the sour milk ice cream is hardly ripe enough to take out of the oven."

"Oh, mother!" cried the piggie boys. "That's backward!"

"Yes, I know I'm all mixed up, being so excited like fearing something has happened to Uncle Wiggily," spoke the pig lady.

"We'll find him!" grunted Curly and Floppy as they scrambled along.

The piggie boys went all the way to Uncle Wiggily's hollow stump bungalow, looking here and there, on every side of the path for a sight of the bunny gentleman, but they did not see him.

"Yet he promised to come, and he always keeps his word," squealed Floppy.

Finally they reached the hollow stump where Mr. Longears lived with Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy. All was still and quiet about it, with no sign of the bunny. Then, all at once a groan sounded and a voice said:

"Oh, dear!"

"That's Uncle Wiggily, and he's in trouble!" whispered Floppy.

"We must go in and help him," said Curly. "Even if the bad Fox or Wolf is in there, nibbling his ears"

The piggie boys shivered but they were brave. Into the hollow stump they went, and when they reached it they saw a big Bob Cat standing in front of Uncle Wiggily.

"Now I'm going to nibble your ears!" the Bob Cat howled.

"No, you shall not! I'll hit you with the slappie apple!" suddenly cried Curly.

"Oh, piggie boys! How glad I am to see you!" said Uncle Wiggily. "I was just starting for your house to eat sour milk shortcake and corncob ice cream, when this bad chap came in and wouldn't let me go."

"I'll make him go—with the slappie appie!" cried Curly.

"There isn't such a thing in my bungalow," said Uncle Wiggily.

"Oh, yes there is!" cried the piggie boy. "I call the curtain stick the slappie apple because, when the wind blows it slaps and apps against the window. I'll take the slappie apple curtain stick, and hit the Bob Cat—"

"No, you won't! I'm not going to stay and let you slappie apple me!" howled the Bob Cat, and away he ran just as Curly took the stick out of the curtain.

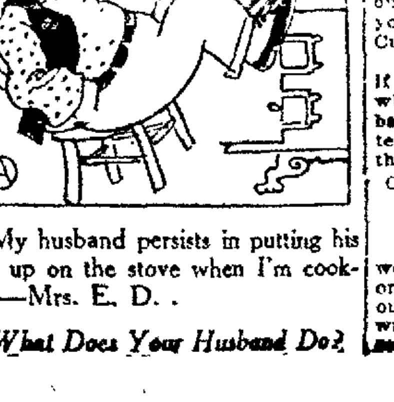

"Saved again!" laughed Uncle Wiggily, as he put on his hat and went out with the piggie boys. "I'm glad you thought of the slappie apple, Curly."

The piggie boy was glad too, and if the jumping jack doesn't take the wheels off the automobile to make a baby carriage for the rag doll, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily and the grindle windle.

New Pastor Has Faith in Future of Bay Region

REV. F. H. McMEEKIN, who was recently appointed pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church, College avenue and Sixty-first street. Rev. McMeekin comes from Fresno, and came there from New York.

Rev. F. H. McMeekin, who was recently made pastor of the United Presbyterian church, College avenue, near Sixty-first street, will preach tomorrow morning on the subject, "By Your Fruits Ye Shall Know Them." The sermon is arranged on a subject believed to be particularly appropiate to the observance of Children's day.

Rev. McMeekin came to Oakland only a month ago from Fresno where he has been preaching for some time since coming to California from New York. He has been greatly impressed with Oakland, he says, and intends staying here indefinitely.

Rev. McMeekin believes strongly in the idea that the church should be a community center for the solving of community problems. He stated: "The official board of the church is seriously considering ways and means of making our church more of a center for the community. We cannot build a gymnasium and community center as yet, but such a plan is being considered. In the meantime I shall bend every effort to provide services and activities within the church that will be interesting to every age within the community."

BIBLE STUDENTS.

Walter H. Rundy, lecturer of the International Bible Students of America, is to speak tomorrow night at Odd Fellows' hall, Eleventh and Franklin streets, at 8 o'clock. His subject will be "The Lost Coin." Special music has been provided. The public is invited.

SHABUOTH FEAST TO START IN ALL TEMPLES SUNDAY

The Feast of Weeks of Shabuoth, sacred to those who of the Jewish faith, will be observed in synagogues throughout the United States beginning with services this evening, and continuing throughout tomorrow and Monday morning.

Members of Beth Jacobs congregation will begin observance of the feast day this evening with services of prayer. Two services will be held tomorrow, one in the morning and one in the evening, and the final services will be held Monday morning. Rabbi Plopky will conduct the services.

OBSERVANCE IN TEMPLE.

The feast will be observed in the Temple Sinai tomorrow, by all who wish to attend. However, in the absence of a rabbi, no special observance will be held. The 1921 confirmation class will go to San Francisco to be confirmed in Temple Emanu El, Rabbi Martin A. Meyer, will officiate.

Originally Shabuoth was an agricultural festival in which the gathering of the spring wheat was used as an occasion for special services of thanksgiving. A later tradition associates this day with the revelation of God at Mt. Sinai, when the law was revealed to Moses.

The reform synagogue stresses this historical feature of the Feast of Weeks as a service of dedication of the Jew to the covenant imposed by his Jewish ancestry on him to be the teacher and exemplar of the law of love unto humanity.

PLEDGES ARE MADE.

By means of this symbolization and idealization of the festival, reform congregations have utilized it as the confirmation day wherein young women pledge themselves anew to continue the covenant made by their fathers. The day has further significance for the children for it marks the culmination of the instruction which they have received in the religious school, in the tenets of their faith and in the Bible and other Jewish history and literature.

Confirmation services are followed by a reception at the home of the confirmants or in the religious schools where friends and relatives join in exchanging greetings on the significant event.

"Supreme Mission" Is Morning Subject

Rev. J. A. Shoptaugh, pastor of Elmhurst Christian church, will speak at both services tomorrow. "Our Supreme Mission" is the subject of the morning address and in the evening he will use the theme "The Impossible Commandment." A call to life service will be extended in the morning devotional hour.

Preparations for the annual Daily Vacation Bible School, are under way, is announced. Final plans will be announced tomorrow.

The executive committee of the Organized Women held a meeting on Tuesday. Plans are being made for an indoor picnic in the near future. A method of reaching the forty women who have recently joined the church and have not yet become members of the society was discussed at the meeting. The next regular session of the organization will be held on Thursday afternoon and will take the nature of a "kitchen shower."

Pastor to Tell Hearers World Needs New Bible

REV. GEORGE C. PEARSON, pastor of the Twenty-fourth Avenue M. E. Church, believes, that H. G. Wells is correct when he states that the world should write a new Bible, which would embody portions of the old one, and bring it up to modern times and customs. He will preach a sermon tomorrow night on the subject "Writing the New Bible" in which he will point out what additions he believes should be made.

"Folded Wings," a vacation sermon, will be delivered at the morning service.

Churches Unite in Bible Schools
Courses to Be Given to Young

That the children of the community may have opportunity to pursue courses in Bible study in connection with supervised recreation and training in handcraft, is the aim of the Daily Vacation Bible Schools, which open Monday in churches throughout the United States. At least fifty such schools will open in the Eastbay section, the largest being those conducted by the First Baptist, Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational churches downtown, and Brooklyn Presbyterian in the East Oakland section.

In Berkeley the First Presbyterian church is to conduct such a school, and plans are being made for a school in the Northbrae Community church.

The Brooklyn Presbyterian and the Tenth Avenue Baptist churches will unite for their Bible school. The kindergarten department will meet at the Tenth Avenue Baptist church, and the Junior departments and classes in manual training will meet at Brooklyn. Alice Davis, social secretary at Brooklyn church, will be the principal of the school. Miss M. Ballard of the Baptist church will be her assistant. Mrs. F. Ferris will have charge of the Kindergarten. Miss Barbara Ryder will have charge of the junior department, Miss Grace Little the sewing department, Miss Marion Pyerity, basketry, Mrs. M. Lewis, music, and Miss Elizabeth McComb will be school secretary.

The boys' department will be directed by Benny Holmes of the Oakland Y. M. C. A., formerly captain of the football team at Technical high school. Manual training and athletics will be featured.

Election of yell leaders, song leaders, and a mayor and council to govern the school will be held after the school is fully organized.

Miss C. E. Cheney will have charge of the school to be opened in the First M. E. church Monday morning. With one or two exceptions the same course of study will be pursued, with four main departments. The First Presbyterian church will not open its school until Monday, June 30. Paul Holsinger, assistant pastor, will be in charge. Rev. F. M. Morrison, assistant pastor of the First Congregational church, will have charge of the Bible school which opens in the church Monday morning.

Trinity Episcopal will open its school Monday morning, as will the Elmhurst Presbyterian church and the Twenty-third Avenue Baptist church. Mrs. Norman F. Turner will have charge at the Twenty-third Avenue church. Her assistants will include Raymond Dowell, Miss Matilda Stewart and Mrs. Thomas Wilson. The First Baptist church will also open its school Monday morning with Rev. E. A. Fridell, assistant pastor of the church, in charge.

Pastor Returns After Several Months' Illness

After an illness of several months, Rev. Milton C. Lutz, pastor of the Church of United Brethren in Christ, has returned to his pastorate and will conduct services tomorrow. During his absence, the affairs of the church have been carried on by the official and lay members of the congregation, and according to Rev. Lutz, considerable growth in the financial and spiritual aims of the church has been made.

The general conference of United Brethren churches recently closed at Indianapolis, Indiana. Bishop Washinger was re-elected and will supervise the Pacific coast district and carry on the work of expansion, inaugurated last quadrennium.

"The Pen and the Diamond" will be the subject of the sermon by Rev. Lutz tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The evening sermon will be one of evangelism. The service begins at 7:30, immediately following the meeting of the three Endeavor societies of the church, which open at 6:30.

JUNE FESTIVAL OF CHURCH SHOWS FINANCIAL GAIN

The annual June festival, which has become an institution with the Union Street Presbyterian church, was held Thursday, and according to reports from the pastor, Rev. H. W. Tweedle, was a success, financially.

Booths representing the four seasons of the year were erected in the gymnasium in the rear of the church, and the entire room was converted into a bower of flowers and greenery, with flowers appropriate to the month of June, predominating. Refreshments and foodstuffs were sold by members of the Pastor's Aid society of the church.

A special program was given in the evening, consisting of a two-act drama, "Dr. Cure All," presented by the young people. In addition to the playlet, a short musical and literary program was given.

GLOOM, WORRY TO FORM BASIS OF PASTOR'S SERMON

"Clubbing the Juniper Tree," is the sermon subject upon which Rev. Frank M. Silsley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will preach tomorrow evening when he prescribes the best method of doing away with discouragement, gloom, worry and collapsed faith, of which the tree is symbolical. In announcing the sermon Dr. Silsley said:

"We are sometimes hard in our criticism of Elijah because he avoided the Juniper tree. As a matter of fact it would have been impossible for him to avoid it, just as it is impossible for us to do so at the present time. The problem that faces us is how to get out from under it, without losing our faith in life and in God?"

Dr. Silsley will answer the following questions: "Are more people under the Juniper tree today than ever before?" "How many people in middle life stop progressing because they are chilled by their experience under the Juniper tree?"

The Town Talk subjects include "What do you think of Secretary Denby's rebuke of Admiral Sims? and What do you think of Representative Galivan's attack on the Dempsey-Carpentier fight?"

The Temple choir quartet will render "Dear Lord, Remember Me," and at the Sacred concert Mrs. Charles I. Swift will play several classical selections on the organ.

The subject of the morning sermon is "Very Religious Californians." Miss Dorothy Hospitaller, violinist will play Bach-Gounod's "Ave Maria" in connection with the service.

Children's Day will be observed tomorrow at the Twenty-third avenue Baptist church, with an appropriate program, beginning at 7:45 in the evening. Special music by the church choir, and a literary and musical program, prepared by the children of the Sunday school, will form the main part of the service. Mrs. E. A. Colburn, Jr., is chairman of the committee in charge of the program.

Of particular interest to the girls and boys of the community is the announcement of the opening of a Daily Vacation Bible school, in the church, Monday morning, under the direction of Mrs. Norman F. Turner. Raymond Dowell will have charge of boys' work, Mrs. Thomas Wilson will direct the girls and Miss Matilda Stewart will have charge of the kindergarten. Mrs. Turner will conduct the classes in Bible study. The course of study will include sewing, manual training, basketry, drawing, games, stories, songs and recreation. The school is strictly interdenominational and is free to all children in the community.

At 11 o'clock tomorrow morning Rev. Garst will speak on the theme "As the Waters Cover the Seas." Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m., senior B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m. and intermediate B. Y. P. U. at 6:45. "Helping Solve Difficulties About Christ" will be the subject for discussion in both services.

The annual meeting of the Wendte Chapter of the Laymen's League will be held in the parlors of the First Unitarian church Monday evening at 6:30 p. m. A dinner will be served. Reports of the year's work of the officers and committees will be given, and the annual election will take place.

As entertainment the committee has provided two reels of pictures of the Caribou Hydro-Electric Development of the Great Western Power Company, which has recently been put into operation. Explanatory notes will be given by one of the engineers who was engaged in the work.

The Adult Class is fortunate in being able to secure Professor S. H. Coleman to deliver a series of addresses on great modern civic problems. His subject tomorrow at 10 a. m. will be "Animal Experimentation as a Basis for Scientific and Preventive Medicine."

The book reviews announced by Rev. Clarence Reed for the Sundays of June at 11 a. m. on modern books with great messages are attracting much interest. His subject tomorrow will be the book of Robert Lansing on "The Peace Negotiations." The purpose in discussing this book is not to treat of the differences that arose between President Wilson and Secretary Lansing, but to discover ways and means to secure world peace and establish a federation of the nations of the world.

Victorious Life Conferences Are to Be Concluded

From spreading the gospel of Jesus Christ through the medium of a magazine, to preaching from the pulpit, is not a far cry, according to REV. ROBERT McQUILKIN, former magazine editor, who is conducting a Victorious Life Conference at Pioneer Memorial church this week.

The last session of the Victorious Life Conference, which has been going on each afternoon and evening in Pioneer Memorial church since Tuesday, will be held tomorrow night in the church. The conferences, which have been held in several cities of the state during the spring months, are interdenominational gatherings, especially for Christians. The purpose is to show that a Christian life on the level of the New Testament standard is a possibility in twentieth century America.

The conference is in charge of Rev. Robert C. McQuilkin, formerly associate editor of the Sunday school Times, and Rev. A. J. Ramsey of Pasadena. Both men are Bible students, and take turns in conducting the departmental conferences which feature the afternoon services.

Rev. Ramsey has been conducting a special course in Bible instruction, showing what the Bible says concerning the relation of Christianity and sin. Rev. McQuilkin has made a specialty of applying Bible teachings to everyday experience.

The Victorious Life conferences were first held at Princeton University and took the nature of summer vacation and Bible study. The movement spread until today a general conference board arranges the itinerary of the various speakers, who make regular tours throughout the summer months.

Music will be furnished by the Snow orchestra, from the Y. M. C. A. Miss Vida Smith is in charge.

'Failures Among Men' to Be Pastor's Topic

Rev. Harold Govette, pastor of Olivet Congregational church, will preach tomorrow morning on the subject "The Man Foursquare." In dealing with this subject he will speak of the many failures among men, will tell how we are physically and mentally perfect, and the relatively small number who are socially and morally perfect. He will endeavor to point out what it takes to develop the fourfold nature of man, and that it is the duty of each individual to try to be 100 per cent perfect.

Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock the pastor will preach on "The Proclamation of Jesus," in which he will give what he believes to be the rules which Christ laid down to church and preacher in order to accomplish the salvation and uplift of humanity.

Constant development of all departments of the church has been recorded during the past three months, according to Rev. Govette. Over 300 members and friends were present at the Children's Day service, last Sunday.

In order that there may be no "slump" in membership in the Sunday school during the summer, it has been decided to enter The TRIBUNE'S anti-summer slump contest.

ELMHURST PRESBYTERIAN.

Children's Day will be observed in the Elmhurst Presbyterian Church tomorrow morning, and tomorrow evening the pastor, Rev. F. E. Bancroft, will preach a sermon from the subject "Dealing With Our Doubts."

Captain William I. Day will speak at the regular meeting of the Men's League Monday evening at 8 o'clock on the subject, "The Salvation of Human Wreckage." The Daily Vacation Bible school will open in the church on Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

FREEHOLDERS HAVE MADE THE ISSUE OF COUNTY DIVISION.

The Board of Freeholders of Alameda county, elected to frame and submit a charter of consolidated city and county government, have instead made the issue of county division a live and vital question for the citizens of Alameda county. In formal session Thursday evening, the freeholders voted to submit the proposition of city-county government in the alternative.

This is giving official support and an official instrument to the plotters of county division. With the alternative on the ballot, after Berkeley and Alameda reject the original proposition of county-wide consolidation, which it is conceded will be the result, the alternative becomes a project to create a separate city and county of Oakland. This is county division on a major scale. It will mean at least a separate city and county of Oakland, a separate city and county of Berkeley, and a separate city and county of Alameda.

The freeholders tried to pass to others the responsibility for submitting the alternative. They declared "twenty-three civic organizations within the county have expressed themselves as favoring" the alternative. That is true. But only four of these organizations heard both sides of the question discussed. The other nineteen organizations in the main adopted pro forma resolutions which had been drafted by the agitators of county division. And against the four organizations that favored the alternative after hearing both sides presented, nineteen other organizations, after hearing both sides, went on record either against the alternative or as refusing to accede to the freeholders' request for endorsement.

Thus for the public sentiment "favoring" the alternative. There is another curious circumstance. The Merchants' Exchange of Oakland is the pioneer organization of Alameda county in promoting the idea of county-wide consolidation. It refused to endorse the alternative scheme after it had by examination discovered that it certainly involves major division of the county. A few days ago it invited the Alameda Chamber of Commerce and the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce each to name a committee to form a conference of business men to study the question of the alternative.

But the freeholders, apparently fearing the result of such extension of the search for the truth, declined to await the proceedings of this conference of business men and civic leaders who had pioneered the field of real county consolidation.

Whatever the future may hold, whether it be good or bad, it must be realized now that the freeholders cannot pass the "buck" of responsibility for submitting the alternative. The responsibility belongs to them exclusively and they must be ready to pay the debt an enlightened public opinion ultimately will exact of them.

THE TRIBUNE is content to await the future verdict. It has tried earnestly to prevent this sword of division of the county from being drawn. Expensive elections will now result; but self-seeking, outside agencies cannot be permitted to destroy the consanguinity of the prosperous communities on the continental side of the bay.

HOME BREWING.

President Wylie M. Giffin of the California Raisin Association told a committee of Congress that the "hobby" of making home brew was on the decrease. However, since the hobby first manifested itself some 16,000 tons of raisins have been consumed by the home brewers. Just how many home breweries exist in the country is impossible to calculate at this time, but it is interesting to note that a government official stated a few days ago that over 250,000 such establishments existed in the single commonwealth of Ohio. On the basis of these figures, there must be several million home brewing plants in the nation.

But Mr. Giffin probably is correct in his assertion that the industry is declining somewhat. A very large proportion of the homestead breweries were started out of a spirit of revolt. There were many thousands of citizens who rebelled against the idea that they could not have a beverage in their home just because of a national prohibition law. They resolved to "show 'em," although perhaps many had never been habitual beer or wine drinkers. There was a certain thrill in doing something that was forbidden, a call to the spirit of daring and defiance.

Naturally this disposition is passing. The home brewers have discovered that more risk and trouble attaches to the pastime than justified by the results. Again, the concoction produced is not as palatable as that which was formerly available. Some of the home distilling plants, in fact most of them, are poison factories. The process that some of these amateur brewers and distillers think is fermentation is actually decomposition. In the rottening mess are poisons that would prove fatal to rattlesnakes.

Deaths, blindness, paralysis and nervous disorders have followed in the wake of the imbibers of home brews and distillations. Distilling and brewing is a scientific process, developed to approximate perfection after centuries of experience. It must be surrounded by numerous precautions to eliminate the poisonous ethers and oils that are generated in the process. Home equipment is not trustworthy. And Mr. Giffin may confidently expect further decrease in the consumption of raisins for home brewing.

IF MR. BORAH IS RIGHT?

"The things which have been revealed touching the diplomatic history of Germany, England, France, Italy, Russia and Austria from the Moroccan affair to the fateful days of August, 1914, have no parallel for deceit, treachery, and deliberate falsehood. It is the most shameless story in the whole history of the human race and it brought on the war. And they are now back to the same system, the same practice, the same code."

The above is from a statement by Senator William E. Borah, in the United States Senate, printed in the Congressional Record. Mr. Borah is the great dissenter of the Senate. He has two or three close competitors, but no one is really his peer. He has reduced his official duties down to a simple program of filibustering and obstruction. He dedicates himself to the defeat of most of the important projects suggested in the national interests. Mr. Borah's latest effort was against the naval appropriation act. He forced the elimination of the item for the Alameda naval base and opposed several other important projects.

Now, the situation is not quite as bad as Mr Borah describes it. Many of the old tactics, much of the old motivization, are apparent in European diplomacy and statesmanship. The European governments find that some of the old terms and formulae of conduct cannot be eliminated at once. But there is some improvement. The atmosphere is just a little bit clearer. One of the systems of intrigue and aggrandizement has been subdued—the German.

But for the sake of argument, let every word contained in the above quotation be considered as absolutely true. Let it be said that for once Mr. Borah is correct, to the last comma.

Then what should follow? A complete disarmament in America, unmindful of what Europe and Asia is doing! A scrapping of our naval defenses! A return to the policy of Chinafication, which the late Theodore Roosevelt protested against so vigorously!

Surely none of these things. If Senator Borah speaks the truth, he has uttered the strongest argument possible against his proposals for unpreparedness.

The statement that the late General Horace Porter was the last of the staff of General U. S. Grant has been corrected by a reminder that Robert T. Lincoln survives. This, in addition to being a reminder, is informing, for it had been largely forgotten that he occupied such historic relation. And it is apt to be a surprise to many that he is still in the land of the living. The personages who performed prominently in the stirring events of the civil war have so largely passed on that it is likely to have been taken for granted that the son of the Emancipator had gone to his reward.

AT THE KREMLIN IN MOSCOW.

It argues a sense of the propriety in things that those in charge of the third congress of the Third Internationale, about to convene in the Kremlin at Moscow, have carefully refrained from preliminary parades, demonstrations of pomp, and gorgeous ceremony. The two preceding congresses, we are informed in a Riga despatch, were the occasion for "great proletarian rejoicing", and this presumably means the blare of bands and the unloosening of the tongues of orators. But this year conditions have changed, and the political atmosphere is charged with electricity which it knew not a year or two ago. The Moscow streets boast no gay bunting; special theatrical performances for the visiting delegates are few and far between; and sobriety and gloom have replaced carefree exuberance of spirit. 'The general state of Soviet Russia,' mournfully points out the Moscow Izvestia, "is very unsatisfactory for the organization of pompous ceremonies."

And the delegates at the Kremlin have a right to be gloomy as they survey the disaster which has befallen the propaganda of the Internationale beyond Russian borders. In France, Italy and England, its propagandists have failed miserably, and in none of these three countries are the Communists more than a mere handful, fighting against well-nigh hopeless odds. In the United States they have fared little better, despite our tolerance towards all political creeds. Even in Austria, Hungary and Germany, where general conditions are more favorable, Communist propaganda has failed to cause the people to rise against their capitalistic "masters." On the debit side of the ledger the Kremlin delegates must put the sabotage of Russia's industries, the virtual wiping out of its intelligentsia—thinkers, teachers, scientists—the omnipresent specter of starvation, and the total collapse of foreign credit. On the credit side of the ledger, nothing, not even the world's good will.

We can hardly expect that the Third Internationale, as it gathers for the third time, will be ready to confess its handiwork a failure, and brand its own doctrines as palpably false. Such a confession may require many months more, but the members of the Third Internationale can neither explain away, nor disguise from themselves, the fact of Bolshevism's failure, which stares them in the face. They may see the evidence on all sides, and the mass of this evidence is accumulating at a rate truly astonishing.—Boston Transcript.

NOTES and COMMENT

Admiral Sims is a picturesque old seadog, but it must be admitted that he is rather unduly given to talking. There are quite a number of things that may not be gainsaid, but which do not need to be uttered, especially by those bearing official responsibilities. Discreetness in official life outranks hardheadedness.

The announcement is made that George Cohan is to quit theatrics. That it is a considerable quitting is gathered from the statement that he had arranged to engage 1000 actors and actresses for fourteen productions, soon to be put into rehearsal. The closed shop as to theater enterprises is given as the reason for his retiracy from a sphere of activity in which he has been such a live one.

How many were aware that there is a College of Chiropody? Being a college, of course there is an alumni, and that it entertained the newly-graduated class in a San Francisco cafe last Thursday night is a bit of the news that was current during the week. It may be contended that such a function is reminiscent of the celebrated appendix celebration, but it is a fact that when our corns need to be treated it is better to have it done scientifically than in a haphazard way.

The Stockton Record notes the decline of superstition. "Have you noticed that young people these days snap their fingers in the face of superstition and are married on Saturday as often as others are on Wednesdays? Wait a minute. It is not meant that they marry more than once on Saturday or on Wednes, but just that more of them are not afraid to wed on the day which superstition used to say had 'no luck at all.'"

At least one personage is not likely to be interested in Colonel Harvey's explanation of the cause of this country entering the war. That the United States took a hand at all, for any reason whatever, must be sufficiently disgusting to the one-time kaiser, without contemplating any particular reason.

The German envoy apologizes for the recent attack upon the French forces in Silesia. This isn't an Alphonse-and-Gaston amenity, but it comes nearer it than anything that has happened for more than fifty years. Such an apology from such a quarter evinces the new European attitude more strikingly than any other action that can be readily thought of.

A Boston physician has declared that the well-known American habit of hustle is putting its mark on American kids. And this mark, he avers, is more noticeable in the young of the rich than in the young of the poor. He doesn't say anything about high heels, double-reefed skirts, low necks and other such vagaries of modern dress more or less indulged in by mothers. It might be more informing if he was more specific.

A reverberation of the Boston policemen's strike is the refusal of the present Governor to take action looking to the reinstatement of those who went out on that famous occasion, which disclosed an Americanism that still resounds, and evolved a personality which was once transmuted to the vice-presidency.

It is cabled that Bergdoll is about to take a wife. This is an interesting variant of the customary news concerning the notorious slacker. He has performed unusually ever since he escaped to Germany to sidestep the consequences of eluding his duty as an American citizen. Perhaps he has now decided to take on a real worry.

As it is impossible to get on well with such a near neighbor as Mexico without a specific amicable arrangement, modifications are being made to the terms by which this government will recognize the regime of Obregon. It is somewhat belated, but it is well.

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS

All liquor restrictions have been lifted for thirty days at Pueblo, Colorado. This is upon the authority of the Federal Prohibition Commissioner in Washington, who issued the order as an emergency measure so that liquor might be used in combatting the possible spread of disease. Once again is prohibition shown to be an unnatural measure.—Sacramento Bee.

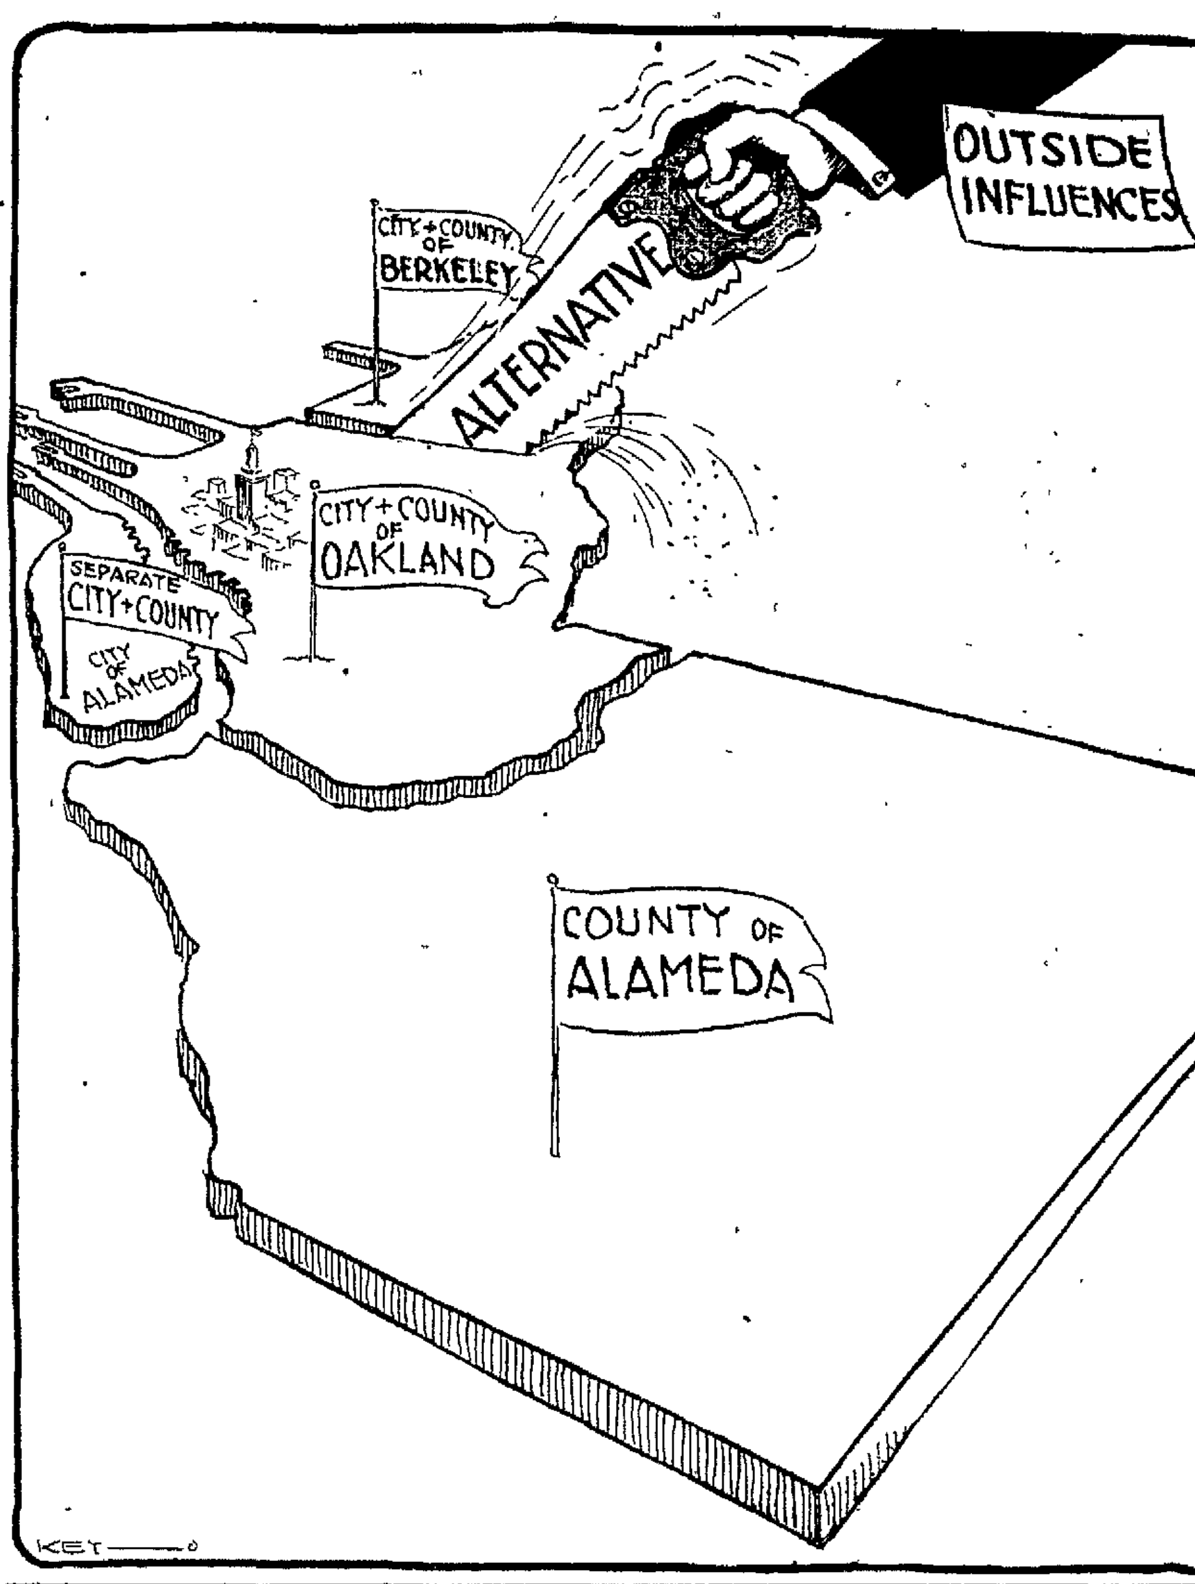

Mare Island officials have submitted estimates to re-gun a number of battleships and cruisers of the Pacific armada. The fact that such an excellent showing was made in the installation of the 14-inch rifles in the turrets of the battleship California is one of the reasons why the yard officers are seeking the job of installing new guns on the other dreadnaughts.—Vallejo News.

The United States is waging one of the longest bloodless wars in all history. Remember that this country has been at war ever since November 11, 1918, and yet has not fired a hostile gun since that date.—Long Beach Press.

San Francisco having decided, all by itself, to bridge the bay, there remains only to be accomplished the matter of raising the money and building the bridge. — Redding Searchlight.

They will not, as a rule, be printed unless accompanied by the name of the writer, which, if desired, will be withheld from publication.

To the Editor of The Tribune:

It occurs to me that as I gaze into the past for fifty-five years, remembering that the limits of Oakland was Twelfth street, at the corner of Broadway, and having watched the growth of that beautiful city since that time, that the relations between Oakland and the back country, which includes Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Danville and Concord, and all of the surrounding country, has never been as close as it should.

We of the back country have been forced to accept Oakland as our metropolis because natural conditions have been such we have had no other recourse and I think I make a generally truthful and popular statement when I say that we are glad it is so.

The fact remains, just the same, that reciprocal conditions between the two sections have never been as close as they should be.

It appears to me that Oakland has accepted the fact that this beautiful and fertile country, lying at her back door and hidden from view by the intervening range of hills, is a forced part of her economic life and let it go at that.

It is my personal experience, in my frequent visits to your beautiful city, that there is a very large percentage of the people of Oakland that do not even know of the beautiful suburb lying at your back door and waiting to furnish homes to the over-crowded population of your fast growing city.

Individually, as a native of the city of Oakland, as a resident of long standing of the country back of you, as the secretary of one of the most flourishing farm centers in the county, I think I can voice a popular desire of the people of this section in asking Oakland as a city to wake up to the fact that we are alive and ready to meet you half way in forming closer relations.

While we are in such a position geographically that we are bound to be in the closest touch with Oakland, there are thousands in Oakland that have never heard of the Walnut Creek country and we feel that we would find it to our mutual advantage if the Oakland Chamber of Commerce and the business men of the city would make extra efforts to bring the two places in closer touch.

So few realize the possibilities of the back country, with our wonderful orchards, our vast possibilities in producing the vegetable foods for the city of Oakland, only 45 minutes from the center of your city, we could put our products fresh before the consumer.

We have got the land, the water, the climate, the roads for quick transportation, now we want the people to develop and produce and every individual that can be induced to come into our beautiful valley and settle here is only an added population to the suburb of Oakland.

We want the help and support of your city in realizing that destiny, and in giving us that support you would only be promoting one of those many features that is leading Oakland to the first place among the great commercial cities of the United States.

"Water on the brain" is a term used to describe what the doctors call "hydrocephalus."

In this disease, as the name indicates, there is an accumulation of fluid within the cavities of the brain, or else the brain is practically afloat in fluid lying between it and the bony skull.

The fluid is not the cause of the disease, it is the result. It is not unlike dropsy in this respect.

There are several forms of hydrocephalus. The first is called "serious meningitis." That is, it is an inflammation of the coverings of the brain with a watery exudate. It resembles pleurisy where an exudate forms.

Hydrocephalus attacks adults and children. It is so much like tubercular inflammation of the brain covering that it is easily mistaken for it. However, there is no fever.

The head is drawn backward, and there are complaints of headache and discomfort. Sometimes the patient is delirious.

Some babies are born with hydrocephalus. There are cases on record where the skull has contained several quarts of fluid. After birth the head continues to enlarge, and may reach enormous proportions. The face continues of normal size, so the contrast between face and skull is very marked. Sometimes there are convulsions, blindness and feebleness of body. Such cases are not favorable as to outlook.

When hydrocephalus is acquired by a grown person it is usually due to a tumor of the brain. This growth is low down and interferes with the escape of the brain fluids. It acts as a sort of dam, holding back the secretions.

Coming on late in life, when the bones of the skull have become thick and hard, there is usually little enlargement of the head. But, of course, the accumulated fluid presses on the soft and vital parts, producing serious effects.

There are headache and gradual failure of sight. The patient staggers on attempting to walk. Unconsciousness for weeks is not uncommon.

Fortunately, hydrocephalus is not frequently met. It has such unhappy effects that it is well it is not often. Blindness, deafness and loss of locomotion cut off the victim from communicating with his friends.

Various operations have been recommended and practiced. The skull has been opened and the fluid drained out in this way. The spinal canal has been punctured and drained.

The serious form of the disease may disappear in the course of several weeks or a few months. It responds very well to treatment, and the outlook is good.

RESIGNATIONS NOT TO HALT MEETING ON ALTERNATIVE

Places of Oakland Men Who Were Induced to Quit Will Be Filled.

As a result of the efforts of proponents of the alternative plan, nine men on the committee of twenty, which is to meet Tuesday night with similar committees from Berkeley and Alameda, have resigned their places. It was announced today, that while the efforts to induce the men to resign had been going on for four days, that eleven, a majority on the committee, had refused and that the committee would be filled to full strength.

President I. H. Spiro of the Merchants' Exchange, who appointed the committee, said today that the others would be named at once and that the meeting would be called on Tuesday evening at the Exchange instead of on Wednesday as originally set. The names of the men who have agreed to serve on the committee and who, with the nine to be named, will form Oakland's committee of twenty, are: J. C. Downey, W. Jurgens, Max Horwinski, A. Schleuter, George Roos, Joseph King, Harmon Bell, W. H. Whitthorne, L. B. Magoon, J. Lesser and W. N. Friend.

The Alameda and Berkeley committees have been named by the chamber of commerce of those cities, who have forwarded letters to the Merchants' Exchange, expressing the belief that some valuable results may come from such a discussion. In a letter received today by President Spiro, Harmon Bell says:

"I expect to be present and I regard the action of the Merchants' Exchange as most important in getting together a joint committee for the three cities to try and bring about the wisest solution of the question of city and county government."

FOREIGNERS FLEE GANG THREATS IN MINING DISTRICT

PRINCETON, Ind., June 11.—More than a hundred foreigners, employed in the coal fields of Gibson and Pike counties, in the southwestern part of the State, were forced to leave by a crowd of alleged miner vigilantes last night and early today.

There was no bloodshed, so far as was learned. Francisco, eight miles east of Princeton, was the scene of most of the moving.

The action is said to have followed the importation of foreigners from Southern Illinois and other places to work in the mines.

One hundred foreigners employed in building a railroad from the George A. Enos Coal company strip mines, north of Oakland City, to the southern railroad station, at that place, also are leaving. Thirty automobile loads of vigilantes visited the region and this morning the railroad station at Oakland City was crowded, the foreigners scattering in all directions.

Berkeley High Girls Aid Italian Orphan

BERKELEY, June 11. — Needy children at home and orphans abroad have not been forgotten by the Girls' Association of Berkeley High school, according to a report of the year's activities.

A donation of $50 for the education of an Italian war orphan has been voted by the girls. For the kiddies at home, the students gave $50 for materials, for layettes for needy families, while actual work in caring for charges at the Day nursery has also been accomplished.

Under a plan, approved by Principal C. L. Biedenbach, two girls are excused from the school every day to assist the matron at the Day Nursery in caring for the children.

Dr. Rastall to Talk At Berkeley Meeting

BERKELEY, June 11.—Dr. B. M. Rastall, authority on municipal problems and chamber of commerce activities, will be the principal speaker at a mass meeting, to be held at the high school auditorium on Monday evening, June 20.

Dr. Rastall, who is a man of national distinction in his particular work, was brought to California by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce to make a survey of the bay region.

The matter of securing an adequate water supply for Berkeley will be briefly presented by Professor Charles Derleth, of the engineering faculty of the University of California. Berkeley Boy Scouts will act as ushers.

BERKELEY, June 11.—William Steffen, 1615 Arch street, reported to the police that cherry trees on land owned by him, in the 2500 block on Piedmont avenue, were broken and stripped of their fruit. Patrolman Henry Hoar warned young residents of the neighborhood to keep away from the trees.

B. Stewart, 1625 Francisco street, reported young trees in his yard were pulled up.

YOUTH GUILTY OF MURDER.

ROSEBERG, Ore., June 11.—Verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree was returned by a jury late last night against Floyd Romaine, aged 18, tried on a charge of murdering Abe Givens, a homesteader, near Peele, Ore. The jury recommended life imprisonment. Sentence will be imposed Tuesday.

Three Teachers in Longfellow School Announce Engagements

MISS THERESA HANSEN (upper) of Oakland, and MISS ELINOR BERTOLA of Alameda, teachers at the Longfellow school in Berkeley, who are to celebrate their weddings on June 26 and July 6, respectively. Three teachers left the Longfellow school this year to be married. Announcement of the engagements were made simultaneously.

Vacation Weddings Promise Vacancies in Staff, Principal Is Told.

BERKELEY, June 11.—Following are the engagements in the teaching staff of the Longfellow school made known to Miss Annie Woodall, principal:

Miss Elinor Bertola of Alameda to Emile Camozzi of San Francisco.

Miss Katherine Huseman of Berkeley to Edward J. Mitchell of Fresno.

Miss Huseman will be married June 26 at the residence of relatives in Santa Barbara, following which a home will be established in Fresno, where Mitchell is in business. Mitchell is the son of Mrs. George Mitchell, 1829 Hearst avenue, Berkeley, and is a brother of Mrs. Walter N. Hanson, formerly Miss Jessie Mitchell, who was married last week. He was wounded in France in active service with Company F, 56th Infantry.

Miss Bertola's wedding is scheduled for July 6 at the Bertola home on Ninth street, Alameda. Miss Bertola is the niece of Dr. Mariana Bertola, clubwoman of San Francisco. Following her marriage Miss Bertola will make her home in San Francisco, where Camozzi is in business.

No definite plans have been made for her wedding as yet by Miss Hansen, whose home is at 1829 Ninth avenue, Oakland. Kuhn is engaged in business in San Francisco.

COUPLE ELOPE WHILE PARENTS OUT OF TOWN

While the mother of the bride entertained at a card party at the Sequoyah Country club and the father of the bridegroom was in Los Angeles, Miss Ruth Abbott and Eugene C. Ebey were quietly married by Judge Harry W. Pulcifer at the court house late yesterday afternoon.

Today they are on their way on a short wedding trip.

Mrs. Ebey is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Granville D. Abbott of Piedmont, and has occupied a place in the younger social set since her graduation from Miss Ransom's school two years ago.

Ebey is treasurer of the Fulton playhouse and is the son of its manager, George Ebey, who is at present away to Los Angeles on business connected with the management of the theater. In taking out the marriage license, Mrs. Ebey gave her age as 20 and Ebey his as 22.

The marriage followed an unannounced engagement and came as a surprise even to the mother of the bride.

BAPTISTS FAVOR GUILD FOR BOYS

A missionary educational organization for boys corresponding to the world-wide guild for girls, to care for boys after they leave the Children's World's Crusade, is asked of the general board of promotion of the Woman's American Foreign Mission society, in a resolution passed at the closing session of the golden jubilee convention of the South Pacific district, just closed at the First Baptist church. The resolution suggests the name, "Judson Legion of the World," for the proposed organization.

Other resolutions passed include a vote of thanks to the First Baptist church for its hospitality to the delegates; to all the churches in the community; to the local committee of arrangements for the meeting; to the press of Oakland and San Francisco; to the church choir; to Dr. C. M. Hill and the trustees of the Berkeley Baptist Divinity school, and the women and girls of the Eastbay region, who helped in the entertainment of the guests.

It was also resolved to extend to Mrs. John R. Scott, convention chairman, thanks for the guest book to be placed in the new building of the organization in Chenta, China; to express thanks to Mrs. B. C. Davies, the jubilee president and her cabinet; to express sorrow at the retirement of Mrs. Scott from the presidency, as also the retirement of the vice-president, Mrs. T. S. Tompkins, and gratitude to the Woman's American Baptist Foreign Mission society for the privilege of having the attendance of the national president, Mrs. William A. Montgomery, and the national recording secretary, Mrs. T. E. Adams. Thanks was also expressed to the representatives of the Baptist Missionary society from Europe and the Orient who attended the meeting.

STEPHENS BEGINS FENCE REPAIRING FOR RE-ELECTION

Opponents Start Quiet Search for Candidate to Lead Ticket.

With Governor William D. Stephens off on a fence-building trip in the south, plans out for a call for a conference of his opponents, and a regular revival of a story that he has not yet made up his mind to run for re-election, state politics at Sacramento remain uncertain, mixed and apprehensive. As highlights are the frantic endeavors of the south to dig up a presentable candidate and the scramble in capitol jobs that is to come with reorganization.

It is said that Governor Stephens is going south to build up his fences and that unless he uses reapportionment timber and gets away with it in an extra session, that he will find the task difficult. Upon the developments during the trip and following depends the decision which the governor is said to be debating if he will be a candidate.

STEPHENS' OPPONENTS BUSY.

The opposition to the Stephens campaign has sent out the quiet call for a conference and one will be held within a short time. It will bring together some men ordinarily in separate camps and the effort will be to work out an agreement. As to a possible candidate, all that can be said now is that efforts to find one in the south have so far met with no success. There was talk that the name of John L. McNab had been suggested and the denials came quick. Nevertheless the name was put up to Al McCabe and Ray Benjamin in all seriousness and it did cause some worriment.

Either two or all three members of the civil service commission are due to lose their $3600 jobs within the few days before the first of July. The reorganization plan supplants the three with one official who will draw $4000, but whether or not he will be named from the present board is not known. It is hinted, however, that David J. Reese, board member, is the man slated for the place. Other members are: Nova J. Beal of Sacramento and J. C. Whitman of Sacramento.

CHANGES IN JOBS.

The reorganization will also mean that Purchasing Agent W. J. McMillan and W. S. Conger, superintendent of building and grounds, will lost their places.

Jonathan Dodge, newly named state superintendent of banking to succeed Charles Stern of Berkeley, was approached by a southern delegation who wished him to run for governor, but Dodge would not listen. His home is in Los Angeles where he has been chairman of the board of supervisors. Another man who has been suspected of gubernatorial ambitions, Speaker Henry W. Wright of Los Angeles, has been placed on the supervisorial board and is held not to be a possibility this time. Wright probably would not run against Stephens in any event. Stockton has a candidate in Charles Neumiller.

Waiter Arrested On Complaint of Girl

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—Chris Babibo, a waiter, is in the city prison following an alleged attempt to assault Miss Irene Tracy, 22, in his room at a hotel at 638 Kearny street. Miss Tracy is a daughter of Mrs. M. Tracy, keeper of the hotel, and Babico occupies a room at the hotel. According to the woman's story to the police, Babico sent for some linen, and when Miss Tracy brought it he attempted to keep her in his room.

Her cries for help brought her mother and they finally escaped from the room, locking Babico within until police arrived and placed him under arrest.

CHAUFFEUR ARRESTED.

BERKELEY, June 11.—Patrolman Frank Waterbury arrested Daniel Moriarity, chauffeur of 257 Collingwood street, San Francisco, for speeding yesterday on Grove street between Dwight and Allston way. Waterbury declared that Moriarity paid no attention to his warnings to slow down. The latter was given a five-day notice to appear in court.

Fuse Blow-out Starts Panic On S. P. Dinky Car

ALAMEDA, June 11.—Southern Pacific Dinky Car No. 806 went on a rampage at Encinal avenue and High street yesterday afternoon and it required the services of the fire department to bring the car to normalcy after it had thrown a panic into a dozen passengers and residents of the neighborhood.

The trouble started when the car short-circuited itself and burned out the fuses and set fire to the breaker box. The noise that accompanied the shorting and the electrical display proved too much for the passengers and immediately there followed a wild scramble for the doors.

As the car was on fire some one sent in an alarm and Engine No. 5 responded. After squirting a quart of extinguisher upon the blaze it was put out and the car enabled, through the use of its auxiliary, to proceed to the barn.

SPACE PURCHASED AT BERKELEY FAIR

BERKELEY, June 11.—That businessmen of Berkeley are taking an active interest in the coming Merchants and Manufacturers' Fair to be held in August is evidenced at the Chamber of Commerce headquarters by the large number of space reservations now being made.

Anthony A. Tremp manager of the fair, reports the following list of those who have made definite reservations, while others have spoken tentatively for space in the big tent to be erected.

Chlorax Co., California Toy Co., Pex, Real Estate Exchange, Wheeler Mfg. Co., Joseph McKeown, Red Cross, Auto Dealer, Standard Art Glass, Jacuzzi Bros., Sanitary Sink Co., McCullagh Photographs, Berkeley Tile Co., Coal Dealers' Association, Golden State Music Co., Lady Beth Waist Co., Marshall Steel, White Music Co., George Stoddard, Grocers, Baking Co., Roy Long, Sunset Hardware, The Courier, Walter Mork, Golden Sheaf Bakery, H. GRASS PLOT BURNS.

ALAMEDA, June 11.—The fire department was called out to extinguish a fire in the yard of E. N. Clintsman, city deputy auditor, at 1193 Park avenue. The fire was confined to a grass plot. The damage was nominal.

WASHINGTON NOTES

WASHINGTON, June 11. — The resolution of Senator Harrison, Democrat of Mississippi, providing for consideration of all treaties, nominations and other "executive business" by the Senate in open executive session, was ordered unfavorably reported today by the Senate rules committee. Rejection of the Harrison resolution by the Senate is expected.

A bill to postpone the increases in second class postage due to go into effect on July 1, was introduced in the House today by Representative Longworth, Ohio. The increases range from one-fourth of a cent per pound for the first zone to half a cent for the seventh. Under the present law, after July 1, the rate for the first zone will be two cents a pound.

Purchase by the government of the Cape Cod canal for $11,500,000 has been recommended to Congress by Secretary Weeks.

"High prices of footwear which obtained during 1918 and were increased in 1919 resulted from abnormal conditions of supply and demand both economical and psychological, arising from the war," the federal trade commission today reported to the House. The report was submitted in response to a resolution.

"Incident to these conditions," the report said, "were large margins of profit taken by tanners, shoe manufacturers, wholesalers, jobbers and retailers," whose large earnings were declared to be "out of all proportion to the increase in their cost per unit."

The amendment to the immigration restriction law, allowing the entrance, despite the prohibition of the law, of all aliens who sailed from foreign ports on or before June 8, was approved by the house immigration committee today. The rush to beat the enactment of the law exhausted the June quota of immigrants. An amendment to the amendment provides that the excess to be granted admission during June shall not be deducted from the July quota but from those of later months.

Service for Student Stricken On Steamer

BERKELEY, June 11.—Funeral services will be held at 1:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, for Edward Stephen Rees, sophomore student at the University of California, and son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Rees, 1705 La Loma avenue.

Rees was taken ill with what is believed to have been ptomaine poisoning shortly after the steamer, on which he and a group of college friends, were working, left Honolulu. His death occurred on Thursday night at the United States Marine hospital in San Francisco.

Rees had just completed his sophomore year at the university and was returning to take up his work at the summer session. He is well known in Berkeley, his father being superintendent of the El Dorado Oil works of this city.

Dr. Harold E. B. Speight of the First Unitarian church will conduct the funeral on Monday at the Oakland crematorium.

Husband, Son Safe, Mrs. Saylor Is Told

BERKELEY, June 11.—A telegram coming this morning from her brother-in-law, H. N. Saylor of St. Louis, apprised Mrs. Anna L. Saylor, Berkeley assemblywoman, of the safety of her husband, Frank L. Saylor, and son, Robert, yell leader at the University of California.

"Frank is safe, will be in Boonville tomorrow," wired Saylor from St. Louis. On account of the flood conditions Saylor evidently found it impossible to send a message direct to his wife and relayed the news of his safety through his brother.

Saylor and his son were heading for the flood region near Pueblo by automobile when wires went down and fears were felt for their safety. They are on on their way to Cleveland, Ohio.

TEXAS TO BRING SUIT TO QUASH POWER OF I. C. C.

AUSTIN, Tex., June 11.—The Texas attorney general's department announced today that the supreme court of the United States had granted its request to file a suit attacking the constitutionality of the establishment of the Interstate Commerce Commission and the United States Railroad Labor Board. The supreme court informed the department that subpoena has been issued to the two organizations requiring them to appear before the court and defend their position. The suit was filed June 6, the announcement said.

The state of Texas sets up the plea that the Labor Board and Interstate Commerce Commission are without constitutional or statutory authority and prays that the two bodies be adjudged illegal.

Alameda Sciots to Initiate Class of 79

ALAMEDA, June 11.—The Alameda Pyramid of Sciots will lead 79 candidates in parade along the business section of the city this evening preceding their initiation. The parade will start from Masonic Temple at 7 o'clock. The initiation ceremonies will take place in Neptune Beach auditorium and will be attended by Sciots from all about the bay. The crack drill team of Modesto Pyramid and a large delegation of members of the valley lodge will be present. The entertainment which is to start at 10 o'clock will be open to the wives of the members. This will be a distinct departure from Sciot tradition. During the evening the band of the local Pyramid will furnish music. Ed Seagraves, commander of the Libyan guard of the Alameda order, will be grand marshal of the parade.

BASKETBALL GIRLS.

PURSE IS SNATCHED.

MOTHERS' CLUBS PRAISE RETIRING HEAD OF SCHOOL

Checks Are Also Included in Appreciation of Friends of Prof. Harwell.

SAN LEANDRO, June 11.—Resolutions of commendation and checks poured in upon Professor C. A. Harwell yesterday when the three Mothers' Clubs of Lincoln, Broadmoor and McKinley schools met to express appreciation of the retiring head of the grammar school.

Professor Harwell resigned last week and it is the generally accepted explanation that his action was due to politics inside the school board.

At yesterday's meeting a resolution of commendation was adopted by unanimous vote and signed by Mrs. A. P. Weaver, president of the Mothers' Club of Lincoln School; Mrs. R. B. Stuart, president of the Broadmoor Club, and Mrs. George J. Melm, president of the McKinley Club. Prof. Harwell's service to the community were extolled and a check for $50 tendered him to help pay the expense of his forthcoming trip to Des Moines as president of the Alameda County Educational Association.

Mrs. B. P. Mason, president of the local Red Cross chapter, speaking for that organization, gave Prof. Harwell credit for giving San Leandro a democratic school, for the organization of the county health center here, for good work for the Red Cross and other civic accomplishments. On behalf of the Red Cross she also handed Prof. Harwell a $50 check.

Professor Harwell will leave shortly for the educational convention and will extend his journey to New York, Boston, Montreal and other Atlantic seaboard cities. Upon his return he will enter the University of California for his doctor's degree in education.

By BOB SHAND.

We don't know what the Pharisees are doing, but the Scribes are having a terrible time making up their minds regarding the probable outcome of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight. Some of 'em are carrying water on both shoulders while others are so darned afraid they commit themselves they are wearing out all the "I's" and "F's" on their typewriters composing "ifs." One slant through a batch of fifty assorted opinions leads one to believe that Dempsey will win the coming argument if you can shoo about eighty-five "ifs" off the track.

Plain, ordinary, or garden, "dope" shows that Dempsey should knock out the challenger whenever he reaches him, and the dope further proves that Jack can reach anybody he starts after. If the fight is pre-arranged, which it likely is not, Dempsey could not "carry" the Frenchman more than two or three rounds. That's how bad Carpentier figures on "dope."

Georges never licked a good man in his life and a lot of second-raters have licked him. The barbed wire and the secret training, and the mysterious stuff around the Manhasset camp is swept away by the "dope" broom. There is nothing left on which Carpentier can build hope unless it is the possibility of Dempsey breaking a leg in the first round. A broken arm shouldn't make much difference to the champion just as long as he has one good wallop left, but a broken leg would be too much of a handicap unless he had a crutch handy in the corner.

Georges' Victims Second Raters

Bore down into the Carpentier record and see what you find. Not one victory of merit. Joe Beckett, Bombardier Wells and that sort belong with the Bill Shafers, John Rustings and Charlie Millers. Frank Klaus and Billy Papke were "through" before they met Carpentier, and even at that they whipped him, and Joe Jeabette was hitting the toboggan at a terrific gait when he won from the Frenchman. Everybody that ever hit Bomb Wells knocked him silly. His jaw is so fragile that when he gets shaved he has to caution the barber not to rub his chin too hard. Beckett was crashed with a lucky punch and would probably have licked the Frenchman had he not been careless.

Levinsky Battle Was Big Joke

The prize joke of all was dusting off Old Man Levinsky and leading him into the ring with Mons. Carpentier. Licking Levinsky was one of the most popular pastimes in the East at that time, but it was deemed necessary for Georges to lick some American-bred fighter in order to make the Dempsey match look logical. A dozen Eastern middleweights would have been eager to fight the European heavyweight and bet their end of the purse they could lick him, but Jack Curley, who is Carpentier's American representative and who also promoted the fight, had his own ideas. Jack, you know, has been mixed up with the wrestlers for many years and knows a lot of things. The ringside experts said a lot of very unkind things about Georges and the outcome of that battle; in fact, Carpentier was so peeved because some of the writers did not think it was on the level that he threatened never to visit America again. Maybe Georges didn't know the Levinsky thing was part of the preliminary advertising of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight, but everybody else did.

Throw Out the Brennan Scrap

Then came Dempsey's "bad" fight with Bill Brennan, when the latter stuck twelve rounds, and the "BIG" match was ready for the promoters. Dempsey couldn't stop Brennan in less than twelve rounds while Carpentier knocked Levinsky kicking in four. Surely it was a "logical" match.

Carpentier arrived in America with his dog "Flip," a cook and sparring partner combined, forty suits and ninety hats, and the garrulous Mons Deschamps, the managerial end of the firm. The dog got a lot of publicity, so did the cook-sparring partner, and yards were written about the Carpentier wardrobe. Great stuff.

A few thousand New York fight fans, many of whom saw the Levinsky thing, made plans to visit Carpentier in his training quarters and see if he really could fight. They were met with barbed wire, armed guards and a lot of chatter about attending to their own business. Newspaper writers were told they were not wanted, but Deschamps, after being politely informed that there might be no heavyweight battle July 2 if he got too darned fresh, consented to let the newspaper writers gaze on his wonderman two afternoons a week. According to all accounts, these afternoons are devoted to some well-rehearsed workouts with sparring partners who know what they are being paid for. Even Bob Edgren, newspaperman and stakeholder of the big fight, is no more welcome than anyone else.

Why All the Secrecy and Mystery?

Why the secrecy? Why the atmosphere of mystery?

Some fighters don't like crowds; some are so modest they dislike working in public; but Mons. Carpentier loves the limelight and craves the plaudits of the masses.

Why so exclusive?

Taking everything into consideration, the writer will volunteer only one guess, and that is that Georges is so bad he does not want the public to get wise to the layout and keep away from the box office July 2. Deschamps, a shrewd business man who never overlooked any bets, yet surely would not shut his fighter up in Manhasset when he had the chance to rake in thousands of dollars by charging an admission fee as Kearns and Dempsey are doing. Surely Tex Rickard, the premier promoter, would not consent to Carpentier shunning the customers and thereby hurting the receipts unless he had very good reason.

Champion Is Training This Time

Dempsey flopped them all except Bill Brennan in jig time and he trained for Brennan in a palatial apartment on Broadway, New York. Carpentier never licked a good man in his career. Dempsey is training in front of the wide, wide world this trip and will be in shape. Carpentier is hiding away behind barbed wire and armed guards.

M. J. B.?

Mrs. Clyde Watterman has been appointed to succeed Mrs. Milton Bernard as chairman of the handicapping tournament committee with the assistance of Mrs. O. Ellinghouse and Mrs. D. H. Foote.

An eclectic tournament will be held during the next three months—June, July and August. An average of two scores per week will be allowed each competitor. Should a player be unable to play her alloted two scores one week she may arrange to play 4 during the next or following weeks.

Friday, the 24th, a flag tournament will be staged with two prizes, one for winner and one for runner-up.

Players who have rounded the 18 holes at Pebble Beach recently will appreciate the quality of golf necessary to secure the remarkable medal score made by the popular local pro, Morie Dutra. With the exception of a temporary green at the 9th all the holes are now at full length. The 9th, although shorter than the regular green, is just as hard to play on account of the green sloping away from the approach shot. On April 7 he went out in 35 and in in 32, three under par. May 26 saw him hole out the first 9 holes in 30, only to fall down coming home in 40. April 12 he was out in 31 and in in 38, which included a 3 at the 6th, 500 yards; a 3 at the 8th, 408 yards. Another card during April showed an even round of 34 out and 34 in. Dutra's eclectic score reads as follows:

Par out	4	5	4	4	3	4	4	4	—36
Eclectic	3	3	2	3	2	3	2	3	—24
Par in	4	4	3	4	5	4	4	5	—35
Eclectic	3	3	2	3	3	3	2	3	—24

The 16th par 4 was a holed approach for 2, a niblic shot just having legs to fall into the cup. The greens, although not quite so perfect as at Del Monte, seldom trick a well hit putt. In a recent best ball match between Mr. Donald Smith and Tom Young against Peter Hay and Mortie Dutra the local players lost by the narrowest of margins. Going to the 16th 1 down, Peter and Martie were 1 down, but Mac and his partner were both in trouble from their drives, while the Del Monte and Pebble Beach pros. were nicely on in 2. Mac. from the rough laid his niblic shot dead for a 3, which may have had something to do with the others missing their putts for a half. The 17th, 207 yards, was reached by all four, with Peter Hay away some 40 feet. But with his usual accuracy he holed out, only to have Mac. Smith hole out one almost as far away and winning the match 2-1. Driving from the 18th tee 304 yards to the green the fairway curves from left to right with the ocean on the left. Most players play for a hook here, but Mac. Smith saw a chance to shorten the route to the hole by playing a bold shot out over the ocean, a carry of nearly 200 yards, which he successfully accomplished. This shot has not been patented, so players who have a good stock of balls may try to emulate the Lakeside professional's gallery shot.

WRESTLING SHOW TO BE STAGED TUSEDAY NIGHT

JOE KHOUMRIAN, manager of Al Karasick, middleweight wrestler. He has become a wrestling promoter and will stage his first show in Oakland Tuesday night. Karasick will be used in the main event.

Joe Khoumrian, manager of Al Karasick, local wrestler, has decided to become a promoter, and will stage his first wrestling show next Tuesday night at the Aahmes pavilion, Thirteenth and Harrison streets. As a main event Joe has signed Karasick to grapple with Douglas Park, another crack middleweight, who has gone into real training at the Olympic Club in San Francisco.

Although it will be his first show, Joe thinks that it will be the biggest success of any other wrestling show staged in Oakland. From the way Joe has handled the job thus far, he promises to become a first-class promoter. If the show turns out to be the success he expects, Khourmain will stage them probably every week or two weeks, and already he has a number of big matches lined up. Joe has a big bunch of fellow-wrestling fans helping him, and reports are that tickets are going fast enough to expect a packed house. Should Karasick win he will be matched with the best middleweights in the country. The news of the formation of the new local wrestling club has already traveled far, and yesterday Khoumrain received word from Pat Brown of Houston, Texas, that he wants to meet the winner of Tuesday night's match.

Big Scrap Will Take Place Three Weeks From Today

By JACK VEIOCK,
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, June 11.—Three weeks from today Georges Carpentier and Jack Dempsey will crawl through the ropes at Jersey City to stage "the battle of the century."

The time will fly fast and the big battle will be over, almost before we realize it. Yet, the coming weeks will drag for the rival fighters. Why? Because they are about to enter into the home stretch of training and the daily routine will pall on them long before July 2 arrives.

If Georges should lose to Dempsey after a stubborn battle he would be a great card against a suitable opponent. He wouldn't draw, however, with any of the men that Tom Gibbons has had handed to him. He'd have to get someone with some sort of a show. Fight fans will only have two months to rest up, as Labor Day comes in September and it would have to be a pretty good card to hop the public up again after such an event as it offered July 2.

Roly-poly Willie Meehan, who is at present running a grocery store in San Francisco, is out after Dempsey again.

"Jack will knock Carpentier for a row of brick flats on July 2," says Willie, "and I want the next fight. I met Jack five times already and grabbed two decisions from him. Eddie Graney handed me one and Bob Shand the other. I'm the only guy that knows how to lick Dempsey. He's a pip puncher. He can lick big fellows but he can't get at me. I fought him at the Red Cross benefit in Frisco. The Red Cross got every cent of the receipts. We didn't get a bean. I'd like to fight him once more, and get a chance at the jack. He dropped me with a left hook to the chin in the second round but I got up and won the decision."

When Fitz Tried To Regain Crown

Three years after Bob Fitzsimmons lost the heavyweight crown to Jim Jeffries he tried to get it back and failed.

The second encounter was at San Francisco, July 25, 1902, and in the eighth round it ended in victory for the champion. The first fight lasted eleven rounds.

The sport critics said Fitzsimmons outboxed Jeffries at every point, but Jeffries had capacity for punishment and besides, he had a tremendous advantage in weight. Fitzsimmons weighed 162 pounds, while Jeffries had 220 pounds to back up his blows.

Atlantic City Sporting Men Making Noise

Would Match Winner of July 2 Bout With Jess Willard.

By TAD.
(Written for International News Service.)

NEW YORK, June 11.—We are reliably informed that both Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier are looking for suitable opponents for bouts on Labor Day.

A prominent sporting man of Atlantic City has let it be known that he is very anxious to sign Dempsey and Willard for the city by the sea on that date and intends to build a big arena for the bout if he lands it.

"I don't care if we have no more New Yorkers there," he chirped in an uptown hotel yesterday. "We have enough people in Atlantic city and the surrounding towns to fill any arena. The floating population of Atlantic City is 150,000 a day at this season and believe me, I'd have an overflow for the fight that would fill a second arena. The people want to see Willard in another go with Jack. There are any number who believe he can beat Dempsey. It would be a good betting fight and a thriller to watch."

CARPENTIER WILLING.

As for Carpentier, we hear on pretty good authority that Descamps has buzzed Tex Rickard about a show on Labor Day for his man. He feels that Georges will beat Dempsey and wants to get another crack at American dollars before going back to France.

Fact of the matter is, Jack and Georges are ready now for the fight. They could go into the ring today or Monday if necessary. Hence the twenty long days ahead of them hold forth only promises of uninteresting, careful work.

With the exception of a cut over his eye that will be healed so that he may resume boxing in earnest the first of next week, Dempsey is fit to tackle anything from a buzz saw to an express train. His big care from now on will be not to go over the level of fine condition and start down the other side, as he did before the Brennan fight. Carpentier, too, is in excellent shape. The writer was included in a small group that watched him work out yesterday and there is not the shadow of a doubt about his physical condition. Beginning next week, according to Manager Descamps, Carpentier is to enjoy even more privacy than ever, though the two-a-week visiting days for the members of the press will not be altered. Special guards will be placed in the pastures at Matthews' farm to keep intruders from approaching near enough to interfere with Georges' workouts on days when he works in private. Fact is, he is going to do a lot of boxing and he wants as much peace and quiet during the remainder of his training period as possible. Descamps intends to see to it that Georges gets what he wants.

San Jose Stephens Hope to Halt Drive of Salinas Club

SAN JOSE, June 11.—San Jose baseball fans will utter another prayer of hope Sunday and journey out to Sodality park en masse to see whether or not their hopefuls are really going to look hopeful enough to win a ball game. After weeks of losing ball, the home fans are pulling for the local Stephens team of the Mission league to take a fall out of the fast going Salinas aggregation, which is tied with Gilroy for first place.

Sunday's game promises to be a pitchers' battle between Frank Juney for Salinas and Micky Shrader, San Jose's new twirler, who comes with an enviable reputation as a moundsman. Without his emery balls Juney has been somewhat at a loss against local batsmen and the Stephens sluggers are hopeful for a win.

San Jose will present several new faces in thel ineup Sunday, including Joe Rodgers, a former TRIBUNE league player, who has a name as a fast fielder and heavy hitter.

The local Elks' nine will cross bats with the Berkeley Elks in a preliminary game Sunday.

Sheely Hits Two Homers for Chicago

Earl Sheely, former Salt Lake Bee player hit two home runs, each time with a man on base, to give the White Sox a 5 to 0 win over the Philadelphia Athletics yesterday. Dick Kerr was the pitcher for the Sox and he got three hits. The only other White Sox to make a hit was Flack, so Kerr and Sheely get all the credit for the win.

Earle Barnes Returns As P. I. L. Director

YAKIMA, Wash., June 11.—Erle J. Barnes, who recently resigned as director in the Pacific International Baseball League as the result of a controversy by him and L. H. Burnett, president of the league, was unanimously reappointed as Yakima's director in the league at a meeting of the board of directors of the Yakima club. Mr. Barnes' resignation as president of the Yakima club was not accepted.

Boxer Not to Blame for Opponent's Death

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., June 11.—Walter Evans, 19-year-old Clallam county boxer, was acquitted of a charge of manslaughter growing out of the death of Emanuel Russo, Fort Flagler artilleryman, as the result of a knockout blow administered by Evans, in a match here last month.

Harry Schuman Boxes Draw With Thorpe

DENVER, Colo., June 11.—Harvey Thorpe of Kansas City, and Harry Schuman of Denver, welterweights, fought 12 rounds to a draw here last night. Thorpe carried the fight to the Denver man in most of the rounds. Experts at the ringside gave Thorpe four rounds, Schuman two and six were even.

Who'll Win?

(By United Press)

NEW YORK, June 11.—Billy Roche, promoter and trainer:

"Carpentier to win. He's large enough, fast and can hit. Dempsey isn't the man he was. He was great at Toledo but he has gone back since then. Hanging around movie studios never helped a man keep in form. Brennan found him easy to hit; why shouldn't Carpentier? It's going to be the greatest punching fight ever staged and will be over in six or seven rounds."

Carpentier Has Shown Improvement In Late Workouts

By JACK McAULIFFE.
Undefeated Lightweight Champion, Written for the United Press.

MANHASSET, N. Y., June 11.—Georges Carpentier has undergone a wonderful change in the last ten days. I have watched him closely in and out of the ring and the transformation is remarkable.

He has lost that scared, nervous, haunted look he wore when he first started working. He now has an attitude of defiance with that "let them all come" look.

He has lost that pale, sallow color, his eyes are brighter, his body healthier and he seems to be in the best of spirits.

Carpentier has a way of boxing all his own. He is very much like old Peter McCoy, perhaps the greatest marksman of the ring.

The Frenchman is the most accurate puncher I have ever seen. I have failed to see him miss the point of the jaw with a right or a left any time he started one, and he can hit from any angle or position. His hands are in no danger as he never strikes his opponent's head or shoulders.

Dan Morgan, Willie Lewis and myself watched him workout the other day and they offered to bet me he will hit Dempsey first. I believe he will myself.

Carpentier is fast and shifty on his feet. Dempsey will find in him nothing like the ponderous Jess Willard. Carpentier is a moving target and will be hard to hit. Although I think Dempsey will win, the champion must be in the best of condition, especially as to his wind, if the bout goes over three rounds; at the pace both are capable of setting it will be a question of wind altogether.

Carpentier has the sped of a flywheel and the punch of a heavyweight.

Richmond Wins for Hayward Natives

The Natives won another by giving the I. Maggnin Club of San Francisco a fine trouncing. The game was one-sided from the start, featured by heavy sticking and good baserunning by the Natives.

Miss Richmond, a Hayward high school product, has been pitching some great games for the home nine and he would have registered a white-wash against the Magnin Club but for a bobble in center field in the sixth inning. In the last four games Richmond has forty-four strikeouts to his record.

Bill Bernard nicked the visiting chucker for four bingles in five attempts while Grindell, Machado, Rodgers and Frank Bernard hit two apiece. The score:

HAYWARD NATIVES	R	H	E	I. MAGNIN CLUB	R	H	E
W. Bernard lf	4	4	0	Schimne, lf	0	2	0
Rizza, 2b	2	1	0	Richards, ss	0	0	0

FRENCHMAN MAKES EYES OF EX-CHAMP OPEN WHEN HE DISPLAYS FAST RIGHT

Sparring Partners of C arpentier Needn't Fear That They Are Going to Be Injured Much

By JAMES J. CORBETT,
Former World's Heavyweight Champion
(Written expressly for the International News Service)
(Copyright, 1921, by International News Service)

MANHASSET, L. I., June 11.—"Georges is expecting you, Mr. Corbett. Come right in. You'll find him over there in the yard."

With this pleasant greeting from Trainer Gus Wilson, I invaded Carpentier's training camp Friday and watched him box in private for the first time.

I found the French champion lolling on the lawn in front of his cozy quarters with Joe Jeanette, Paul Journee and Italian Joe Gans. I sat down and talked with them for a time, as the hour for training had not arrived.

Carpentier told me of his training routine and later went through his regular program just as he does in private. I was very much impressed and consider it quite a compliment, because first of all Georges is a fellow who hates to work in public.

When three o'clock arrived, Georges skipped nimbly into the house and got into his working togs. He came out dressed in ring attire and a long bathrobe and we all walked back to the house. He took off his bathrobe and I saw him stripped for action for the first time. I was agreeably surprised at everything I saw. Georges is built like the ideal athlete. His shoulder, arm and leg development is wonderful. He is not a Hercules, instead he is built like a fine thoroughbred horse. He isn't anything like Dempsey, who is bigger and more rugged. This fellow Carpentier is built for speed and believe me he has it. Georges punched the bag, skipped the rope, worked on the pulleys, slugged the heavy bag, went through gymnastic stunts and boxed with Journee, Jeanette and Gans. He went after his work with a will and worked up a perspiration that made his skin glow.

Big Frenchman Has a Lightning Right Hand.

Of course, I know that a man can't always cut loose and hurt his sparring partners. He wouldn't have them long if he did. And Georges didn't knock anybody out, or down. But he showed me a world of speed, a good head and as fast a right hand as I have ever seen in the heavyweight division. In fact, he has one of the snappiest right hands the heavyweight class has ever known.

I was especially impressed with the way he used his right and the manner in which he worked up to it, fidding around and never giving a sign in advance that would tip you off when you might expect him to let loose with it.

When he cuts loose, he is quick, snappy and a good slugger. Of course, he did defensive work while I was there because he was working aggressively to get rough exercise and did not try to rest himself. He never stopped going for at least forty solid minutes except to mop off his forehead. In boxing with Journee and Jeanette he worked like a Trojan and when he slugged he did so with very good judgment.

Paris Scribes Like Georges

Henrie Desgranges, director of the daily sporting newspaper L'Auto:

"Carpentier will win. I say this not because I am a Frenchman, but because Carpentier is too fast; too scientific. He will not receive a serious blow. His victories have always been impressive. He is the real god of boxing. Dempsey has a fine record, but he is not built of the same stuff as Corbett, Fitzsimmons or Jeffries."

George Casolla, sporting editor of Comoedia:

"I think Carpentier will win, but it will not be an easy victory. Dempsey is a dangerous adversary."

H. Bert, sporting editor of La Victoire:

"I pick Carpentier. Dempsey has done practically nothing except to whip Willard. Carpentier has a trunkload of victories in every class since he started to box."

Great Year in Athletics for U. C. Teams

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Eight young huskies will have a chance in Poughkeepsie June 22 to make California the biggest noise of the collegiate year.

If the California crew succeeds in winning the rowing championships it will make three victories in the biggest classics of the season.

A football championship, a track championship and a rowing championship in a row would give the Pacific Coast state something to crow about for a decade.

California's victory over Ohio's State football team, of course, was the cause of great jubilation on the Coast, but the recent achievement in winning the track and field crown from the very best in the East probably meant much more.

The Coast was tired of having their feats on the home track and field laughed at by the East with snickers about "trick watches, pet judges, starters" and the like, so when California team came East with a bare handful of men and beat the East on its own soil it meant more than an ordinary victory.

COLUMBIA IS FAVORED.

Wise followers of athletics figured the California team as having a great chance for the track championships when they looked over the well balanced team that was being sent. It turned out just as was expected. California won, not through any individual brilliance, but through the consistent work of the whole team.

The California crew which is to row in the Poughkeepsie regatta will have anything but an easy time to uphold the prestige of the Coast on the Eastern waters.

The world's champion navy crew had most of its cockiness knocked out by losing to Princeton in an early race and can be counted upon to paddle a hard race.

Columbia perhaps will be the hardest to beat. The New York university has one of the best crews of the season. Cornell and Syracuse also can be counted on for a good performance as they are both being primed for that one race.

Dempsey Returns to Training Quarters

The champion motored to Philadelphia and Camden and returned to camp early last evening, turning in by 9 o'clock. His injured eye has healed sufficiently to enable him to resume boxing and he planned to do so today or tomorrow.

Battling Ghee from Memphis, Tenn., a negro heavyweight of Carpentier's poundage, is the latest addition to Dempsey's staff of sparring partners. Ghee was scheduled to exchange wallops with the titleholder in today's workout.

ANGELS ARE CAUSING THE SEALS PLENTY OF TROUBLE

OAKS BEAT FRANK SHELLENBACK FOR SECOND TIME AND EVEN UP ON THE SERIES

COUCH BLOWS UP AND SEALS LOSE ANOTHER 12-INNING CONTEST

Young Reinhardt Holds Seals Scoreless After Letting Them Tie Score With Two in First

By EDDIE MURPHY

It is no use trying to dope out these clubs in the Pacific Coast League. One day a club might look like a Class-B outfit and the next day it will come back and play big league baseball. The Angels have turned that trick in their series with the Seals, and now the opinion is not so much in favor of the Seals walking away with the long end of the series as it was after watching the Angels drop the first two games to the Seals. Yesterday afternoon at Recreation Park the Angels battled the Seals in another twelve-inning contest, and like in the one of the day before, they came out of it with the long end of the score in their favor. But yesterday there wasn't much of a chance for the Seals to throw a scare into the Tray Carriers after they had put over the winning runs, for the Angels went out and grabbed six runs for themselves by batting Couch's shoots to all corners of the lot.

The final count yesterday was 8 to 2, the other runs besides those in the twelfth being put across by both clubs in the opening inning when the Angels forced Fran (Lefty) O'Doul, the Seals' star southpaw, to take the showers.

Sam Crawford Delivers As a Pinch Hitter.

Reinhart went the full distance for the Angels and staged as pretty a pitching duel with Couch, who replaced O'Doul, as did Vic Aldridge with Jim Scott on Thursday. Old Sam Crawford was the gent who ripped the tie in the twelfth inning, for it was he who Manager Killefer picked to bat for Statz and "Wahoo" responded with a single and then a few more of those one base drives followed.

O'Doul started his own trouble in the first inning by walking Statz who was forced at second by McAulley and the latter was only safe because Caveney threw high to first. Then Carroll walked and Griggs singled and Killefer followed with another single that scored two. O'Doul then turned his back to the stands and sprinted for the showers. Couch put an end to the scoring.

With Schick fanned by Reinhart Rath got one of his dinky hits and Caveney followed with a regular hit, that put Rath on third, and Jimmy took second on Reinhart's error. Ellison's single to the infield scored Rath, and Caveney also scored on Reinhart's second error.

Couch's Blowup Was Very Unexpected.

From that first inning on to the twelfth, Reinhart and Couch battled and were backed with some pretty fielding in which Rath and Walsh starred for the Seals. Couch had pitched some wonderful ball, and nobody suspected that he would blow up as bad as he did in that twelfth. Fans were prepared to see one of the longest games in the history of Recreation Park, for it looked like the game would go longer than it did. The concession boys would like to see them play extra inning games every day, for they sold all the soda pop and ice cream that they had on hand.

Couch is really to blame for his own defeat for he got his fingers on the balls that the first three batters in the twelfth hit and on which all were safe. Couch tried to stop Lindimore's single, with his bare hand, but the ball rolled to center. Stanage laid down a bunt and Couch heaved the ball high to Caveney and both runners were safe. Reinhart also laid down a bunt, but Couch's throw to third was too late to get Lindimore, and the bags were full with none down. Then came Sam Crawford to bat for Statz and he lined a clean hit to center that scored Lindimore. After McAulley popped out, Carroll and Griggs singled and three more runs were across. Griggs advanced on Killefer's sacrifice and scored when Bert Niehoff nicked Couch for a double. Lindimore couldn't deliver on his second time at bat for the inning, so the scoring ended there.

SEATTLE MAKES IT FOUR STRAIGHT FROM BEAVERS.

PORTLAND, June 11. — The Seattle Indians made it four straight wins over the Portland Beavers by taking the long end of yesterday's score, which was 10 to 6. The Indians landed on the shoots of Sam and Sid Ross for 15 hits, "Bush" Tobin and "Rod" Murphy each hitting three. Tobin gathered a homer, double and single. Murphy also hit a homer. The Indians started out by getting five runs in the first inning and practically cinched the game in the third with two more. Bill Cunningham also hit a homer for the visitors. Jacobs pitched against the Beavers and didn't have to extend himself with such a big lead to work with. The Beavers did give him a scare in the sixth when they scored three runs. Bill Kenworthy robbed the locals of several hits by his fielding around second base, where he handled eleven chances without a boot.

JAKE CROTER HAS A ROW WITH JOE WILHOIT.

SACRAMENTO, June 11. — After allowing the Salt Lake Bees to gain a three-run lead in the first two frames, the Coyotes settled down to real baseball and from then on the visitors went scoreless, while the locals went to work and grabbed enough runs to give them a 5 to 3 win. Jones pitched the first four innings for the Coyotes, and Ben Penner relieved him and pitched shutout ball the rest of the game. The visitors outhit the locals, but couldn't make their hits timely. Elmer Reiger, Art Gould and Blaeholder pitched for the Bees, with Gould getting charged with the defeat.

Umpire Jake Croter showed Joe Wilhoit and several other players that he is a gamer guy than they gave him credit for. In the second inning he chased Elmer Reiger from the game for disputing a decision and after the game Joe Wilhoit charged Jake with a bat and the umpire had his fists prepared for the Bee outfielder, but police and fans interfered and no damage was done.

U. S. S. California to Have Teams for All Lines of Sport

Officers and sailors aboard the U. S. S. California are planning to organize athletic teams which will be in the running for championships from tennis to football, it was announced here recently.

Lieutenant-Commander Johnas H. Ingram, former football star at Annapolis Naval Academy and one-time All-American player, will have charge of the athletic work aboard the big battleship and will try to make the vessel known in every port for the skill of its teams.

Most of the members of the ship's teams will be native sons of California, it is hoped, as attempts are being made to man the vessel entirely by California boys.

Football practice for the California's eleven will start in August, probably at the Mare Island Navy Yard near here. The battleship eleven will try for games against the University of California, Stanford University, St. Mary's College, the San Francisco Olympic Club and other California teams.

Calatones Will Play Newark Wedgewoods

The Calatone Water Co. nine of Oakland, which started its season shortly over a month ago, and lost but one game which was by a one-run margin, will make the trip to Newark tomorrow to play the Wedgewood nine of that town. "Chick" Hafey will do the mound work for the water boys, according to announcement by Manager Herman Harleo, while B. Wales will chuck for the Wedgewoods.

CHICAGO—More than 150 athletes were ready to take part in the central A. A. U. tryouts at Northwestern University Field today to decide who will represent the Central West at the National A. A. U. meet at Pasadena, Cal., in July.

Elks' League To Get Under Way Tomorrow

Local Fans Would Be Lost Tomorrow But for the Elks' Game.

By MAURY PESSANO.

Lucky! That is what can be said for the local bush fans. The season for the California Elks' league is to start tomorrow and one of the games is scheduled to be played at the Oakland Coast League park with the Oakland and Alameda Bills being the opponents. But for that game being scheduled here, it would be a very quiet day for the local bush fans, for no contests are scheduled to be played at the Alameda or San Leandro diamonds, the mecca of the local bush fans thus far this summer. But without the Tri-Counties, Mission, San Joaquin, Raisin Belt and Three "C" league circuits, the fans are going to be treated to their regular weekly dishes.

The Mission League appears to be staging the hottest fight of any for the championship, while down in the San Joaquin league the Hanford club is trying to make a run-away of the first half. The first half of the races in both the San Joaquin and Mission leagues will come to a close on July Fourth, so teams that still have a chance to finish at the top can be expected to put up some strong contests.

There are several clubs in the San Joaquin league who refuse to admit that Hanford has a big enough lead to hold her over the top to the third of July, and they will battle right to the end.

ELKS START TOMORROW.

Two games will be played in the Elks league, the third which was scheduled at Santa Cruz, being called off. The Santa Cruz game would have brought the Alameda and Beach town Bills together and it would have been some contest as they are old rivals from last season. The local game at the Coast League park should draw big, while that at San Jose should do likewise in spite of the Mission league.

The game at the Coast league will be called at 2:30 by Umpire Zimmerman who has been appointed by the committee. The Oakland boys who lost the pennant to the Sacramento Bills, have a better team than last season. They hope to be at the top from the start. The San Mateo boys are coming with a strong team. Al Schammell is one of the Oakland heavers.

TRI-COUNTIES LEAGUE.

As was predicted before the opening of the Tri-Counties League the race for the pennant in that circuit has developed into a hot battle with all four clubs having a fine chance of grabbing. The California Cotton Mills of Oakland is leading over the Vallejo and Napa clubs by half a game. Manager Cotton of the Millers is giving out the news that his boys will never give up that position. Tomorrow afternoon at Petaluma the Millers are billed to stack up against the Egg boys and although the Egg boys are in last place, the Millers should not have it easy. Tom Sullivan, manager of the Vallejo club does not expect his boys will be out of ball for seven innings, will do last Sunday by the Millers, was a tough one and the fans at Napa should see a great game. "Dutch" Lundberg, who twirled a great article of bball for seven innings, will do the mound duty for the visitors, while the home club will start Ezette. For the California Cotton Millers "Shorty" La Coustra may be selected to decorate the hill against Heine Lay for Petaluma. Heine's experience gives him an edge over the young miller but LaCoustra has been doing some nice work since the opening of the league. Cotton has the most dangerous club with the stick in the league. They have been showing so in the pinches.

HALTONS AT SAN RAFAEL.

The Halton Didiers of Alameda will leave Lincoln park and travel to San Rafael for a game with Andrade's bunch. Every year these two clubs get together in a series of games. The second game will be played at Lincoln park. Manager "Truck" Kues of the Encinal club will take three chuckers with him, and should be able to win the game if his hurlers are right. "Lefty" Didier and Carol Land have been doing most of the pitching but Kues has Bert Goodwin who can do good work on the hill. Bert is such a good hitter that Kues has been playing him in the outfield. Erich Schrieber will be with the club. Manager Andrade has two good pitchers. He has "Babe" Hollis and Emerson McNally. TRIBUNE leaguers playing infield positions and can call on these two lads if necessary.

NATIVES AT RICHMOND.

The Oakland Natives No. 50 will travel to Richmond for a game with the American Legion of that town. Manager Chester Case of Oakland parlor will have a strong club to take the field, and hopes to add another win. Heine Bennelack may be sent against the Legion boys. Heine has been doing a lot of "cutting up" for the past few months. Bill Keane will do the work behind the log.

ALMOST EVERY STATE TO BE REPRESENTED IN BIG NATIONAL TRACK MEET

Pacific Coast Colleges Will Have Best Track Men at Stagg Field on 18th of June.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 11.—Proof that the national intercollegiate track and field meet, to be held at Stagg Field, June 18, by the National Collegiate Athletic Association, will really be more national in character than any meet ever held in this country, is found in the list of entries which daily is becoming larger.

Scores of central western athletes tossed their hats in the ring shortly after the first announcement of the meet and southern schools were not far behind. The latest entries are from the Pacific coast and the southwest while assurance that eastern schools will send their stars has been received by the officials in charge.

NORTHWEST REPRESENTED.

The University of Washington has entered Hurley, its star sprint man who holds a mark of 0.09 4-5 in the hundred yard dash. Hurley has also traveled the ... yard low hurdles in 0.24 4-5. Pratt and Douglas will represent Washington in the 440-yard dash, both having records of less than 0.50. Pope, who has hurled the discus 152 feet 8 inches, and the shot 45 feet 8 1-2 inches, will carry Washington's colors in the weight events.

From the University of Oregon, Tuck, who throws the javelin more than 192 feet, and Walkley, who has covered the mile in 4:20, will come to Chicago to compete.

Washington State College will send Jenne, who has pole vaulted 13 feet 5 inches and Rawley, its star two-miler.

The Oregon Aggies have entered Snook in the short dashes and Sims in the long sprints.

STRONG SOUTHWEST TEAM.

From the Southwest, the members of the championship Texas A. & M. team are expected to make the best showing. Mahan, winner of the junior A. A. U. national championship javelin throw at Boston last year, Sanders who was the individual point winner in the southwest championship meet this year, placing in the hurdles, the high jump and the 440-yard dash; Davis and Weir, dash men, and Dietrich, javelin hurler, are other Texas A. & M. entries.

The University of South Dakota has agreed to send any of its men who break state or local conference records previous to June 18. Men who have qualified under this plan are Jacobson in the dashes, Price the hurdler, Zimmerman in the javelin throw, and Hokenstad in the discus throw.

That the star field events men of the far west and the southwest will have keen competition is shown, however, in the entry list from the University of Missouri, which includes Brutus Hamilton, who finished second in the decathlon at the Olympic games. Missouri also will send G. Williams a high jumper, C. H. Williams for the hurdles and Maxwell a middle distance runner who has beaten most of the stars in his section.

TIDELL JOINS VALLEJO.

Captain Rohwer of the Vallejo baseball club has signed Swede Tidell to hold down an outfield position for the remainder of the season. The well-known bush league player was formerly with the Richmond Elks and promises to make good in the Tri-Counties league.

GUISTO'S TIMELY HITS GIVE OAKS A 5 TO 4 WIN OVER THE TIGERS

After Allowing Three Runs in the 1st Inning Harry Krause Pitches Winning Baseball.

LOS ANGELES, June 11.—Frank Shellenback, star chucker for the Vernon Tigers will be one athlete who will be glad when the Oaks get out of here next Sunday night, for Frank thinks that if the visitors were to remain much longer as the guests of the Vernon Tigers, that his wonderful pitching record would look like it was shot all to pieces. For the second time during the series Frank met defeat at the hands of the Oaks when he pitched against them yesterday afternoon and they carried off the long end of a 5 to 4 score. Harry "Yoddle-" Krause was Shellenback's opponent on the mound and after a bad first inning when the Tigers scored three runs, Harry was master of Essick's boys.

Foreman Henie Mitze of the Oakland club switched his batting order around before the game and he must have done it on the advice of the ouija board, for no manager could expect better results than Mitze got out of that changed-about batting order. Brubaker was switched from sixth to third place in the batting order, and in the very first inning he drove out a single that scored Wilie who had reached second on French's bad throw to first. And in the sixth and eighth innings Louie Guisto who was moved down to sixth place in batting, connected for hits that drove home the runs that actually won the game for the visitors.

Following the Oaks tally in the first inning the Tigers came back in their dot bie and scored on High's sacrifice fly to Miller. After Schneider skied out for the second of the inning, Hannah singled and Smith walked and Hyatt chased them both home with a double on which he was caught trying to make third.

Three-Run Lead Looked Like Enough For Tigers.

In the second inning for the Oaks Knight drew a walk and Pinelli beat out a bunt down the third base line. It was a well placed ball that crossed up the Tiger infield. Krause delivered a hit that scored Knight, and a walk to Cooper filled the bags, but Wilie was unable to deliver a crushing wallop.

The scoring ceased until the sixth when the Oaks went out for two and the lead. Miller singled and Knight doubled, and they both scored on Guisto's long single. But the Oaks held the lead only a few minutes, for a single by Chadbourne, High's sacrifice and a single by Edington who replaced Schneider tied the score.

The Oaks went out and got three hits and won the game in the eighth inning. Miller started it with a single and took second on Hannah's passed ball. Knight sacrificed him to third and Guisto did the rest by getting his third hit of the game, a single. It looked dangerous in the ninth when Smith led off with a single, but the next three batters forced runners at second.

Major Clubs Hit 45 Homers In One Week

Harry Heilman Keeps Up His Heavy Hitting to Lead the American League.

CHICAGO, June 11.—Players in the two major leagues knocked 45 home runs in the past week. Thirty-two of the circuit hits were in the American league and 13 in the National.

"Babe" Ruth made two four-ply blows bringing his total to 17, which is half the total credited to his club. George Kelly of the New York Nationals, who for a time threatened to keep up with the American league slugger for round trips, has been passed by Irish Meusel of the Phillies who has raised his total to 10 home runs. The New York Americans lead the major aggregations for team totals of home runs with 34 for the season. The Philadelphia Americans in last place in the general team standing have 32 four-base hits to their credit giving them second place in the slugging column.

BASE STEALING HONORS.

In the American league Harris and Rice the Washington duet are having a merry race for stolen base honors. Each has pilfered a dozen sacks, but Sisler of St. Louis is right on their heels with 11 thefts.

Frisch of New York has stepped out in front among the base stealers in the National circuit with 11 thefts. Carey of Pittsburg is 1 behind him.

HITTING AVERAGES.

National League—Leslie Mann of St. Louis made the best showing of the week in the National circuit. He boosted his mark 12 points from 320 to 362, while Jacques Fournier of the same club added 31 points to his average bringing it up to 350. Rogers Hornsby another St. Louis star, retained first place by bringing his mark to 121. McHenry, a teammate, is runner-up with 392, while Johnston of Brooklyn is third with 389.

Other leading batters who have participated in 25 or more games are Grimes and Mann, St. Louis 362, Sullivan, Chicago 351.

HEILMANN ADDS POINTS.

American League—Tris Speaker, pilot of the world's champion Cleveland team pulled away from Tyrus Cobb, the Detroit manager, for the runner-up honors among the batters of the league by boosting his mark from 408 to 417, while the Detroit star slumped 7 points and dropped to third place with an average of .401. Harry Heilmann, the slugging Detroit outfielder hammered on 5 more points to his average which has brought him to 400. George Sisler, the St. Louis star slumped slightly in his hitting, but retains fourth place with 398.

United States, Japan Favored For Davis Cup

By HENRY L. FARRELL.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, June 11.—Unless Australia pulls the unexpected with a team of youngsters, America and Japan very likely will fight it out for the Davis Cup next September.

For the first time in years the tennis classic will be played without the veteran Norman Brookes and Gerald Patterson, Australia's aces of yesterday.

Brookes and Patterson have both been left off the team nominated by Australia for the Davis Cup matches. Banking youth rather than age and experience the Australians have named J. B. Hawkes, N. Peach, J. O. Anderson and either R. V. Thomas or W. Todd for the team.

Australia frankly does not expect much from the team in this year's competition but the radical change in the personnel of the squad was made with eyes on the future.

England and France may show some unexpected form but with the Australians less formidable than anticipated it looks as if Japan will furnish the greatest opposition to the American Cup holders.

Schimidzu runner up at the British national championships last year, has been able to get a leave of absence from his business in India and will play in the cup matches. Kumagae and Kashio also have been named for the team.

William Tilden, star member of the American team, predicts that the Japs will be the hardest to beat.

Spain already is out of the competition, having been defeated by the British Isles team in the first round.

I am against rent profiteers. I am a former union carpenter with about 50 lots in Upper Fruitvale on Hopkins street, at the end of the 38th ave. line. I want to talk to people who desire to get out of paying rent. The summer is coming and I will allow anyone to occupy one of my lots with a tent or any temporary structure, providing they agree to buy the lot at $10 down and $10 a month. Thus you will immediately reduce your rent bill. During the summer you can build a house for next winter. My lots have city water, sewers, sidewalks, electric lights, gas and street work—all in. Laurel Grammar school in the center of the property. Two car lines. Stores, etc., on the property. Wonderful soil for flowers, vegetables and chickens. If you do not want to build your own house, I will build for you or furnish the lumber and materials on easy terms. In fact, I stand willing to meet, with this fine property, almost any easy term requirement desired by anyone who is anxious to get out of the devilish clutches of the diabolical rent profiteers that are infesting this free country. Take 38th ave. car to end of line at Hopkins street. You'll find me living here, at my little office, all day and every evening. Phone Fruitvale 1256. R. F. HOOD, Anti-Rent Profiteer.

LOW RECORDS FOR YEAR ARE MADE BY STOCKS

Further Depression Attributed to Aggressive Operations of Shorts.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Low records for a year or more were made by leading issues in the course of today's short but moderately active dealings on the Stock Exchange. Further depression seemed to result largely from the more aggressive operations of shorts, but signs of additional liquidation were not lacking. Oils, including Standard Oil of New Jersey and Mexican Petroleum lost 2 to 5 points.

Steels and equipments, notably Crucible, Harvester preferred, New York Air Brake and General Electric fell 1 to 2½, and motors, sugars and tobaccos forfeited 1 to 3 points.

Coalers were heaviest of the rails, declining 1 to 3 points but Southern Pacific preferred showed conspicuous strength. The closing was heavy. Sales approximated 100,000 shares.

NEW YORK SUN'S REVIEW.

NEW YORK, June 11.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today said:

The price list in today's session of the stock market was variable and unsettled, with a few outstanding weak features like Mexican Petroleum, which was forced down to below 129 by the continuation of the selling pressure of the past week. Crucible Steel, which lost more than three points, receding below 58, and American Sumatra, which at 55 was down 3 points. General trading was fairly animated for a Saturday in summer and particularly active in the issues specified.

Stocks became increasingly irregular in the last half hour, under the cross-current of bear raiding in one quarter and the covering of short contracts in others."

CATTLE FINANCING DISCUSSED.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Efforts to obtain financial relief for the livestock industry through banking channels were discussed at a conference late yesterday between Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, J. Pierpont Morgan, Governor Strong of the New York Federal Reserve Bank, Senator Stanfield of Oregon, Gooding of Idaho, Kendrick of Wyoming and Smith of South Carolina, Vice-Governor E. B. Platt and John R. Mitchell, of the Federal Reserve Board, and Eugene Meyer Jr., director of the War Finance Corporation.

It was decided that a short investigation of the credit situation in the cattle country would indicate whether adequate financial relief for the livestock industry might be obtained through private banking channels.

JAPAN'S CHINESE PLAN.

TOKYO, June 11.—Koretiyo Takashi, minister of finance, in relations with China, expresses the opinion that China's inexhaustible raw materials must be available to Japan if Japan wishes to maintain her position as one of the five great powers, and recommends a Chino-Japanese economic alliance, according to the Nichi Nichi. Japan should renounce her twenty-one demands, says the minister, and adopt a positive, constructive and unchangeable Chinese policy, which would include the development of social, educational and economic conditions in China. Should any power object to such a policy, Japan could withdraw from the consortium.

Business and Finance

In anticipation of the resumption of building Monday, building permits aggregating $66,885 were taken out in Berkeley during the week ending Thursday, June 9, the business summary of the First National Bank of Berkeley said today.

The amount is $54,360 greater than the permits issued the previous week and is considered by the summary as evidence of the confidence of builders and contractors that will begin with a rush next week.

The Berkeley permits for the week are divided as follows: New building, $52,250; miscellaneous, $11,535.

The week just ended was also marked by a decided increase in bank clearings, which totaled $3,216,701. These figures exceeded the previous week by $1,283,624.43, but were $846,182.39 less than the corresponding week a year ago.

The summary expresses confidence in the business situation, which, while feeling the summer slackness, is nevertheless satisfactory. It is pointed out that real estate is becoming more active and it is anticipated that land sales will increase immediately when building is resumed. There is still a steady demand for houses, new structures, however, being preferred.

PORT COSTA WATER ISSUE APPROVED.

The Railroad Commission has authorized the Port Costa Water Company to issue interim certificates to the amount of $125,000 for exchange of first and refunding 8 per cent gold bonds for a like amount. The certificates are to be sold at not less than 94½ per cent and accrued interest.

WEEKLY REPORT OF BANK CLEARINGS.

Bank clearings as reported to the California Development Board by the several clearing house cities for the week ending June 9, show the amount of increase or decrease from the amount reported the corresponding week, last year as follows:

RATE CUTS NOW HANG ON EASTERN ROADS.

Another step toward important reductions in fruit and vegetable rates was gained yesterday in Washington when the Interstate Commerce Commission announced that one day's notice and publication would be sufficient to make effective reduced transcontinental charges on Pacific coast garden and orchard products.

The railroad traffic managers in conference in Chicago during the last few days have promulgated numerous cuts, which were quoted as previously published. They range from 8 to 33 cents a cwt.

The important point, however, has been that the effective dates have been held up while the crops in the west are being harvested and moved. Only a few minor eastern railroads thus far have agreed to accept shipments east of Chicago at the quotations agreed on by the Western and Southern Pacifics, the Santa Fe and the Salt Lake Route, together with lines reaching the northwest.

The most immediately important cuts, those on vegetables and cantaloupes, are to be effective next Wednesday if eastern agreements have been made.

Another interesting phase of the rate situation was that announced from Los Angeles last night in which it was disclosed that reductions of 22 cents a hundred pounds on transcontinental rates on oranges and 16½ cents on lemons by November 1 were promised if citrus fruit shippers would abandon further development of water transportation facilities.

The offer would reduce the orange rates from $1.92 to $1.70 and on lemons from $1.66½ to $1.50.

The proposition was made by G. W. Luce, freight traffic manager of the Southern Pacific; W. G. Barnwell, assistant freight traffic manager of the Santa Fe and A. S. Edmonds, general traffic manager of the Salt Lake. At a conference with members of the California Citrus League, also was attended by representatives of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange and independents.

G. H. Powell, general manager of the Fruit Growers' Exchange, indicated that the proposal, if accepted, would mean a boycott of the Panama, in effect and would damage Los Angeles harbor and merchant marine development.

F. O. Wallschlaeger, secretary of the California Citrus League indicated that to accept such conditions would be impossible.

STATE CROPS NEAR NORMAL AVERAGE.

Fruit is slightly poorer, field crops better than last year, says E. E. Kaufman of the Department of Agriculture reviewing the monthly condition. The total average is 3.7 below the ten-year normal, he estimates. The wheat estimate, 8,686,000 bushels is 14 per cent above last year and 2 below the ten-year average. Frost damage in apples and pears and other fruits beside citrus varieties is beginning to appear.

MORE OAKLAND SCHOOL BONDS ARE SOLD.

The sale of $185,000 more in Oakland school bonds to R. H. Moulton & Company, San Francisco bond brokers, was announced today by F. W. Foss, county treasurer. The bonds were of $1000 denomination and bear 5 per cent interest. They are a part of the second issue which amounted to $1,000,000. The first quantity sold was $815,000. The entire issue was for $4,375,000. Bids on five of the proposed new school buildings have been asked.

Because the bond market now will not absorb bonds at 5 per cent it is stated there is an understanding with the brokers that the contractors for the school buildings reimburse them for a sufficient amount in the premium to bring the interest up to 6 per cent, the school board providing in the contract for this extra expense to the contractor.

NEEDLES TO PAY HIGH FOR ELECTRICITY.

Electricity costs more in Needles than in any other city in California, the Railroad Commission declared in authorizing a rate increase to the Needles Gas and Electric Company because of heavy operating costs. For domestic and residence service the new rate is 18 cents a kilowatt hour for the first 20 kilowatt hour, and 13 cents above that amount, with a minimum meter charge of $1.50 a month.

WEST SACRAMENTO REORGANIZATION PLAN.

Replacement of the West Sacramento Company with a new organization is projected in the report of the reorganization committee submitted to bond and stockholders in San Francisco. P. I. Manson, S. L. Schwartz and A. T. Tichenor, as a committee, submitted the plan.

It is proposed to capitalize with 10,000 shares of $100 par non-cumulative non-assessable preferred stock and 15,000 shares of 100 par common. The preferred is to be 7 per cent issue. This would make the capitalization $2,500,000.

There is about $700,000 in bonds outstanding. Bondholders would receive common shares in new of $420 interest due on each bond and ten shares for each bond of preferred.

Stockholders whose assessments have been about $600,000 would receive new common shares at the rate of one of the new for two of the old. There is $2,000,000 of the old stock outstanding. Common stockholders are to take new preferred at the rate of 15 per cent of present holdings. Sale of preferred at par is to pay present lines against the 2500 acres of land held near Sacramento, the company's chief possession.

The company plans to sell off its agricultural land and preserve the townsite.

STATE EXPENDITURES OVERTOP MAY INCOME.

The state treasury disbursed $4,676,591 and received $2,425,549 in May, Treasurer Richardson reports. The larger items paid are listed in the announcement as follows: San Francisco harbor, $123,797; school land fund investment, $701,061; State University, $199,758, compensation insurance investment, $1,245,938; motor vehicle, $506,712.

NOTES.

The area sown to wheat in Canada for the 1921 harvest is 18,654,100 acres, preliminary estimates by the dominion bureau of statistics report. This is an increase of 421,726 acres. Fall wheat is 709,100 acres this year; spring wheat, 17,945,000 acres.

New York clearing house banks and trust companies this week report that they hold $48,286,420 reserve in excess of legal requirements. An increase of $23,191,830.

Directors of the Considine-Martin Oil company have elected Walter E. Buck to succeed the late Joseph Martin as president.

Studebaker earnings, net, for the first six months of the year approximate $7,000,000, which is more than $10 a share on common stock. Total net profits last year were $9,822,000.

Authority has been granted the Great Western Power company on its application to the railroad commission to sell or exchange $1,295,000 of series B bonds for a like amount of general mortgage bonds.

MEXICAN OIL TAX PROTEST BY U. S. HAS OPPOSITION

South and Central Oil Men Wire Hughes Asking Hands Off.

TULSA, Okla., June 11.—Oil men's associations in Oklahoma, Kansas, Texas and Louisiana last night joined in a telegraphic protest to Secretary of State Hughes at Washington against the United States formally objecting to the new Mexican export tax on crude oil.

The message, signed by the Gulf Coast Oil Producers' Association of Louisiana and Texas, the North Texas Oil and Gas Producers' Association, the Oil Men's Protective Association of Oklahoma and the Kansas Oil and Gas Association, was sent after extended long-distance telephone conferences today. The telegram also bore the signature of W. H. Gray of Tulsa, who was selected to take up the matter with Secretary Hughes.

TEXT OF MESSAGE.

The message said:

Through the columns of the press we note that certain American interests have lodged protests with your department against the proposed increase of export taxes on crude and refined oil by the Mexican government. We wish to call your attention to the fact that 80 per cent of this Mexican oil is coming into the United States duty-free, and that these same interests which are lodging the protest against Mexico's system of taxation are vigorously opposing the levying of any import tax on this oil by the Congress of the United States.

CONDITION AT HOME.

The oil industry in the United States is 60 per cent shut down and hundreds of thousands of men are out of employment. The industry languishes in despair while these selfish interests absorb the markets of our country with cheaply produced and cheaply transported oil from Mexico upon which they pay no taxes to this country and ask the government of this country to aid them in avoiding taxation in Mexico.

We must vigorously protest against the government of the United States interfering with the system of taxation on oil promulgated by the republic of Mexico or any other country so long as that system of taxation is levied equally against all foreigners.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Official Mexican government reports show that petroleum reports from Mexico in April amounted to 13,200,000 barrels, a decrease of 2,000,000 barrels, as compared with March, the Department of Commerce is advised by Commercial Attache Jackson at Mexico city.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, June 11.—Wheat was lower at the start. September opened down at $1.17¼ to $1.17¾. Selling developed after the break reached a point 2 cents off yesterday's close and it continued on rumors of black rust in Nebraska and some indications of a possible wet harvest in other sections. A sharp upturn at the end of the first hour wiped out the initial losses, July touching $1.37¼, but at that point the market showed a tendency to sag.

Rust reports persisted and the sentiment turned bullish, the close being near the top for the session. July wheat wound up at $1.38¾ to $1.38½ and September at $1.23¾ to $1.24.

In the corn pit recent extended hedges changing between July and September resulted in bringing July 1-8c lower at 61 7-8c to 52c and September opened 3-8 to ½c lower at 62 to 62 1-8c.

Oats were easier with other grains, July opening at 37 1-8 to 37¼c.

WARM WEATHER RUSHES BUYING IN 'MEG MARKET

Fruit Also Feels Influence of Popular Diet; New Lemon Gain.

Oakland and the Eastbay region are melon hungry. Hot weather and the first plentiful offerings sent buyers into the market today, with the result that the cantaloupe market was cleaned out for the week-end and there were few honeydew melons left.

At the same time three carloads of watermelons arrived from Imperial Valley, in time to replenish a market fairly sold down.

Still another effect of the hot weather, both east and west, was seen in the lemon market, where prices gained 50 cents more. Lemons today were selling as high as $8, a wholly unexpected figure among market men only a short time ago.

The rise in the price of lemons, largely due, it is stated by growers, to warm weather in the east and a phenomenal improvement of the market there, has been one of the chief market features of the last two weeks.

Oranges also were in good demand today.

Saturday's vegetable market was active but not at greatly altered prices. Asparagus, which now approached the end of the season, sold down about a half cent, and lettuce was generally cheaper. String beans were plentiful at about 7 cents for the best.

The market for new potatoes has held up well under large deliveries.

Generous deliveries of Royal apricots were in the hands of most firms today, the prices ranging up to $2.50 on the four-basket crates. Other apricots in lugs brought ten cents a pound and under and were only of average quality.

Small fruits, like melons, felt the warm weather demand and strawberries sold up about ten cents on the drawer today. Loganberries, however, are somewhat cheaper.

Slow Climb Is Business Prediction

By Consolidated Press
Special to TRIBUNE

BY BYRON SELLER.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Even the most conservative agencies of the United States government are agreed that the national business outlook is on the whole more favorable than it has been for a long time. But there is no expectation of a sudden, or sharp jump in the improvement.

In taking their views, the government agencies confirm business despatches received from various sections of the country.

Commodity conditions are sounder, perhaps, than during any spring since the country was plunged into war, particularly in lines where deflation has been carried out.

The fact that business is moving in large volume is shown by the report of the Research Committee of the National Dry Goods Association which says returns from nearly 300 department stores for the first four months indicate a falling off of only slightly more than 2 per cent in the dollar value of sales as compared with 1920. Inasmuch as retail prices are from 30 to 40 per cent lower in most sections a clear indication is had that there has been an increase in the volume of trade.

There still is some question as to whether or not retailers have kept pace with the decline in wholesale costs, but it is agreed that it is much easier to trace the trend of wholesale than of retail prices. The wholesale market is comparatively limited, governed more closely by general or national conditions.

Little or no complaint is heard of wholesale prices. In the case of cotton, hides and non-ferrous metals, conditions indicate that a fair degree of stability has been reached and prices are showing slight increases. The liquidation in the raw materials has been more complete than in any other branch of business with the result that raw materials in many lines are selling at approximately pre-war prices.

Decline in spot prices of bituminous coal has been spectacular, but the present level is still as high as in 1919 and during the first months of 1920, and at present the tendency of these prices seems to be toward higher levels. Pig iron, petroleum, and leading building materials are still being reduced in price, but the present levels range up to and above twice the pre-war levels.

Business is not desirous of a too literal return to pre-war price levels. The real desire is that there shall be a readjustment of prices within the various industries in such a way as to bring about a more normal relationship of various commodities and various goods to one another. Profits in certain lines have been narrowed down to such a point that readjustment of this sort is essential to future business.

SILK MARKET FIRMER.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Cables say the Yokohama raw silk market is active, with prices advancing. The demand for silk for prompt shipment is especially brisk. There is difficulty in filling these orders, however, because stocks have been allowed to run down to almost famine proportions. The Canton market is firmer, partly on account of poor new crop prospects. This makes reelers reluctant to sell their good silks at present prices. The Shanghai market is rather quiet.

FUR DEMAND STEADY.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Slow but steady demand is noted in the raw fur market. All the fancy furs still have the best of it, so far as the desires of buyers are concerned, experienced dealers say there are few furs that are really being neglected. Furs most in favor at the moment are mink, muskrat, beaver, skunk, Australian opossum and ermine.

CRUDE DRUG TRADE.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 11.—Fresh imports of crude drugs have caused a further decline in many drug and chemical products. The government has large surplus stocks of drugs and chemicals to sell and manufacturers are waiting for these auctions to determine what effect they will have on prices. Some manufacturers believe sales, coming on top of heavy imports, which have beaten the new tariff, will prove serious.

SHOE ORDERS PLACED.

BOSTON, June 11.—One reason given for the improvement in the leather market is the large volume of orders for fall shoes placed with the manufacturers. If the advance business booked in fall footwear can be taken as a criterion, the business world has taken a decided step on the road to normalcy. Some of the factories are reporting orders largely in excess of those booked at this time last year. The only point where a loss of orders is shown is in the south but this is attributable largely to the late start of salesmen on the road in that section.

Fashion News

NEW YORK, June 11.—The Joan of Arc turban, in the opinion of French millinery designers, will be a striking feature of fall headwear. This turban is small, rising to a point in front, and is described as quite smart, especially in the tailored effects. Generally, it is said, the French milliners are working with felt and velvet for the fall, having discarded duvetyn almost completely. Shapes are of wide variety.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 11.—For mid-summer one of the leading lingerie houses is featuring two types of silk underthings. The first is a tailored group developed for the most part in Babette, with hemstitching, hand feather-stitching and French knots in coin dots or bowknot motifs. These show the pointed hems that have become so popular this season. In the second group, georgette is the material used, in pastel shades, with narrow ruches of tinted net for trimming. Sometimes this matches the georgette and again it is in contrasting shade. Small feather-stitched motifs in the same color as the net sometimes form additional trimmings. Thus blue net and embroidery often trim yellow georgette. The step-in drawer and chemise to match are the most popular garments.

NEW YORK, June 11.—A Fifth Avenue shop is making lingerie especially designed for sports use, and the display carries an appeal both in fabric and color. This sports idea is a development of this season and finds expression in both silk and cotton materials, fashioned along simple tailored lines in high colors. The particular display in mind consists of various garments in rose colored cross-barred dimity, piped with the same material in white, and also smocked with white.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Whether or not the golf hiking suit, consisting of knickers and coat, will be generally adopted by women throughout the country is a matter of wide conjecture. This type of costume has been made up by a number of manufacturers this season and all report that there has been a fair demand for them. This demand is said, however, to have been confined to four sections of the country—New York, Washington and Chicago and California. Some of the newer costumes have skirts which can be buttoned over the knickers when play on the links is completed.

SHIPPING BOARD REORGANIZATION SET FOR MONDAY

New Policies Outlined First Time Under Lasker; Hope Held.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Plans of the administration concerning the shipping board were outlined last night in high official quarters for the first time since the appointment of the new members with A. D. Lasker, of Chicago, as chairman.

Necessity for fullest co-operation with commercial interests was emphasized in view of "virtual paralysis of American shipping and especially that of the shipping board."

It was stated that the object of the new administration would be to place the corporation upon a strictly business basis. This would mean, as a start, it was said, the charging off to the war of the heavy losses since the corporation's inception. This loss was estimated as the difference between the war cost of $3,000,000,000 and the present estimated value of the board's assets of from $750,000,000 to $1,000,000,000.

Confidence in the future of the American Merchant Marine was expressed by Rear Admiral Benson on the eve of his retirement as chairman. The new organization, of which he will be a member, will be effected Monday.

Of the nearly 1500 steel steamers owned by the board, more than 50 per cent are now operating, Benson said, and the actual operating deficit has been reduced to between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000 a month.

State Dept. Chief Gains In Esteem

By HOLLAND
Exclusive to
OAKLAND TRIBUNE

NEW YORK, June 11.—Charles E. Hughes, Secretary of State, no doubt knows that James G. Blaine, when he sat at the same desk, warmly advocated a federation or some other international agreement whereby the Central American Republics could be brought together.

It is almost an echo of something Blaine said 40 years ago which sounds in the words of approval spoken by Hughes at a luncheon recently given in his honor by the minister from Nicaragua.

Of course Hughes did not commit the United States. But he did make it clear that if a confederation were organized the United States would regard it with gratification.

Blaine's view was that a confederation of the Central American States would lead to vastly increased commerce between the United States and these Central American Republics. It would be certain to secure financial aid from the United States. It would tend greatly to strengthening diplomatic relations between this country and the nations south of us and this feeling would extend ultimately throughout South America.

ADVANTAGE MUTUAL.

Secretary Hughes appears to take the same view. He went so far as to say that through agreement made by these Central American states freely entered into the possible mutual advantages would be fully realized. That means not only advantage to the Central American confederation but reciprocal advantage to the United States.

This incident which for an hour or two interrupted the arduous toil to which the Secretary of State has submitted, throws in some measure a light upon his purposes during the hot season. Some who are of kin to him say that he sees no vacation possible, even for two or three weeks from the imperative responsibilities which are to be put upon the State Department for the next year or two.

For that reason he plans to remain in Washington throughout the summer, being at his office every day. The infrequent holidays when the departments are closed will find him at the home established by General Pershing on the banks of the Potomac, about twenty miles below Washington. There the breezes from the river and some which occasionally find their way with ocean fragrance from Chesapeake Bay insure comfort at night at least. The Secretary will journey between this summer place and his office every day by motor, twenty miles.

ABLE TO WORK HARD.

The Secretary believes that the State Department, during this administration is to have responsibilities and opportunities unsurpassed even in the days of the Civil War when Secretary Seward was laboring to prevent European complications. Hughes was not elected President five years ago but his administration of the State Department may in great measure make good that defeat both for himself and for the country. He is not appalled by the magnitude of work which may be imposed upon him. Like one of his predecessors Elihu Root, he is capable of prolonged and intense application to work.

John Quincy Adams, when he was Secretary of State and later when he was President, was accustomed to rise at five o'clock and give an hour or two to work. When Hughes returned to New York in 1916 to resume the practice of law, he found himself immediately in possession of highly remunerative clientage. But his professional opportunities involved an amount of work which, unless there were some relaxation and recreation, would have broken down a very strong man. To carry on his work he was accustomed to rise two hours, sometimes three hours, before breakfast, even though he may have been at his labors until a late hour the night before. In this way he was able to accomplish an amount of work which many lawyers would have thought sufficient for an entire day. He always took time to gain the tonic of fresh air.

MANY TO COMMEND.

No doubt while Secretary of State his capacity for intense and prolonged work will be of avail of him. Only those who are of the administration, and not all of them, and some in this who are near of kin to him, have knowledge of the magnitude in volume and in importance of the labors which the Secretary of State at this time must submit to. It is observed that many are the commendations which come from all parts of the country and from men of ability who did not vote for him for President, for the manner in which he has grasped the responsibilities of the State Department.

SHIPPING NEWS

The schooner Alice arrived at Port Moller, Alaska, June 9, and reports sighting a floating derelict with mast broken off and drifting in a westerly direction. It was about 100 feet in length and was in latitude 54.07 north, and 158.16 west longtitude. So far there is no vessel from this port of that size reported missing, although several of the small craft have left Puget Sound for Alaska, but no word has been heard from them yet. It is thought that the derelict may be one of the Japanese schooners taking a cargo of codfish from Japan to Seattle. The Alice left Seattle April 30 for the Bering Sea on a codfish cruise, and put into Port Moller for a supply of fresh water.

The steamer Eastern Importer, from Valencia for New York and San Francisco, put into St Michaels with her boilers out of commission. Repairs will be made before she can proceed on her journey.

Thirty-four days out from Oakland Harbor the bark Hecla arrived at Naknek, Alaska, with cannery supplies and employees of the cannery. Only a few more of the Alaska salmon fleet remain out on their way to Bristol Bay, and are expected to arrive at any time. The weather in that locality is reported as extra good for this time of year.

The arrivals in port yesterday were the largest for some weeks. There were nine arrivals and eight departures. Each day the steamers which have been laid up on account of the strike have been securing crews and are sailing without any difficulty.

Francis Bruce Oliver died at his home in Oakland yesterday. He was connected with the shipping business at this port for many years. Oliver arrived in this port from Boston on a deep water windjammer via Cape Horn in 1858, and had resided here ever since.

The steamer Taiyo Maru, formerly the German steamer Cap Finisterre, sailed from Yokohama yesterday under the Japanese flag. She has a full cargo of freight and one thousand passengers. On her way to this port she will stop at Honolulu.

The Standard Oil ship Daylight, under command of Captain Carlson, is making a long voyage across the Pacific. She left Manila April 5, and should have arrived here some days ago. The Monongahela, also a sailing ship under command of Captain Swain, is en route here from Manila, having left that port April 23. Both vessels shipped their crews at this port and are carrying cadets, residents of the bay cities.

With Captain Randall Rodgers on the bridge the steamer Yale left here for Los Angeles last evening. He was supposed to have taken command of the steamer Harvard, but that vessel is not yet ready for service, and Rodgers will remain on the Yale until such time as the vessel is put into commission.

Two gasoline launches were sold here yesterday. The Flyer was purchased by D. Scoortes from D. Kardasskis, and the Sea Lion from E. Sejournan by A. Bolandreas. Both vessels will be used for the fishing business on the bay and rivers.

Changes of Masters registered at the United States Custom House: Captain Randall Rodgers, steamer Yale; Captain L. C. Jeffoesen, steamer Port Costa; Captain John Griffith, steamer West Kasson; Captain J. H. Phelps, steamer Orabelle.

The public evening navigation school in the Ferry Building closed for the summer vacation last night, when graduation ceremonies were held in the class rooms. Certificates were issued to the following: Renato Bianchi, Charles Bosch, Gustav W. Gjesdahl, George C. Neilsen, Edward B. Wallace, Harold H. Warford and Gordon Youse. The school will reopen August 1.

Note—In the above tabulation of tides, the daily tides are given in the order of their occurrence, commencing with the early morning tide in the left-hand column and the succeeding tides as they occur. On some days but three tides occur, the fourth occurring the following morning.

AGAINST LUMBER TARIFF.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 11.—A tariff on lumber is not desired by the Western Pine manufacturers, a resolution drawn up at a special meeting of the association here says. It was felt that the lumber industry would benefit little, if any, by the 25 per cent tariff suggested. A committee of four was appointed to go east to confer with Secretary Hoover and Attorney General Daugherty on Hoover's plan for co-operation between the government and the lumber industry in compiling data.

PRIZES AWARDED IN COMPETITION WHY THROW RICE?

Cities of State Join Hands in Observance of New Festival Day.

J. E. Nelson, 1912 Brush street, wins the first prize of $15 in the contest, "Why Throw California Rice at Newlyweds," conducted by the local committee in connection with rice day, which is being observed in every city and town of California today.

"You ask, 'why throw rice at newlyweds?'
'Tis plain—to shower blessings on their heads!
The happy pair at the church door halts,
Blinded by rice to each other's faults,
And woe be unto the pair so gay—
That misses this shower on their wedding day."

The second prize in the contest was carried away by Alden Macomber, 2423 East Twenty-second street. Macomber submitted the following answer, for which he will receive $10 in cash:

"Upon the discovery by the Hawaiians that California rice was fruitful and represented fertility, the rest of the world took the hint. They added two and two, made four, and cast rice at the newly-weds as they smiled together."

The third prize, a special prize of a $20-box of candy, was carried away by Miss Dorothy Carter. The candy was donated by the Venus Cafe and necessitated an answer containing the name of the establishment.

The fourth, fifth and sixth best answers were mailed orders for sacks of California rice.

George E. Shelden, chairman; I. H. Spiro, president of the Merchants' Exchange; I. H. Clay county assessor; Judge James G. Quinn, Clinton Dodge, Harold Austin, president of the Oakland Advertising club, and W. E. Gibson, president of the Polytechnic College of Engineering.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPLY.

This answer was awarded fourth prize by the committee for the reason that it was slightly over the fifty-word limit to make it first:

"Over in China, where they raise a million kids every month, about all they eat is rice. The rice growers over here want us to compete with the Chinese in raising kids. Some men favor the idea, but they don't get the fullest support from some of the women. That's probably because we throw rice at them the first thing after they get married. Maybe if we would quit this habit they'd eat more rice."

That answer was written by J. W. Musselman, advertising manager for a local printing house.

Kernel Rice is in his glory today. Special sales of the California product are being offered today by many of the large retailers. He is being featured on the menus of all restaurants and hotels. In every quarter he is being honored.

ANNUAL RICE DAY.

Today is the first annual Rice Day conducted by the Rice Association of California. It is planned by the association to nationalize Rice Day next year and spread the gospel to every corner of the United States. The Rice Association is co-operating with all the other organizations in the State to boost California products.

Governor William D. Stephens set aside today, June 11, as the day for the first annual Rice Day in California. Mayor John L. Davie in a recent proclamation urged the citizens of Oakland to join with the committee to make this day a success.

"Buy Five Pounds of California Rice!"

Mayor Will Address Illinois Society

Speakers at the annual picnic of the Illinois Society of California, Inc., which will take place at Mosswood park next Wednesday, will be Mayor John L. Davie, Rev. John Snape, pastor of the First Baptist church, Edwin E. Cox of the American Legion and Fred A. Campbell. Basket lunch will be served from 12 to 1 o'clock and in the evening from 6 to 7. This will be followed by dancing from 8 to 10 p. m.

An invitation is extended to natives of Illinois, their sons and daughters, children and friends, to be present and to bring well-filled lunch baskets.

It is further announced that the Illinois Society will hold its regular monthly open meeting in St. George's hall, Twenty-fifth and Grove streets, tomorrow evening. Mrs. Elizabeth Hayward, chairman, has arranged the program, which will be followed by dancing.

The four California girls, who will become students in the charter Bryn Mawr Industrial summer school, left yesterday to begin their six weeks' course. Scholarships in this state were awarded one girl from Los Angeles and Berkeley and two from San Francisco.

Miss Elsie Goodwin, an employee of the Paraffin Paint company, has large plans for the application of her studies when she returns to her home, 1411 Arch street, Berkeley. She is already an acknowledged leader among the younger women in industry in the bay cities, now holding the office of president of the Girls' Auxiliary of the Industrial Athletic association.

Miss Kate Sacks, a garment worker, and Miss Dorothy Ralston, a proofreader, are the two San Francisco girls en route to the summer session of the exclusive eastern college. An education has been the goal of both young women.

"I became self-supporting when I was 14," Miss Sacks explains. "I have read everything I could find on industrial problems and welfare work." Miss Ralston confesses to an affection for anything that suggests the study of economics.

Miss Leah Dobkin, who completes the California group, is a clerk in a telephone office in Los Angeles. She was a prominent figure in the National Industrial Welfare Convention, which met in Washington, D. C., in 1919, under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A.

Bryn Mawr has inaugurated the summer session for a limited number of young women in industry from all parts of the country. The experiment is regarded with interest by educators throughout the country.

NEW FRATERNAL NEWS SERVICE IN SUNDAY TRIBUNE

Increasing activity among the lodges of the Eastbay, and increased interest in The TRIBUNE'S fraternal page, appearing ONLY in the Sunday edition of The TRIBUNE, has resulted in the creation of a new fraternal department, which will be found ONLY in the Sunday edition.

No newspaper in the West has such a feature service, or can cover ALL the activities of ALL the lodges so completely.

A full page is devoted to the activities of the Eastbay lodges. Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley, Richmond and the suburban districts, are well covered by this feature service. Pictures of those prominent in fraternal circles will appear from time to time.

In addition to the items of general news interest the Sunday edition will also contain a complete classified directory of the various lodges of the Eastbay. This feature will also appear on the fraternal page. The directory will give the chief officers of each organization and when and where each lodge meets.

Those accustomed to turn to the fraternal page in the past will take new pleasure in reading the activities of ALL of the Eastbay lodges, as they will appear ONLY in the Sunday edition of The OAKLAND TRIBUNE.

Teachers Leave City As Schools Close

The closing of schools has not only caused a general exodus of teachers for the holidays but has caused a curtailment of the office work of the superintendent of schools as well.

Dr. Virgil Dickson, head of the research department, has gone to Kansas City. Mrs. Elizabeth Madison, librarian, is on her vacation and Superintendent of Schools Fred M. Hunter starts for a trip to Yosemite today.

Despite the opinion of citizens representing various civic and commercial organizations, who believed that this would be an inopportune time to give higher compensation to teachers, Hunter asserts that something should be done to make up the difference between the amount promised and what the teachers got last year. They were promised $420 and received $240, leaving $180 which the teachers believe to be promised them.

SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES PLAN FOR THEIR VACATIONS

Three Will Begin Rest Period June 20; One Visiting Jurist to Aid.

The vacation season for the judges of the Superior court, already begun, will be in full swing on Monday, June 20.

Presiding Judge T. W. Harris today announced that it is proposed to have each judge on duty look after two courts. Three jurists, Judge E. C. Robinson, Judge Joseph S. Koford and Judge A. F. St. Sure, will begin their vacations of four weeks each on June 20. Judge L. S. Church left last Monday. He was to have gone east yesterday with the Shriners, but was taken ill and was advised by his physician not to make the trip at this time.

Judge Harris said there will be one visiting judge here to help during the vacation season. He is expected to hear the will contests requiring juries, several of these being now on the calendar. Judge J. J. Trabucco of Mariposa county is to arrive June 20. Judge W. M. Conley of Madera is here now, but is to leave soon.

When Judges Robinson, St. Sure and Koford return Judges George Samuels and James G. Quinn will begin their period of rest. Judge Dudley Kinsell has had his vacation, having returned several weeks ago.

Attorneys set few cases for July and August, because of their own absence from the city, which helps the courts to arrange their vacations.

700 MUST QUIT PRESIDIO HOMES, SEC. WEEKS' RULE

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—Approximately seven hundred persons will be forced to vacate their Presidio residences by June 30, according to regulations of the War Department despatched here by Secretary of War John W. Weeks, requiring Mrs. Frederick Funston, widow of the noted general, to leave the quarters she has been occupying at the Presidio. The order is effective June 30.

To prevail upon the War Department to make an exception in Mrs. Funston's case, the matter was taken up personally with Secretary Weeks by Senator Shortridge. A number of San Francisco civic organizations have interested themselves in Mrs. Funston's behalf.

According to Secretary Weeks the quarters occupied by Mrs. Funston and other widows of officers will be needed to house officers attached to headquarters of the Ninth Army Corps area who will arrive in San Francisco June 30.

Builders and Unions Will Show Strength on Monday

With a small chance held out that an agreement may be reached by night both sides of the building tie-up continued today making separate plans for the resumption of work on Monday.

At the Builders' Exchange it is said that construction in the bay cities will start under the American plan and that no further conferences or dealings will be held with the Building Trades Council. At the offices of the State Building Trades Council, on the other hand, it is said that what building will be started on Monday will be that undertaken by the contractors who are not in agreement with the Exchange and that it will be union work.

UNION POSITION DEFINED.

The chance for settlement, in the face of the statements of the Builders' Exchange not held to be promising, is in the letter sent by President P. H. McCarthy of the Trades Council to Archbishop Hanna, one of the arbitrators. In this McCarthy intimates that the Trades Council is ready to accept the arbitration agreement in full and would appear to meet all the stipulations of the Exchange. The McCarthy letter follows:

Reverend Archbishop Edward J. Hanna, San Francisco, California.

Your Grace: In a communication published in the early edition of the morning newspapers, by the Builders' Exchange, purporting to reply to a letter of acceptance on the part of the Building Trades Council of the award of arbitration rendered by the board of which Your Grace is a member, appears the following language:

"Nothing less than an explicit, unqualified acceptance in full of all the terms of the arbitration agreement and of the full and complete jurisdiction of the arbitration board, properly signed by regular officials of the Building Trades Council, could have been considered."

McCARTHY EXPLAINS.

That there may be no misunderstanding on the part of the public of the issues of the present controversy, I wish to state explicitly to Your Grace that the Building Trades Council at its meeting held Thusday evening, June 9, 1921, did unconditionally accept the award rendered by the board of arbitration, of which Your Grace is a member.

Furthermore, speaking for myself and the Building Trades Council, I am very much surprised that anyone should question the desire of the Building Trades Council for arbitration. The Building Trades Council was instrumental in bringing about the selection of this board of arbitration and the Building Trades Council stands today as it has always stood, for arbitration.

Respectfully yours,
P. H. McCARTHY.

BUILDERS STATE CASE.

The Builders' Exchange has advertised for workers at the "San Francisco Builders' Exchange wage scale," and claims that there have been a large number of applications. Over the signature of Charles W. Compertz the exchange has published the following open letter:

The tardy and ambiguous letter of the Building Trades Council is utterly inadequate as a basis for the resumption of any further negotiations.

Despite its protestations of good faith and the best interests of the city, the Building Trades Council very adroitly accepts only the present decision of the arbitration board; it remains significantly silent as to whether it will accept the full jurisdiction of the arbitration board as it agreed to do on January 31 last, and will concede its right to make further revisions in hours, wages and working conditions.

Nothing less than an explicit, unqualified acceptance in full of all the terms of the arbitration agreement and of the full and complete jurisdiction of the arbitration board, properly signed by the regular officials of the Building Trades Council, could have been considered.

BUILDERS' EXCHANGE.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 11.—William Cunningham, a prisoner in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., filed a self-prepared petition for release on a writ of habeas corpus in the Federal District Court here today, alleging he was convicted by a court-martial at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, in December, 1920, on trumped up charges just as he was about to expose a conspiracy in which officers were involved.

Cunningham claimed in his petitions he had 22 years' service, with his record always marked excellent, and that Senator Hiram Johnson of California publicly had denounced the alleged conspiracy.
